

PUBLIC ADMINISTRATION (PAMX)

PAMX 200 Introduction to Public Administration 3 credits

If you've ever wondered how the vast apparatus of government keeps society on its rails, this course will answer your questions by introducing you to the field of public administration. By the end of this course you'll understand how governmental administration works, become familiar with public sector management issues and understand how government administrators turn policy into process. This course is offered through Rize.
