

THE PRINCIPLES OF GRADUATE STUDY

The Principles of Graduate Study

- Graduate coursework is more creative.
- Graduate coursework is more self-directed.
- Graduate coursework is more rigorous.
- Graduate coursework is more attentive to epistemological issues.
- Graduate coursework is more attentive to research.
- Graduate coursework is more a community of learners, rather than merely a teacher-student relationship.
- Graduate students give careful consideration to research, information, and bibliographic references.
- Graduate learning is not just remembering information, it is constructing knowledge.

Graduate professors are actively engaged in research and learning.
