

MUSIC (MUS)

MUS 102 Basic Musicianship 1 credit

Basic Musicianship is designed for students with little background in music. This course provides concepts for an understanding of the basic fundamentals of music theory. Students will also have an introduction to ear training and the keyboard. (Offered every spring. No prerequisite. This course can serve as a prerequisite for MUS 203 and ED 446. Studio course.)

MUS 111 Class Piano I 2 credits

This is the first of two courses in a beginning piano instruction sequence. Through group class instruction students are given a practical knowledge of the keyboard and an understanding of the tonal-rhythmic structure of music. Keyboard skills requisite for handling classroom music situations or for personal enjoyment of music are developed. (Offered every fall and spring. No prerequisite. Players with previous keyboard experience may be exempt by examination. Can serve as a prerequisite to MUS 203 and ED 446. Studio course.)

MUS 112 Class Piano II 2 credits

This is the second of two courses in a beginning piano instruction sequence. Through group class instruction students are given a practical knowledge of the keyboard and an understanding of the tonal-rhythmic structure of music. Keyboard skills requisite for handling classroom music situations or for personal enjoyment of music are developed. (Offered every fall and spring. No prerequisite. Players with previous keyboard experience may be exempt by examination. Can serve as a prerequisite to MUS 203 and ED 446. Studio course.)

MUS 113 Class Piano III 1 credit

This course continues the class piano sequence with the intent of finishing the piano proficiency requirements in a systematic manner. Students will learn all major and minor scales and arpeggios, and will be guided through methods of sight reading for open score and hymn textures.

MUS 115 Beginning Guitar I 1 credit

This course is designed for those with no knowledge of the instrument. Areas covered include tuning the guitar, strumming techniques, chords-two keys, and transposing. Open to all students. (Offered every fall and spring. No prerequisite. Players with previous guitar experience may be exempt by examination and move on to private guitar if desired or needed for program. Studio course.)

MUS 116 Beginning Guitar II 1 credit

This course is a continuation of Beginning Guitar I with additional chords in several more keys. This course is recommended for students desiring to study private guitar. (Offered every spring. Prerequisite: MUS 115 Beginning Guitar I or consent of instructor. Studio course.)

MUS 122 Music for Life 3 credits

This course teaches music listening skills, explores music in history and culture, and reveals how music expresses human emotions, thoughts, and ideals. Students will study the foundational elements of music and apply their knowledge to classical art music, global music, folk music, and popular music. They will also discover lifelong benefits and societal uses of music. The course fulfills one course for the Humanities requirement in the General Education curriculum. Offered every fall and spring; summers to be announced. No prerequisite. (This course is a required Gen Ed for a Music major.)

MUS 161 Class Voice 1 credit

Students will examine and personally develop the foundations of a healthy, efficient technique of singing. Activities to achieve this goal include vocal exercises practiced in and out of the classroom, solo singing for one's classmates, lectures and demonstrations by the instructor on vocal technique and the vocal mechanism, and related reading assignments. (Offered every semester. No prerequisite. Studio course.)

MUS 200 Music History Survey 3 credits

This course explores classical music history and style developments throughout influential periods of Western European history and modern America of the 20th and 21st century. Historical time periods include the Renaissance, Baroque, Classical, and Romantic Eras. Students will study significant musical ideas, events, composers, and compositions that shaped history and impacted future generations of composers, performers, listeners, and users of music in society. In addition to applying their score reading and listening skills to trace music styles and characteristics such as melody, texture, harmony, and rhythm, students will develop a greater appreciation for the benefits of music in their lives and careers.

MUS 201 Musicianship I 4 credits

This course begins with a brief review of music fundamentals (scales, keys, intervals and triads) and continues with four-part harmonic writing, and basic analysis. Exercises in keyboard harmony, sight singing, and dictation are included in the course. (Offered every fall. Prerequisite: MUS 102 or equivalent as determined by music placement test.)

MUS 203 Musicianship I 3 credits

This course begins with a brief review of music fundamentals (scales, keys, intervals, and triads) and continues with four-part harmonic writing and basic analysis. Exercises in keyboard harmony, sight-singing, and dictation are included in the course. (Offered every fall. Prerequisite: MUS 101 or equivalent as determined by music placement test.)

MUS 204 Musicianship II 3 credits

Students continue to learn four-part harmonic writing, including the use of inversions and seventh chords. Exercises in analysis incorporate the study of melody, harmony, rhythm, texture, and form. Dictation, sight-singing, and keyboard harmony are continued. (Offered every spring. Prerequisite: MUS 203 or equivalent.)

MUS 205 Musicianship I 3 credits

This course builds on the foundations of Basic Musicianship by focusing on diatonic harmonic practices from the Common Practice period. Basic formal structures in music and ear training skills are also studied. Historical context and commentary relevant to the theoretical concepts at hand (largely from the Baroque and early Classical periods) are also presented in this course. (Prerequisites: MUS 102 or equivalent)

MUS 206 Musicianship II 3 credits

This course extends the study of Musicianship I into chromatic harmony and larger formal structures from the Common Practice period. Ear training skills appropriate to these new concepts are introduced. Historical context and commentary relevant to the theoretical concepts at hand (largely from the late Classical and Romantic periods) are also presented in this course. (Prerequisites: MUS 205 or equivalent)

MUS 261 Beginning Conducting 2 credits

The goal of this introductory course is to begin to develop a clear and expressive conducting technique. Students will conduct in-class frequently, videotaping their work and receiving immediate feedback and suggestions for improvement. Students will learn to conduct regular beat patterns, preparatory gestures, cues, cutoffs, deadbeats, fermatas, asymmetrical patterns, and subdivided gestures. Students will learn to make thoughtful decisions in varying their conducting patterns to show changes in dynamics, tempo, and articulation. Activities to strengthen the inner ear while conducting will also be included. Requirement: for Church Music and Music Education majors. (Offered every odd fall. Prerequisites: music reading ability, MUS203, and/or consent of instructor. Studio course.)

MUS 301 Musicianship III 4 credits

Students learn to write in the contrapuntal style of the 18th century. Chromatic harmonies and a study of classical period forms are also included in the course. Dictation, sight-singing, and keyboard harmony are continued. (Offered every fall. Prerequisite: MUS 202 or equivalent.)

MUS 302 Musicianship IV 4 credits

Students explore the new directions composers have taken in the 20th century and compose their own pieces in various contemporary styles. Keyboard harmony, dictation, and sight-singing are continued. (Offered every spring. Prerequisite: MUS 301.)

MUS 303 Musicianship III 3 credits

Students learn to write in the contrapuntal style of the 18th century. Chromatic harmonies and a study of classical period forms are also included in the course. Dictation, sight-singing, and keyboard harmony are continued. (Offered every fall. Prerequisite: MUS 204 or equivalent.)

MUS 304 Musicianship IV 3 credits

Students explore the new directions composers have taken in the 20th century and compose their own pieces in various contemporary styles. Keyboard harmony, dictation, and sight-singing are continued. (Offered every spring. Prerequisite: MUS 303)

MUS 305 Musicianship III 3 credits

This course bridges the gap from the Common Practice period practices into the 20th and 21st century musical practices by surveying a wide variety of genres: Impressionism, ragtime, jazz, atonal music, post-tonal music, and music influenced by specific cultures and countries. Appropriate scalar and chordal structures are introduced, along with ear training skills. Historical context and commentary are also presented in this course. (Prerequisites: MUS 206 or equivalent)

MUS 321 Music History I 3 credits

This course explores the Ancient, medieval, Renaissance and early Baroque periods of Western music. (Offered every third semester in sequence with the other two Music History Courses). Prerequisites: MUS 122 or MUS 203.)

MUS 322 Music History II 3 credits

This course explores the 18th and 19th centuries of Western music. (Offered every third semester in sequence with the other two Music History Courses). Prerequisites: MUS 122, MUS 203. MUS 321 is preferred, but not required.)

MUS 323 Music History III 3 credits

This course explores Western Music from the late 19th century to the present. (Offered every third semester in sequence with the other two Music History Courses). Prerequisites MUS 122 and MUS 203. MUS 321 and MUS 322 preferred but not required.

MUS 356 K-6 General Music Teaching Methods 2 credits

This course will deal with the planning and implementation of instruction in the non-performance-based music class from kindergarten to senior high at the elementary school levels. Students will examine the curriculum, textbooks, and teaching materials available for these classes. The National Standards for Arts Education receive special attention in relation to planning a spiral curriculum. A strong emphasis is placed on unit and lesson planning. The course is required for all Music Teaching Majors. Offered every even fall. Prerequisite: MUS 122.

MUS 357 7-12 General Music Teaching Methods 2 credits

This course will deal with the planning and implementation of instruction in the non-performance-based music class from kindergarten to senior high at the secondary school levels. Students will examine the curriculum, textbooks, and teaching materials available for these classes. The National Standards for Arts Education receive special attention in relation to planning a spiral curriculum. A strong emphasis is placed on unit and lesson planning. The course is required for all Music Teaching Majors. Offered every even fall. Prerequisites: MUS122, MUS 204.

MUS 363 Piano Pedagogy 1 credit

As an introduction to the various techniques related to the teaching of piano, students are exposed to and explore piano instructional materials and methodology. Practical experience is gained through observation, teacher interviews, and evaluation of pedagogical materials. (Offered even springs. Prerequisite: MUS 840 or other previous private piano study.)

MUS 364 Handbell Techniques & Pedagogy 1 credit

Through lecture and hands-on ringing, students are given practical study of handbell techniques, score preparation, and pedagogy. (Offered odd falls. Prerequisite: music reading ability. Studio course.)

MUS 365 Electronic Instruments Techniques & Pedagogy 2 credits

This course introduces students to a range of computer-based music technologies. Extensive work is done with the music notation/MIDI program, Finale. Students will also explore using pre-set patches, sequencing, and creating new synthesized sounds. CD ROM programs for music history, music education, music theory, and ear-training will also be explored. Students will be expected to log lab hours in the music technology studio. This course is an elective in all music majors, minors, and emphases. (Offered every spring. Prerequisites: music reading ability, computer literacy. Studio course.)

MUS 366 Vocal Techniques & Pedagogy 1 credit

This course is designed for advanced singers who wish to gain techniques and practice in teaching vocal technique, both in working with individual voice lessons and with choral groups. This course is required for the vocal tracks of the director of parish music (DPM) program and the music teaching major. Activities include leading warm-ups and teaching peer voice lessons. (Offered even falls. Prerequisites: private voice study and consent of instructor. Studio course.)

MUS 368 Jazz Improvisation 1 credit

Students will explore concepts used in jazz improvisation. (Offered odd springs. Prerequisites: A workable knowledge of scales, chords, chord progressions, sight-reading, and a familiarity with the musical vocabulary. Studio course.)

MUS 369 Art of Accompanying 1 credit

This course is designed as a practice and provides students with the skills necessary to become artistic and capable accompanists. Areas explored include vocal, instrumental, and choral accompanying. (Offered odd falls. Prerequisite: MUS 840 or other previous private piano study. Studio course.)

MUS 402 The Business of Music 2 credits

This course will introduce business and legal aspects applicable to music professionals (music production, music performers, music educators, music directors, church musicians, music organizations, recording industry, arts management) and music industry and organizations. Topics covered will include copyright law, licensing, contracts and marketing/publicity.

Prerequisite: choral audition for placement by instructor.) Repeatable

MUS 717 Choral Ensemble: Vox 9 Vocal Jazz 1 credit

This is a small vocal ensemble of 4-16 singers focusing on learning and performing vocal jazz literature. The group meets for one rehearsal 90 minutes/week and performs occasionally on campus. May be taken for 0-2 credits. Repeatable. (Prerequisite: Audition and 2 semesters MUS860 or equivalent. Corequisite: Singers must be enrolled in MUS 860 Minimum Grade of C-, MUS 861 Minimum Grade of C-, MUS 960 Minimum Grade of C- or MUS 961 Minimum Grade of C-).

MUS 720 Instrumental Ensemble: Concert Band 1 credit

Concert Band performs works drawn from worldwide genres. Performances include chapel services, fall and spring concerts, and Commencement. Occasional off-campus performances are also scheduled. (Offered every fall and spring. Prerequisite: prior instrumental experience and seat audition placement.) Repeatable

MUS 725 Private Voice Lesson 1 credit

Individual, 30-minute vocal lessons stress proper tone production, phrasing and style. Special techniques unique to the voice are studied. Material covered includes standard vocal works. All lessons include studio classes scheduled throughout the term as a lab time. (Prerequisites: approval and placement by instructor. Private lesson fee.)

MUS 730 Instrumental Ensemble: String Ensemble 1 credit

Chamber Ensemble performs works drawn from worldwide genres. Performances include chapel services, fall and spring concerts, and Commencement. Occasional off-campus performances are also scheduled. (Offered every fall and spring. Prerequisite: prior instrumental experience and seat audition placement.) Repeatable

MUS 735 Private Keyboard Lesson: 1 credit

Individual, 30-minute lessons on one of the various keyboard instruments stress proper form, phrasing and style. Special techniques unique to the instrument are studied. Material covered includes standard works for the instrument. All lessons include studio classes scheduled throughout the term as a lab time. (Prerequisites: approval and placement by instructor. Private lesson fee.)

MUS 740 Instrumental Ensemble: Handbell Ensemble 1 credit

This ensemble is open to any student with handbell experience or sufficient music reading ability. It will perform both on campus for chapel services and the Fine Arts Christmas Concert as well as for area congregations. Members of this ensemble may also belong to other music organizations on campus. (Offered every fall and spring. Prerequisites: music reading ability, audition for placement by instructor.) Repeatable

MUS 745 Private Brass Lesson: 1 credit

Individual, 30-minute lessons on the standard orchestral and band instruments in the brass family stress proper tone production, phrasing and style. Special techniques unique to the instrument are studied. Material covered includes standard works for the instrument. All lessons include studio classes scheduled throughout the term as a lab time. (Prerequisites: approval and placement by instructor. Private lesson fee.)

MUS 750 Instrumental Ensemble: Jazz Ensemble (Blue Rondo) 1 credit

Jazz Ensemble and Jazz combos from the group perform works from various jazz styles. Performances include fall and spring concerts, chapel service playing, and occasional off campus performances. (Offered every fall and spring.) Prerequisite: previous instrumental experience. May be taken for 0-2 credits. Repeatable.
