

FINANCE MAJOR (BS TRADITIONAL)

In this program students learn how to make financial decisions for organizations via planning, raising funds, making investments and controlling costs. Students gain knowledge and skills that are important for any business or organization. Because the finance program is designed to be responsive to the needs of the marketplace, it will be a relevant major for those considering a variety of careers such as stockbroker, investment banker, securities analyst, credit manager, or other financial specialist.

General Education Requirements

All degree seeking undergraduate students must complete the general education (<http://catalog.csp.edu/archive/2019-2020/undergraduate/academic-information/general-education-requirements>) requirements.
