

DIVERSITY INITIATIVES

Diversity Affairs Office/Diversity Center

The Diversity Affairs Office serves as an advocate and resource for students, and works collaboratively with staff and faculty to promote an inclusive, Christ-centered campus community. With support from inter- and intra-campus offices, organizations, and programs, the Diversity Affairs office provides:

- Vision and leadership for the university's diversity efforts through creative programming, consultation and partnerships
- Supportive and sustaining relationships with students, colleagues and various public constituents
- Attention to needs, issues, and concerns impacting diversity throughout the campus
- Oversight of the university's strategic diversity priorities;
- Coordination of activities that promote the identity of students of color
- Opportunities for celebration of the harmony in diversity on the campus and within the community

Building Opportunities for Leadership and Development (BOLD) Scholarship Program

The scholarship is designed to provide students with the academic support and financial assistance needed for them to be successful here at Concordia University, St. Paul. Through this scholarship we help to assist students in developing their leadership potential.

The goal of the BOLD Scholarship is to insure that students have a healthy and meaningful transition into the college environment and that students successfully complete their college education here at Concordia University, St. Paul. Through the scholarship, students receive individual attention, positive interactions, ongoing support and wonderful opportunities to grow intellectually, spiritually and socially. Participants are expected to:

- Utilize resources at Concordia University to improve their academic performance
- Attend individual meetings to assess each participant's needs and academic progress throughout each semester
- Attend on-and-off campus educational, cultural and social events planned or required by the program
- Encouraged to be involved in various organizations, social activities and other extracurricular activities

C.A.R.E. Committee (Coalition for Acceptance, Respect, and Equity)

The C.A.R.E. committee is comprised of Concordia staff and faculty who began an organized effort to identify, engage and eliminate racism as it exists in its various forms at Concordia and beyond. The mission of the committee is to promote equality and peaceful coexistence through developing awareness of self and others, sharing knowledge, encouraging mutual understanding, and healing the historical and continuing trauma of injustice and inequity by acknowledging that racism, classism, ableism, homophobia, transphobia, and sexism still exist.

The committee aims to support a campus community where the dignity, value, and human potential of each member is equally honored and respected through the creation of a campus environment free from violence and discrimination. Annual events and efforts sponsored by C.A.R.E. for the campus and wider community include interactive dialogues, focus groups, panels, sensitivity and awareness training, written and verbal communications and exchanges, unity activities, support of community issues and actions, and presentations at local and national conferences. Student involvement on all levels of this work is essential and critical to this team. Collaboration with on- and off-campus groups, departments and organizations is central to the planning and execution of events led and supported by C.A.R.E.

Shades of Harmony Gospel Choir

The choir is a volunteer chorus made up of students, faculty, and staff from varying races, cultures and backgrounds who are interested in learning about, experiencing, and singing music from diverse cultures. The group focuses on the African American Gospel Choir tradition, but also explores choral music of other cultures. The group performs occasionally in Concordia's chapel service and/or an off-campus service performance. Non-music major/minors may use up to eight ensemble credits towards graduation.

For more information about Shades of Harmony Gospel Choir, please contact Andrew Griffin, the director and an alumna, at griffin@fsp.edu; Taylor Hamilton, Accompanist, at thamilton@fsp.edu.

Black Student Union (B.S.U.)

Black Student Union aims to increase political, social and cultural awareness of the African American community. BSU's goal is to promote unity and diversity to revamp and stabilize a presence on campus through a series of events, socials and forums. The goals and objectives of BSU is:

- To represent Black students in political matters and community matters.
- To serve as a primary advocacy organization for Black students.
- To take active measures toward fostering and enriching environment for Black student attending a predominantly Caucasian university.
- To actively participate in functions on and off campus, for example, leadership conferences, that provide enrichment and enlightenment to the plight of Black people at a majority Caucasian university.

Global Student Club (G.S.C.)

Global Student Club is a club for all CSP students who are interested in learning about new cultures, countries, and global topics. GSC provides a place for any enrolled CSP student to share their global experiences, learn from other students about their global experiences, learn about new cultures, and have fun! GSC's goals and objectives are to:

- Provide an environment where students interested in global topics and culture can get involved on the CSP campus.
- Provide an opportunity for both international and domestic students with similar interests to connect and share with each other outside of the classrooms.

For more information about GSC, please contact GSC's Staff Advisors: Kate Larson, C.A.L.L Center Coordinator at klarson@csp.edu: (651) 641-8285; Tiffanie Loeb Schneider, Director for International Student Services at loebshneider@csp.edu: (651) 641-8321

People Encouraging Accepting Connection and Equity (P.E.A.C.E.)

People Encouraging Accepting Connection and Equity is an organization that helps students find themselves outside of society's heteronormative standards, for their allies and friends, and for those who seek greater understanding and desire to foster a climate of mutual respect and open communication. PEACE provides both a metaphorical and physical safe space on our campus for fostering a greater sense of community and mutual respect. The goals that PEACE would like to accomplish are:

- To promote a safe space for students who find themselves outside of society's heteronormative standards
- To better educate those who may not understand the spectrums of gender and/or sexual orientation
- To break down stereotypes of gender and sexual orientation
- To promote an optimal university experience in and out of the classroom through activities, events, and collaboration with other clubs and organizations

For more information about PEACE, please contact PEACE's Staff Advisor: Matt Ryan, at ryan@csp.edu.

Student for Latinos/as (S.O.L.)

Student for Latinos/as purpose is to increase awareness and appreciation of the U.S. Latino/a, Chicano/a, and Latin American culture and heritage at Concordia St. Paul. We are committed to fostering relationships within our CSP community and beyond.

For more information about PEACE, please contact SOL's Staff Advisor: Lina Baker at lbaker@csp.edu.
