Theme of the Year: We are God's Workmanship

From the Office of the President

Dear Friends:

We are so pleased that you are interested in Concordia University, Saint Paul!

If you are a prospective student and are looking at our catalog for the first time, we hope you are planning to visit our campus to introduce yourself and tell us about your personal needs and aspirations for a college education. Even though we have not met you yet, we believe in you and your God-given potential. If you are already a Concordia University student we look forward to continuing with you on your journey of self-discovery and increasing knowledge and skills. We are committed to empowering you to take hold of your purpose for your life and career, as well as the unique opportunities to serve others, which will come your way in the decades ahead.

In the pages of this catalog, you can begin to get to know us, especially the outstanding undergraduate and graduate academic programs of our College of Arts and Letters, College of Business and Organizational Leadership, and College of Education and Science. I am very proud of our curriculum and the evidence of expertise and commitment to quality that it carries. I am confident that you would receive a superb education in the academic programs we offer at Concordia University, but even more I am confident you will find both a challenging and nurturing environment in which to study.

We remain committed to providing access to academic excellence at an affordable price. Concordia is recognized as one of the great values in higher education in all of Minnesota. We strive to offer an outstanding, student-centered learning environment where the Christian faith provides the context for intellectual inquiry and academic pursuits. Whether you are preparing for your first professional job, the next step on an already developing career, or further study in the graduate school of your choice, we are here to help. As a campus providing and requiring access to electronic technology, our students do research and communicate in ways that prepare them for future technological advances. In addition, we are located in one of the great metropolitan areas in the world, in the heart of a city where persons of virtually every race, creed, religion and color have converged to pursue personal goals and community progress.

On behalf of the faculty, staff, students and thousands of successful graduates of Concordia University, Saint Paul, I invite you to examine our programs, visit our campus and join us in the wonderful world of inquiry and learning.

Rev. Dr. Thomas K. Ries

LOGO

The Concordia University, Saint Paul logo is in the form of a window symbolizing Christian higher education as a window on life. Framed within the window, a cross emerges, which identifies Christ as the center of life. The asymmetrical window and cross reflect that life is not always logical or consistent, but Christ holds all things together. The four complementary colors represent harmony in diversity and harmony in Christ.

- Cross The cross portrays our mission to educate students in the context of the Christian Gospel. The Good News of Jesus Christ forms the basis of life and education at Concordia.
- Quill The quill is taken from our academic seal and represents our tradition and commitment to academic excellence and the love of learning.
- Individual The individual represents our serving the individual student while encouraging their personal development and responsibility the education process. The outstretched arms imply reaching out to others, openness to community.
- Globe The globe reminds us of our world community and Christ's command to teach all nations. It also reflects our concern for enlightened care of God's creation, which is part of our mission statement.

THE CONCORDIA SEAL

The Concordia University seal was originally designed by Dr. Theodore Buenger for Concordia College in 1895. The Lamp of Learning symbolizes the light of the knowledge of God's Word illuminating the minds of the students as well as the darkness of the world. The Crossed Quills symbolize the writings of the student and the writings of the great individuals throughout history from which the student learns. The Moccasin Flower symbolizes the State of Minnesota and the beauty of God's creation. The inscription places learning in the context of the Christian Gospel. Dr. Buenger used the Latin language in keeping with the classical ideals characteristic of our school: In litteris proficere vole, malo diligere Jesum. This may be translated, "I wish to be proficient in academics, but even more I wish to know Jesus." It is based on Ephesians 3:19: "And to know the love of Christ that surpasses knowledge."

UNIVERSITY MISSION

The mission of Concordia University, a university of the Lutheran Church – Missouri Synod, is to prepare students for thoughtful and informed living, for dedicated service to God and humanity, and for the enlightened care of God's creation, all within the context of the Christian Gospel.

This mission is achieved when students pursue programs grounded in the liberal arts and focused on education for vocation in home, workplace, community, and congregation.

Therefore, the university pursues the following purposes:

- To relate human learning and experience to the Christian faith as this faith is confessed within its Lutheran heritage;
- To provide education within the context of a global perspective;
- To structure personalized and integrated learning experiences in which students share with faculty the responsibility for their own intellectual, physical, social, emotional, and spiritual growth;
- To offer a variety of experiences in and out of the classroom designed to assist students in acquiring greater self-understanding, in achieving a growing realization of their abilities and interests, and in investigating options for service in home, workplace, community, and congregation.

VISION AND VALUES

The vision of Concordia University, Saint Paul is to be acknowledged as the leading Lutheran university offering exceptional opportunities for students from all backgrounds who seek relevant career preparation and a challenging academic experience coupled with the insights of Lutheran theology.

MOTTO

In litteris proficere volo malo diligere Jesum

"I wish to be proficient in academics, but even more I wish to know Jesus."

PROMISE TO STUDENTS

Concordia University, St. Paul empowers you to discover and engage your purpose for life, career and service in a dynamic, multicultural, urban environment where Christ is honored, all are welcome, and Lutheran Convictions inform intellectual inquiry and academic pursuits.

HISTORY OF THE UNIVERSITY

Concordia University was founded in 1893 to provide a Christian learning environment for high school students preparing to enter the professional ministries of The Lutheran Church – Missouri Synod. In the ensuing decade, Concordia continued to grow, adding a fourth year of high school and by 1921 had added the freshman and sophomore college years. The change made it possible for Concordia High School students to remain at their high school alma mater to complete their first two years of college work before transferring to a Concordia Senior College where they would finish their studies in the church professions or teaching.

Concordia College admitted its first class of female students in fall 1950 – much to the delight of the young men on campus and to the dismay of coeducational opponents who predicted a significant drop in academic achievement. Despite this new “distraction,” students continued to excel in their studies. Concordia College entered a decade of intense expansion and growth. The college began granting Associate in Arts degrees in 1951 and earned accreditation as a two-year college in 1959.

Concordia College expanded its curriculum in 1962 to include a four-year college degree and awarded its first Bachelor of Arts degrees two years later. By 1967, Concordia had earned accreditation for its four-year liberal arts program, which allowed the college to join the Minnesota Private College Council. At this time, Concordia High School officially separated itself from the college, moved to its suburban location and adopted its new name, Concordia Academy.

Concordia College responded to a growing need for minority teachers in the public schools by forming Metropolitan Teacher Education Program Selection (MTEPS), which enrolled African-American and other under-represented students in a program designed to supplement the curriculum with scholarship support, personal counseling, tutoring as needed, academic planning and similar services. The program was reformed in 1983 as the Southeast Asian Teacher (SEAT) Licensure Program, which serves Hmong and other minority populations in a similar fashion.

A major curricular development in 1985 changed the Minnesota education landscape with the formation of a pioneering program that allowed students to complete their B.A. degree in an accelerated, one course at a time, format. In 1990, an accelerated M.A. program was added.

As Concordia moved into the new millennium, the institution implemented a number of important changes that would reflect the changing needs of the students, the church and the community. Foremost among these was restructuring that enabled Concordia to become a university. In 1997, Concordia College became Concordia University, Saint Paul, and adopted the semester system.

The university also developed its current mission and vision statements and refined its strategic priorities. Today, three colleges and two schools comprise Concordia University: the College of Arts and Letters, the College of Business and Organizational Leadership, the College of Education and Science, the School of Continuing Studies, and the School of Graduate Studies.

Concordia University continues to grow to meet the needs of students, the church and the community, while at the same time holding steadfast its historical values and mission.

CAMPUS

Concordia University is located in the Midway district of Saint Paul, Minnesota, on Marshall Avenue between Snelling and Lexington, immediately south of Unites States Interstate 94, which joins Saint Paul and Minneapolis, often referred to as the “Twin Cities.”

The 51-acre campus includes residence halls; classrooms; a science building; a music building; an art center and student union; a theatre arts center; a library technology center; a chapel; a cafeteria; a gymnasium and health and fitness center; and administration and faculty complexes. These facilities are conveniently located and many of them are interconnected. Athletic fields and university-owned apartment buildings are nearby. All teaching, activity, and ground level housing areas are accessible to those with disabilities.

Concordia University students are only minutes away from all that the metropolitan Twin Cities has to offer. Whether students seek employment possibilities, recreational pastimes, educational enrichment, service learning and community service opportunities, cultural enjoyment, or leisure activities unique to their own needs, at Concordia there are excellent opportunities for fulfillment.

FACILITIES

ARNDT SCIENCE HALL

The 26,000-square-foot Arndt Science Hall was constructed in 1965 and remodeled in 1989. The Science Hall offers a cadaver laboratory (new in fall, 2011), audio-visual facilities, faculty offices, a student lounge, a research lab and classrooms for physics, chemistry, biology, and math. Professor Edward L. Arndt, in whose memory the building is named, served at Concordia from 1897-1910 as the “first professor of science” and taught physics, geology, botany, zoology, and physiology.

BUENGER EDUCATION CENTER (BEC)

The BEC is named in honor of Dr. Theodore Buenger, Concordia’s first president, who served in that capacity from 1893 – 1927, and continued as a faculty member until 1943. The BEC offers faculty offices, as well as a 4,000-square-foot event room. The BEC event room seats between 175 – 225 people and is commonly used for networking events, receptions, banquets, lectures, and club events.

BUETOW MEMORIAL MUSIC CENTER

Constructed in 1972, the 31,000-square-foot music center was named in honor of the late Herbert P. Buetow, a Saint Paul industrialist, philanthropist and Lutheran layman. The Center includes piano and organ teaching studios and practice stations; choral, orchestra, and band rooms; general classrooms; art exhibit area; and faculty offices. The uniquely designed recital hall, seating nearly 500 people, also houses the 44-rank Schlicker concert organ, a gift from local entrepreneurs, Mr. and Mrs. Paul A. Schilling.

CONCORDIA ART CENTER

The 23,000-square-foot Student Union was remodeled and renamed the Concordia Art Center in 2009 and houses facilities for the university’s Art Department. In addition to faculty offices, there is working space for students enrolled in graphic design, ceramics, photography, printmaking, painting, and other art studies.

MEYER HALL

The 37,000-square-foot Classroom Building, as it was originally known, was constructed in 1917. The building was renamed Meyer Hall in 2006 in honor of Dr. Loma Meyer. Although primarily used for instructional purposes, the building also accommodates several administrative offices.

WINGET STUDENT LIFE CENTER

The Winget Student Life Center is located at the northern end of the campus’ six main buildings which form a corridor. It includes a dining hall on the second floor and Student Accessibility Services on the top floor. The President’s Conference Room, Student Senate office, Campus Ministry Center and game room are on the lower level.

FANDREI CENTER

The Fandrei Center was acquired from the City of Saint Paul in 2003 and was dedicated in honor of Philip and LaVerne Fandrei. This building houses staff offices, athletic department offices, a classroom, and a locker room for the football team.

GANGELHOFF CENTER

The 70,000-square-foot Gangelhoff Center was completed in 1993 and was named after its benefactors, Ronald and Doris Gangelhoff. The center serves the university’s academic, health, physical fitness, and recreational needs. This structure features a 45,000-square-foot arena that boasts four full-size basketball courts; a 200-meter running track; and an arena floor that accommodates basketball, volleyball, tennis, badminton, and indoor soccer. The Gangelhoff Center arena has a seating capacity of more than 3,000 and has hosted conventions, concerts and trade shows. It also provides a strength and conditioning room, a classroom and lounge areas for breakout sessions including a concession stand and a fully staffed athletic training room.

GRAEBNER MEMORIAL CHAPEL

Graebner Memorial Chapel, built in 1911, was formerly the school’s gymnasium and was transformed into the chapel in 1955. It currently accommodates up to 400 people. The chapel is named for Dr. Martin Adolph Henry Graebner, who served as second president of Concordia from 1927 – 1946. The 3,500-square-foot Cross of Christ Fellowship Center addition was completed in 2008, where events are now held. The Fellowship Center also includes the Carlander Room and the Underground, which are primarily used for meetings.

LIBRARY TECHNOLOGY CENTER (LTC)

The 43,000-square-foot Library Technology Center, completed in 2003, provides academic materials, study space and LTC staff offices. The lower level houses up to 124,000 circulating collection of books and also serves as a space for special collections, meeting rooms and staff offices. The circulation desk and reference desk, as well as the curriculum and reference collections, are located on the main floor of the building. The upper level of the LTC is comprised of seven classrooms and the Faculty Scholarship Center. Concordia’s virtual library, the Cooperating Libraries in Consortium (CLICnet), provides 1.5 million holdings representing up to one million unique titles.

LUTHERAN MEMORIAL CENTER (LMC)

The 30,000-square-foot Lutheran Memorial Center was opened in 1953 as the school’s gymnasium, but was remodeled in 1999 to house the College of Business and Organizational Leadership, the School of Continuing Studies, and other administrative department offices. The LMC is dedicated to those young men and women who lost their lives during World War II. The building currently houses the offices of Admissions, Financial Services, University Advancement and the Office of International Student Services.

POEHLER ADMINISTRATION BUILDING

Dedicated in 1970, this three-story, 25,000-square-foot structure houses faculty offices for the departments of Communication Studies, Education, English and Modern Languages, History and Political Science, Social and Behavioral Science, and Theology and Ministry, and other administrative offices. The building is named in honor of Concordia’s third president, Dr. William A. Poehler, who served from 1946 – 1970.

SEA FOAM STADIUM

Sea Foam Stadium was opened in 2009. It seats up to 3,500 spectators and includes an athletic field with artificial turf, an 8-lane running track, field equipment, bleachers, concession facilities, and an inflatable dome during the winter months. The opening of Sea Foam Stadium brought football back on-campus for the first time in 30 years, when the original field was sacrificed to highway construction.

THEATRE ARTS CENTER

The Concordia Theatre Arts Center, which is connected to the Buetow Music Center, was completed at 35,000-square-feet in 1994. The new facility supports theatre education and experiences for students, as well as community audiences. It houses the 350-seat flexible proscenium E.M. Pearson Theatre; rehearsal, dance, costume, and scenery studios; theatrical classrooms; a 100-seat Westlund black box theatre laboratory; elevator orchestra pit; state-of-the-art lighting and sound control systems; and offices.

THOMPSON HALL

Thompson Hall provides nearly 12,000 square feet of classroom, laboratory and office space for Concordia programs, specifically the Doctor in Physical Therapy program. Renovation on the former student apartment building was completed in 2014.

RESIDENCE HALLS

HYATT VILLAGE

At 28,000-square-feet, Hyatt Village is an air conditioned, suite-style apartment housing complex which was dedicated in 1984. Each suite has two 10' by 12' rooms and one private bathroom.

LUTHER HALL

The 36,000-square-foot Luther Hall was dedicated in 1925 as first-year, female student housing. Each room is 12' by 18'. The hall is connected to the campus tunnel.

HOLST HALL

This 102,000-square-foot, apartment-style residence hall houses 300 upperclassmen. The building was originally called the Residence Life Center when it opened in 2008. The RLC was rededicated as Holst Hall in May 2011 in honor of the Rev. Dr. Robert Holst, who retired as Concordia's eight university president. Holst Hall offers apartment-style 4-bedroom, 2-bedroom and studio units. Each suite includes a private bathroom, fully equipped kitchen, and furnished living room and bedrooms. Building amenities include a fitness center, laundry facility, media room and meetings spaces for student groups.

WOLLAEGER HALL

The 35,000-square-foot Wollaeger Hall serves as first-year, male student housing on the upper level. This hall is air conditioned and houses two students per 12 foot by 18 foot room. Wollaeger features the Barbara Schoenbeck Early Learning Center and the Hand-In-Hand Child Care Center on the main floor.

FAMILY EDUCATIONAL RIGHTS AND PRIVACY ACT – CONFIDENTIALITY

Students enrolled at Concordia University, Saint Paul, are required to give certain information in order that the university may make reasonable judgments about them, provide services, and give informed advice regarding courses to be followed. Such personal data and information may become part of the student education record. Students may make the justifiable assumption that the university, as custodian of this data, will preserve the data's private nature. By requiring or requesting such information, Concordia University gives assurance that the information will be protected against improper disclosure.

Concordia University observes the following principles:

1. Appropriate Concordia University officials are held directly responsible and accountable for the careful protection of student education records against possible misuse.
2. Within Concordia University, student education records will be used only for appropriate research, educational, and Concordia University administrative functions. Access to those records is allowed only to those members of Concordia University community whose designated responsibilities reasonably require access or to persons to whom the student has given written permission for access.
3. Concordia University provides the student with the right to access, inspect and obtain copies of all information in student education records except a) financial information submitted by parents and b) confidential letters and recommendations collected under established policies of confidentiality or to which the student has waived in writing the right of inspection and review.
4. Concordia University gives students the right to request amendment of the contents of student education records, to have a hearing if the result of the request for amendment is unsatisfactory, and to include a statement for inclusion in the record if the decision resulting from the hearing is unacceptable to the student.
5. Concordia University notifies students annually of their privacy rights, their right to file complaints concerning alleged failures of Concordia University to comply with their privacy rights, and where copies of the Concordia University policy and procedures on access to student records may be obtained.
6. The student education records of Concordia University vary in their nature and location. Steps taken to protect against improper disclosure are designed for the circumstance.

DIVERSITY INITIATIVES

DIVERSITY AFFAIRS OFFICE

The Diversity Affairs Office serves as an advocate and resource for students, and works collaboratively with staff and faculty to promote an inclusive, Christ-centered campus community. With support from inter- and intra-campus offices, organizations, and programs, the Diversity Affairs office provides:

- vision and leadership for the university's diversity efforts through creative programming, consultation and partnerships;
- supportive and sustaining relationships with students, colleagues and various public constituents;
- attention to needs, issues, and concerns impacting diversity throughout the campus;
- oversight of the university's strategic diversity priorities;
- coordination of activities that promote the identity of students of color, and
- opportunities for celebration of the harmony in diversity on the campus and within the community.

For inquiries relating to any diversity initiatives, please contact Dr. Cheryl Chatman, Executive Vice President and Dean of Diversity at chatman@csp.edu or at (651) 603-6151.

Various academic, social and intercultural programs and activities are linked with the Diversity Affairs Office. These include the Building Opportunities for Leadership and Development (BOLD) Program, Shades of Harmony Gospel Choir, the Emerge Leadership Program, Concordia Sisterhood of Empowerment and more. Scholarships, leadership, internships, mentoring and special programs are initiated and/or supported by the Diversity Affairs Office. Below are a few of the major initiatives that this office oversees annually.

C.A.R.E. COMMITTEE (COALITION AGAINST RACISM FOR EVERYONE)

The C.A.R.E. committee is comprised of Concordia staff and faculty who began an organized effort to identify, engage and eliminate racism as it exists in its many forms at Concordia and beyond. The mission of the committee is to promote equality and peaceful coexistence through developing awareness of self and others, sharing knowledge, encouraging mutual understanding, and healing the historical and continuing trauma of racism. The committee aims to support a campus community where the dignity, value, and human potential of each member is equally honored and respected through the creation of a campus environment free from violence and discrimination. Annual events and efforts sponsored by C.A.R.E. for the campus and wider community include interactive dialogues, focus groups, panels, sensitivity and awareness training, written and verbal communications and exchanges, unity activities, support of community issues and actions, and presentations at local and national conferences. Student involvement on all levels of this work is essential and critical to this team. Collaboration with on- and off-campus groups, departments and organizations is central to the planning and execution of events led and supported by C.A.R.E.

UNITED MINDS OF JOINT ACTION (UMOJA)

United Minds of Joint Action (UMOJA) is an organization that provides students opportunities for leadership, mentoring, advocacy, outreach, internships, and culture-specific educational, social and recreational activities. Opportunities to serve as officers, committee chairs, artists, performers and ambassadors exist from the freshmen to senior years. The mission of UMOJA is to:

- foster academic achievement and service,
- address issues and concerns particularly affecting students who are culturally aware, in relation to all students,
- promote an understanding and appreciation of cultural differences, and
- create unity among students of multi-cultural heritage within Concordia University and the surrounding community.

For more information about UMOJA, contact the organization's advisors, Adrian Perryman, Assistant Director of Admission at perryman@csp.edu or (651) 641-8843; or Donnay Green, Assistant Director of Financial Aid at green@csp.edu or (651) 641-8205.

CONCORDIA HMONG UNITY STUDENT ASSOCIATION (CHUSA)

Concordia has an active Hmong organization and support program, which provides advocacy, leadership experiences, internship opportunities and social connections. CHUSA's mission is to promote Hmong culture, practices, and history through academic leadership workshops, events and collaborations. CHUSA offers students a channel to make meaningful connections with other students and the overall campus. From simulations and workshops/lectures to the Ua Tsaug (Thanksgiving) event, CHUSA's presence on campus is widely known and highly respected. The goals of the association are:

- to promote and understand Hmong Cultural awareness through cooperation and unity at Concordia University, Saint Paul
- to promote the Hmong Minor program and other Hmong related initiatives at Concordia University, Saint Paul
- to promote and develop an effective communication and understanding of the Hmong people at Concordia and throughout the Twin Cities community

STUDENT EDUCATION RECORDS

DIRECTORY INFORMATION – CATEGORY I

The student's name, address, electronic (E-mail) address, home town, telephone number, dates of enrollment and enrollment status (full time, part time, not enrolled, withdrawn and date of withdrawal), major, minor, adviser, photo, college and class, academic awards and honors received (including dean's list recognition), curricular and co-curricular activities, and (in the event of the student's graduation) the degree(s) received/ conferred (including dates), are matters of public record or directory information. Therefore, Concordia University officials and departments may provide this information, in answer to inquiries, without requiring authorization from the student. However, students may prohibit disclosure of directory information at any time during their enrollment. The entire student file may be marked confidential if the student completes a Student Information Suppression / Release Form. The form is available on the Student Portal. Records remain suppressed until a Student Information Suppression / Release Form is completed to release information.

DIRECTORY INFORMATION CATEGORY II (FOR STUDENT ATHLETES ONLY)

Past and present participation in university sponsored athletics, physical factors (height, weight of athletes) and birth date are considered directory information for athletes only.

OTHER STUDENT EDUCATION RECORDS

Student education records other than directory information include, but are not limited to: transcripts, test scores, college advising records, disciplinary files, financial aid information, housing records, and records of educational services that are provided to students. Such records are not disclosed to anyone except:

1. The student and others on written authorization by the student;
2. Persons within Concordia University who have a legitimate interest in the information for educational, administrative, or research purposes;
3. Other educational institutions in which the student seeks to enroll, provided the disclosure is limited to official copies of student transcripts or test scores from the appropriate Concordia University office;
4. Other organizations conducting educational research studies provided the studies are conducted in a manner that will not permit identification of students and the information will be destroyed when no longer needed for the purpose for which the study was conducted;
5. Persons in compliance with a court order or lawfully issued subpoena, provided that a reasonable attempt is made to notify the student in advance of compliance thereof;
6. Appropriate persons in connection with an emergency, provided the information is necessary to protect the health or safety of the student or other individuals;
7. Accrediting organizations and state or federal education authorities when the information is needed for auditing, evaluating, or enforcing legal requirements of educational programs, provided the accrediting organizations and authorities protect the data in a manner that will not permit the personal identification of students and personally identifiable information is destroyed when no longer needed;
8. Appropriate persons or agencies in connection with a student's application for or receipt of financial aid to determine eligibility, amount, or conditions of financial aid;
9. Parents of a dependent student as defined under the Internal Revenue Code. (Each time a parent requests access to records the parent must submit a current tax statement listing the dependent student.)

OTHER STUDENT RECORDS – NON-ACADEMIC

Concordia University maintains other records that contain information about students. Information in medical or psychological counseling records, including results of examinations by Concordia University personnel, is afforded greater protection. Concordia University obtains such information with a commitment as to its highly private nature. Such records should not be disclosed except (a) under direct written authorization by the student, (b) pursuant to a court order signed by a judge, or (c) as otherwise required by law. Concordia University Security and Human Resources records contain information about students, but are not student education records and are not covered by this policy. University offices which are responsible for such records observe information release policies which protect the subjects of such records against improper disclosure and are consistent with applicable laws.

The Title IX implementing regulations at 34 C.R.F. 106.8(a) require that each recipient designate at least one employee to coordinate its efforts to comply with and carry out its responsibilities under Title IX. The coordinator's responsibilities include investigating complaints communicated to the recipient alleging noncompliance with Title IX. Section 106.8(a) also requires the recipient to notify all students and employees of the name, address, and telephone number of the designated coordinator. Section 106.8(b) requires that each recipient adopt and publish grievance procedures providing for prompt and equitable resolution of student and employee complaints under Title IX. To file a grievance regarding possible Title IX Compliance, grievance must be submitted in writing to Cheryl Chatman, Title IX Compliance Officer.

FEDERAL TITLE II REPORTING FOR TEACHER EDUCATION

In compliance with public disclosure requirements for institutions of higher education in the Higher Education Act, Title II, sections 207(f) (1) and 207 (f)(2): The Educational Testing Service (ETS) has reported the following institutional pass rates for Concordia University regarding program completers in teacher education:

GRIEVANCE POLICY FOR TEACHER ED

Teacher Education candidates who wish to dispute a decision made by Concordia University and/or its faculty and staff regarding recommendation for licensure must submit the appeal in writing within 90 calendar days after the contested judgment was made. All appeals will be processed within 60 calendar days after the submission of the appeal. To file an appeal:

1. Consult with the Dean of the School of Education and Science about the process.
2. Complete the Concordia University General Petition form explaining the nature of the dispute and/or grievance.

Candidates may contact the Minnesota Board of Teaching (651-582-8888 or board.teaching@state.mn.us) to assist in resolving any dispute between themselves and Concordia University if the matter is related to the institution's recommendation for licensure affecting the person or the person's credentials.

STUDENT CONSUMER INFORMATION

Concordia University fully complies with Public Law 101-542 The Student Right-to-Know and Campus Security Act, as amended by Public Law 102-26, the Higher Education Technical Amendments of 1991. Under these laws, retention and completion rates for entering students are kept by the associate dean of enrollment and are available to all current and prospective students. The Safety and Security office makes available to all students various policies and statements regarding campus security, including statistics on various types of crime that may have occurred. A copy of the campus Alcohol and Drug Policy can be found in the Student Policies Handbook.

ADMISSION: UNDERGRADUATE TRADITIONAL PROGRAMS

GENERAL ADMISSION INFORMATION

Candidates for undergraduate admission to Concordia University must be graduates of a regionally accredited high school or home school or hold the General Education Diploma (GED). Applicants must be persons of good moral character. First year students may apply for admission beginning with fall or spring terms. Transfer students may apply for admission for the fall, spring, or summer terms. Early application is encouraged.

ACADEMIC REQUIREMENTS AND PROCEDURES

Transcripts should demonstrate that candidates have successfully completed requirements in the following high school subjects: four years of English, two years of history/social sciences, two years each of mathematics and science, two years of fine arts, and one year of health/physical education. Applicants who have not had the college preparatory courses indicated above may be admitted upon examination of their academic records, provided they meet other admission criteria.

FIRST-YEAR STUDENTS

1. Complete the Undergraduate Application for Admission and include a $30 non-refundable application fee. Applications are encouraged to be submitted via the undergraduate admission website, www.csp.edu. The fall term deadline is August 1 and winter term is December 1.
2. Request that an official transcript of the high school record to date be sent to Concordia University, and also a FINAL official transcript after the senior year's grades and graduation have been recorded. Passing General Education Development (GED) scores may be accepted in lieu of verification of graduation.
3. Complete the ACT or SAT and have an official Student Profile Report sent directly to the Concordia University Office of Undergraduate Admission. Arrangements for taking the ACT or SAT should be made through the high school counselor's office.
4. Submit one letter of recommendation on forms provided by the Office of Undergraduate Admission. The form is to be completed by a guidance counselor or a teacher.
5. First-time freshmen who graduated from high school five or more years before application may submit a statement of educational objectives in lieu of items 3 or 4 above.

TRANSFER STUDENTS

1. Complete the application for admission and include a $30 non-refundable application fee. Applications are encouraged to be submitted via the undergraduate admission website, www.csp.edu. The fall term deadline is August 1 and winter term is December 1.
2. Submit official transcripts from each college or post-secondary school attended. If currently enrolled, submit a final transcript after completion of studies. If applicants have not completed one year (45 quarter credits or 20 semester credits) of college at an accredited institution, complete high school transcripts and the official ACT Student Profile Report must be submitted.

3. Submit a letter of recommendation on the form provided by the Office of Undergraduate Admission from the dean of students of the institution last attended.

Transfer students should have maintained an overall grade point average of "C" or better in previous courses. Concordia University accepts an Associate of Arts degree or the Minnesota Transfer Curriculum in lieu of our general education requirements. Exceptions include the 8 credits of Religion and requirements within majors that include general education courses not previously completed.

NOTE: Admission to specific majors is required beyond general admission to the university. See the appropriate departmental major and/or the Office of Undergraduate Admission.

APPLICATION CONTACTS

Persons seeking undergraduate admission should direct all correspondence to:

Office of Undergraduate Admission
1282 Concordia Avenue

POST-BACCALAUREATE TEACHER LICENSURE

Persons possessing an undergraduate degree from an accredited institution may satisfy teaching licensure requirements in any of the licensure areas offered by Concordia University by completing the undergraduate requirements for the license or endorsement desired. Students have the option of attending as full-time students or as part-time students. Contact the Office of Undergraduate Admission (651) 641-8230 or Professor Rick Benson at (651) 641-8245 or benson@csp.edu for more information.

SOUTHEAST ASIAN TEACHER LICENSURE PROGRAM (S.E.A.T.)

Concordia University offers a program leading to a degree and/or teacher licensure for students currently working in schools. The state of Minnesota supplies some of the scholarship money for this program. Contact the Office of Undergraduate Admission (651) 641-8230 or Director of the SEAT program, Professor Sally Baas at (651) 603-6188 or baas@csp.edu for more information.

VISITING STUDENTS

Concordia University welcomes students on a temporary basis who have been regularly admitted to another regionally accredited post-secondary institution. This enrollment is generally offered to provide special courses at Concordia University that may not be available at the other institution, to meet a temporary special interest, or to provide coursework in the student's present local environment.

In order to be admitted as a visiting student, a basic demographic information form must be completed by the previous college or university (where student was regularly admitted) as well as a form verifying the student's admission and giving the institution's approval for the student's registration plan.

Course requests are submitted to the registrar who acts as advisor to the student. If the student wishes to complete a program, regular admission procedures apply.

RE-ADMISSION OF FORMER STUDENTS OF CONCORDIA UNIVERSITY

ADMISSION: UNDERGRADUATE DEGREE COMPLETION PROGRAMS

LEARNING CONCEPT

The goal of the undergraduate degree completion programs is to link learning directly to a student's present or planned career activities – connecting coursework to life experience. This educational model is designed specifically for adult learning.

- Prior collegiate and extra-collegiate learning derived from academic, personal, and professional experiences since high school may be evaluated for college credit.
- Past and present work experience will serve as a catalyst in the learning process. At the heart of the education model is a major project, which continues throughout the program, blends study and experiential learning.

Concordia University faculty are devoted to this educational model and fully respects students' prior learning as worthwhile and valuable in the educational setting. Experienced in their respective fields, instructors come from Concordia University faculty ranks or are adjunct faculty who have proven expertise and enjoy working with adult students.

GENERAL ADMISSION INFORMATION

Candidates for undergraduate admission to Concordia University, Saint Paul, must be graduates of a regionally accredited high school or home school or hold the GED certificate. Applicants must be persons of good moral character. Early application is encouraged.

ACADEMIC REQUIREMENTS AND PROCEDURES

1. Submission of Undergraduate Application for Admission
2. Submission of $30 application fee
3. Submission of official transcripts from all previously attended institutions indicating a minimum of 36 semester credits, transferable, from accredited colleges or universities, or a combination of transferable credits and extra collegiate learning experience equaling 36 semester credits
4. Verification of a cumulative grade point average (CGPA) of 2.0 or better.
5. Statement of goals covering employment history and long-term academic and professional goals (1 to 2 pages, double-spaced)

NEW STUDENT ORIENTATION

Both first-year students and transfer students are required to attend one New Student Orientation (NSO) session offered in June or August. Students begin to build relationships with other students, faculty, and staff. They receive pertinent non-academic information, meet with an academic advisor, and then helped to register for classes. Students also receive information about non-academic aspects of life at Concordia University relative to parking permits, voicemail, books, technology, and co-curricular activities, etc.

Fall Semester: All first year students begin the College Transitions class on the first day of Welcome Week. Students are assigned to their College Transitions class by the Office of Academic Advising. During Welcome Week, they spend time with other students, along with a Peer Advisor and Faculty Advisor. Transfer students and returning students are invited to attend Welcome Week activities prior to the beginning of classes. Welcome Week activities build a foundation for enhancing community and promoting academic growth in a Christian environment.

Spring Semester and Summer Semester: First year students and transfer students are required to attend and NSO/Transfer session in December for spring semester and May for summer.

A partial list of additional requirements includes:

- BS in Pulmonary Science and Radiological Science Leadership: Students must have earned an AS degree to be considered for admission.
- BS in Nursing: Students must have a cumulative grade point average (CGPA) of 2.5 or better.

Upon receipt of official transcripts, an academic advisor will review them and determine the number of transferable credits that have been satisfied. When the above requirements have been met and the university's Admissions Office has received and processed the completed application, the file will be reviewed for acceptance.

INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS

NATIONAL COLLEGIATE ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION (NCAA), ATHLETICS AND ELIGIBILITY

Intercollegiate athletics are considered an integral part of Concordia University's educational experience. Concordia University is a member of the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA) Division II and the Northern Sun Intercollegiate Conference (NSIC). The university agrees to abide by the rules and policies governing the association. Eligibility rules and regulations governing students' participation in intercollegiate athletics are available through the office of the athletic director.

The director of athletics supervises and directs the intercollegiate program of athletics and the intramural program for men and women. The director of athletics recommends the appointment of coaches for the various teams.

The compliance coordinator and faculty athletic representative are charged with the responsibility of ensuring that all participants in intercollegiate competition are eligible in accordance with the rules and regulations of the NCAA prior to their representing the institution in any manner. The Equity in Athletics Disclosure Report can be found in the athletic department. The report can be requested from the athletic compliance officer.

FIRST-TIME ENTERING FIRST-YEAR STUDENTS MUST MEET THE FOLLOWING ENTRY LEVEL REQUIREMENTS SET FORTH THE BY NCAA

A student-athlete who enrolls in a Division II institution as an entering freshman with no previous full-time college attendance shall meet the following academic requirements, as certified by an initial-eligibility clearinghouse approved by the Executive Committee, and any applicable institutional and conference regulations, to be considered a qualifier and thus be eligible for financial aid, practice and competition during the first academic year in residence.

QUALIFIER

A qualifier is defined as one who is a high-school graduate and who presented the following minimum academic qualifications:

A minimum grade point average of 2.00 (based on a maximum 4.00) in a successfully completed core curriculum of at least 16 academic courses.)

1. The record of the above courses and course grades must be certified by the NCAA Eligibility Center using an official high-school transcript or official correspondence forwarded directly from the high school or upon a high-school transcript forwarded by an institution's department of University Enrollment, Marketing and Enrollment, and
2. A minimum combined score on the SAT verbal and math sections of 820 or a combined score of 19 on the ACT. The required SAT or ACT score must be achieved under national testing conditions on a national testing date.

The student-athlete must demonstrate continued academic achievement in subsequent years while participating in athletics.

To participate the second season in a sport, the student must have accumulated 36 quarter or 24 semester institutional degree credit hours with at least a total cumulative grade point average of 2.00 on a 4.00 scale.

To participate the third season, the student must have accumulated 72 quarter or 48 semester institutional degree credit hours with at least a total cumulative grade point average of 2.00 on a 4.00 scale.

Also, a student-athlete shall designate a program of study leading toward a year of enrollment (fifth semester or seventh quarter) and thereafter the credits used to meet the satisfactory-progress requirements must be degree credit toward the student's designated degree program. This provision shall be applicable to the eligibility not only of a continuing student, but also of a transfer student from a four-year or two-year collegiate institution who is entering his or her third year of collegiate enrollment, even if the student has not yet completed an academic year in residence or utilized a season of eligibility in a sport at the certifying institution.

To participate the fourth season, the student must have accumulated 108 quarter or 72 semester institutional degree credit hours with at least a total cumulative grade point average of 2.00 on a 4.00 scale.

Students who have attended college previously are eligible to participate in intercollegiate athletics under other regulations. It is important that the prospective student-athlete determine, with the help of the compliance coordinator, which set of rules apply.

Returning student-athletes are governed by the following rules:

1. A student must be enrolled, attending classes, and be a student in good standing, in a minimum of 12 credit hours at the time of participation. Courses below "100" in the number system and repeated courses do not count toward satisfying the "normal progress" rule.
2. All participants must be making normal progress toward a degree. This is defined as earning 24 semester credits in the previous two semesters before participating in the activity. A maximum of one repeat course per term previously passed with a grade of "D" (or the equivalent) may be counted toward satisfying the 12-hour current enrollment rule. Repeated courses previously passed with a grade of "C" or better cannot be applied to meet either the 12-hour enrollment rule or the 24-credit rule.
3. All athletes must maintain a cumulative grade point average of 2.00.
4. An athlete who is eligible during the regular sports season for a particular sport and who is eligible at the end of the regular sport season shall retain eligibility in the particular sport for participation in post season approved events.
5. A student must meet the standards of the athletic conference and associations of which the university is a member.
6. A student must meet the requirements listed under medical examination in order to be eligible.
7. All athletes must be covered by health and hospitalization insurance.
8. Financial authority regarding participation rests with the director of athletics.
9. A student who officially withdraws from the university within 21 calendar days following official opening date of a class as stated in the catalog and does not transfer to another institution will not be charged with a term of attendance.
10. The director of athletics may refer hardship cases to the compliance coordinator. "Hardships" deal only with seasons or competition and must receive final approval by the conference of the NCAA Student-Athlete Reinstatement Committee.

The university does NOT provide special insurance coverage for athletes. Student-athletes assume the risks associated with competition and practice.

UNDERGRADUATE TRADITIONAL PROGRAMS (INCLUDING BA, BS, BBA)

Public and private universities are immeasurably different, particularly in how they are funded. One major difference is that private schools rely on their own financial resources. The State of Minnesota provides no operating dollars for Concordia University. Tuition and fees make up a great deal of operating budget for Concordia University. (Additional funding is provided by the generosity of donors and gifts supplied by friends of the university.) As a result, every effort is being made to maintain the moderate cost of attending Concordia University. However, unexpected rising costs may necessitate a change in fees at the beginning of any semester.

FINANCIAL AID

All students applying for financial aid must:

1. be accepted for admission and maintain good academic standing, and
2. complete the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). The FAFSA will provide instructions on how to have your financial information sent to the university (Concordia University's code is 002347). Students wishing to be considered for Financial Aid MUST complete the FAFSA on-line each calendar year after taxes for the previous year have been filed (typically between January and April of each year). The FAFSA can be referenced at www.fafsa.ed.gov. The posted university deadline for priority of funding including (but not limited to) SEOG Grant, Perkins is May 1st.

SATISFACTORY ACADEMIC PROGRESS FOR FINANCIAL AID POLICY (SAFAP)

Federal and state regulations require monitoring of credits for all students and will apply the following minimum cumulative standards of progress at the end of each semester after completion of six (6) attempted credits (see below). Students will be evaluated for SAFAO according to federal guidelines, including possible retroactive fund disbursements should disqualification be impending based on the standards indicated below:

Qualitative

Students are expected to meet or exceed a cumulative earned grade point average (GPA) of 2.00 for Undergraduate Studies and 3.00 for Graduate Professional Studies.

Quantitative

Students must complete a minimum cumulative of 67% of all attempted course work at CSP. Any course with a grade of withdraw (W), (F), incomplete (I), progress (PR), audit (AU) or No Credit (NC) shall be considered not completed. A course is counted as completed only once, regardless of how many times attempted, or the grade earned. Transfer credit(s) will be counted as attempted and completed, thus affecting a student's cumulative completion rate.

Maximum Timeframe (MTF):

Students must complete their program within 150 percent of the credit hours required by their program of study. Students who have reached their maximum allowable credit hours will be suspended from receiving financial aid. Developmental or remedial hours are excluded from this calculation. The MTF calculation counts all attempted hours including repeated courses, program of study ineligible courses and courses transferred from other colleges, and grade(s) of withdraw (W), (F), incomplete (I), progress (PR), audit (AU) or No Credit (NC). MTF also includes hours taken under a previous major(s) and hours for which a student did not receive financial aid.

Additionally, failure to meet standards for financial aid purposes at CSP is defined as:

Maximum Time-Frame:

A student in excess of 150% of the published credit length of the program shall be immediately suspended from financial aid Title IV eligibility.

Financial Aid Warning:

A student failing to meet the minimum cumulative qualitative or quantitative standards, or close to violating the Maximum Time Frame Standard of academic progress shall be placed on financial aid warning. A student on warning-status will remain eligible for financial aid for one term, but must remedy all SAP standards, or full financial aid suspension will be fully implemented.

Financial Aid Probation:

A student failing to meet the minimum cumulative qualitative or quantitative standard of academic progress who is placed on Financial Aid Suspension may appeal for reinstatement based on extenuating circumstances. Learners with approved appeals may be placed on Academic Probation for one or more terms as determined by the SAP Academic Performance Committee.

Any student(s) on Academic Probation will be placed on an Academic Performance Plan (APP) that must be followed. Violation of an APP may lead to immediate Financial Aid Suspension reinstatement.

Continuation of Students on Financial Aid Probation Status:

A student on probation who meets a term 2.0 GPA Undergraduate and/or 3.00 Graduate standard and the 67% earned percentage standard during the probationary term and has met all other terms set forth by the university for continuation of academic success as defined by the SAP Appeal Committee, may be permitted to retain enrollment and financial aid eligibility under a continued probation status, until such time as: (a) the student has met the cumulative standards and is therefore reinstated in good academic standing, or (b) the student fails to meet both the cumulative standards and the term standards, and is therefore suspended, or (c) it is determined it is not possible for the student to meet the cumulative standards within the maximum timeframe allowed, and is therefore suspended.

Suspension:

A student on probation failing to meet the minimum cumulative qualitative or quantitative standard of academic progress during his/her next term of enrollment being immediately placed on suspension, unless the student meets Continued Probation standards. A student on suspension will not be allowed to any financial aid funding related to Title IV, including Federal and State, if applicable.

IMMEDIATE FINANCIAL AID SUSPENSION

A student may be immediately suspended in the event of extraordinary circumstances, including (but not limited to) a student who was previously suspended, then reinstated and whose academic progress falls below minimum standards of progress, or a student whose higher education attendance pattern demonstrates the abuse of receiving financial aid.

STUDENT RIGHT TO APPEAL

Appeal Policy

Students suspended from financial aid may appeal their suspension if there were extenuating or unforeseen circumstances affecting their progress. All appeals must explain and document all terms in which progress was not met. Each appeal must also address how the circumstances that caused the suspension have/will be resolved. Students interested in appealing must submit an appeal form with all required documentation. Appeals will be thoroughly reviewed and reinstatement of financial aid will depend on the qualifying extenuating circumstances as outlined by CSP (see below) that directly contributed to deficient academic performance, as well as other probable factors. Appeals are evaluated on a term-by-term basis. Should a student's appeal be approved, the student is required to sign an Appeal Contract for either one or multiple terms. Both options will require students to meet certain conditions each term of attendance, such as earning a specified GPA, maintaining a specified completion rate, and registering for a certain number of credit hours. To facilitate understanding, a copy of the contract will be provided to the student.

1. Probationary Appeal (for use for one term only)

Students who fall in this category are below the required 2.0 GPA (Undergraduate Students)/3.0 GPA (Graduate Students) and 67% completion rate. At the end of the appealed term these students must have at least a 2.0 GPA (Undergraduate Students)/3.0 GPA (Graduate Students), have completed 67% of their attempted classes, and not have exceeded their maximum allowable hours (MTF). If the learner fails to meet these requirements, they will be suspended and future appeals may not be approved. Financial Aid Probation contracts do not apply to students who have exceeded their maximum allowable hours (MTF). However, MTF suspensions and other appeals requiring more than one term to meet SAP or complete a program may be approved on an Academic Plan (see below).

2. Probation Appeal Plan with APP (for use for multiple terms)

An Academic Performance Plan (APP) is given to a student whose appeal has been approved for resolved extenuating circumstances but who will need more than one term to meet cumulative SAP standards. The APP Contract is similar to the Financial Aid Probation contract; however, it requires completing a required number of credits with a particular grade point average over more than one term. Should a student on an APP contract not meet the requirements in any given term, the student would automatically be suspended and future appeals may not be approved. Students on an APP contract who skip a term may also be suspended unless it is part of the APP Contract.

QUALIFYING EXTENUATING CIRCUMSTANCES

Students have the right to appeal Financial Aid Warning and/or Suspension in the case of extenuating circumstance(s) including, but not limited to:

- Death of an immediate family member. Immediate shall be defined as: child, spouse, biological parent or legal guardian.
- Serious Illness. Serious illness shall be defined as lasting longer than 20% of the term in duration or one that required hospitalization
- Other extenuating circumstance of relevant nature.

To appeal, send a letter of explanation as outlined above including supporting documentation (i.e. Obituary, letter(s) from health professionals, etc.) to:

Director of Financial Aid
Concordia University, Saint Paul
1282 Concordia Avenue
Saint Paul, MN 55014

The Official Financial Aid SAP Policy can be found on-line at: http://www.csp.edu/Global/Tuition-Financial-Aid/CSP%20SAP%20Policy%20Information_2012.pdf

FINANCIAL AID FOR CHURCH VOCATIONS

Church Vocation Scholarships are available to those students enrolled in an undergraduate church work program in the College of Arts and Letters or the College of Education and Science. To receive this scholarship, students must apply annually to their home church district and to their home congregation. Application documents are available on line at: <http://www.csp.edu/Global/Tuition-Financial-Aid/Church%20Vocation.pdf> <http://www.csp.edu/Global/Tuition-Financial-Aid/District%20Application.pdf>

ELIGIBILITY FOR FINANCIAL AID

For consideration of Financial Aid from sources derived from the Free Application for Student Aid (FAFSA) students in Undergraduate Program(s) must be enrolled in at least six credits per semester, be in good standing related to other Stafford Loans borrowed prior (i.e., not in default), and be within lifetime usage limits as defined by the US Department of Higher Education (DOE). Students enrolled in 3 to 5.5 credits may qualify for Pell Grant or a Minnesota State Grant only. Unless otherwise stated, undergraduate traditional (non-Cohort) financial aid awards will be made for one academic year (fall and spring semesters). Application procedures must be completed each year financial aid is requested by completing the FAFSA and/or other required documents as determined by the DOE.

FINANCIAL AID FOR SUMMER SCHOOL

Financial aid eligibility for Summer Semester for Traditional Undergraduate Students may be limited. Students are encouraged to connect with the Student Financial Services Office to determine summer aid eligibility if applicable.

FINANCIAL AID AND WITHDRAWING/DROPPING FROM CONCORDIA UNIVERSITY

If a learner has received Financial Aid and subsequently withdraws and/or drops from some or all courses at Concordia University, then the school or the student may be required to return all or some of the federal funds awarded to the student. If a student receives financial assistance from a grant, scholarship, or loan source outside of the family, all or some of an expected Refund Check may be returned to the grant, scholarship, and/or loan source from which the assistance was received. All students needing to Withdraw from the University must initiate an official Change of Status with the Registrar's office.

STUDY ABROAD

Students participating in study abroad opportunities approved by the university (listed in the academic catalog) are considered "in-residence." Most academic and need-based financial aid applies toward study abroad. Exceptions include work-study, music performance, and athletic scholarships, all of which require students to be on campus.

SCHOLARSHIPS

ATHLETIC SCHOLARSHIPS

Athletic scholarships are available in all sports offered at Concordia University. Students must be accepted to the traditional undergraduate program at the university and meet NCAA II eligibility for scholarship consideration. The head coach in each respective sport selects the scholarship recipients and determines the scholarship. Scholarships are granted in one year periods only and are renewable under NCAA guidelines.

UNIVERSITY MERIT SCHOLARSHIPS

Renewable merit scholarships for new freshman are awarded based on high school academic achievement. The scholarships are awarded at the time of acceptance to Concordia University. The amounts of the merit scholarships range from $2,500 to $10,000. The scholarships are named Regents' Scholarship, President's Scholarship, University Scholarship, and Academic Achievement. They are renewable for three additional years if a certain grade point average (GPA) is maintained.

PRESIDENTIAL STUDENT OF COLOR MERIT SCHOLARSHIP

The Student of Color Merit Scholarship is a competitive scholarship available to freshmen in the traditional undergraduate program and is renewable for three additional years. This is renewable with the appropriate GPA.

LUTHERAN HERITAGE SCHOLARSHIP

The Lutheran Heritage Scholarship is available to new, full-time, first-year and transfer students from Lutheran Church – Missouri Synod (LCMS) congregations who meet regular admissions standards. This scholarship is renewable with the appropriate GPA.

UNIVERSITY CHURCH VOCATION SCHOLARSHIP

Scholarships up to $2,000 to undergraduate students who intend to serve The Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod in a full-time professional ministry after graduation. Students must enroll full-time in a church vocation program and apply to their home congregations and districts. The scholarship, as well as any assistance given by the student's congregation and district, will be part of the financial aid package, reducing need-based loans and work-study. This is renewable with the appropriate GPA.

CHURCH ASSURANCE

New first-year and transfer students from LCMS congregations who are preparing for church professions may be eligible for a $10,000 assurance. Thus, qualified students preparing for a church profession will be assured of receiving at least $10,000 of grants from all sources (not counting church and district grants). These are renewable with the appropriate GPA.

NEED-BASED GRANTS

These need-based grants are to students who demonstrate financial need.

SYNODICAL DISTRICT GRANTS FROM THE LUTHERAN CHURCH – MISSOURI SYNOD (LCMS)

District grants, scholarships, and/or loans are often available to church work students. Some LCMS districts, the Lutheran Laymen's Leagues (LLL) of the districts, and the Lutheran Women's Missionary Leagues (LWML) of the districts may offer financial assistance. Amounts, types, and criteria vary by synodical district.

LCMS FORWARD IN REMEMBRANCE MUSIC SCHOLARSHIP

A program administered by the LCMS providing scholarships to church vocation students who excel in music.

LCMS FORWARD IN REMEMBRANCE SCHOLARSHIP

A program administered by the LCMS providing scholarships to church vocation students.

LCMS MINORITY SCHOLARSHIP

A program administered directly by the LCMS providing scholarships to minority church vocation students.

Concordia Partnership Advantage Scholarship

The Concordia Partnership Advantage Scholarship is offered to the Degree Completion students that are employed by one of our partnering organizations. A $2,000 tuition discount is awarded to qualified students exclusively upon acceptance when they enroll in any undergraduate or graduate degree program.

Transfer Advantage Scholarship

The Transfer Advantage Scholarship is awarded to any transfer students who have completed the Minnesota Transfer Curriculum (MnTC) or an Associate of Arts degree from an accredited institution meet Concordia's general education requirements. Concordia University also accepts individual goal areas completed within the MnTC. Eligible students are awarded $2,000 which is evenly dispersed over the length of program.

SCHOLARSHIPS – ENDOWED FUNDS

Endowed scholarship funds are funds provided to support undergraduate students. The principle of the endowed fund is never used because only the generated interest is used for the designated purpose. Endowments are important to the university because they will provide annual income to Concordia University for years to come. The following endowed funds are currently available:

STUDENT SERVICES

ACADEMIC ADVISING

FOR STUDENTS IN TRADITIONAL PROGRAMS

To help traditional undergraduate students make informed decisions regarding their educational and career goals, Concordia University provides ongoing academic advising and support by university faculty and other advising professionals. New students are assigned a faculty advisor based on indicated interests or intended academic majors. Advisors provide guidance and support around setting career goals, choice of major, course selection, class scheduling, degree requirements and other academic concerns. Peer Advisors provide additional assistance to first-year students and incoming transfer students. For more information about faculty advising in the traditional programs, contact the Director of Advising at (651) 603-6271.

FOR STUDENTS IN DEGREE COMPLETION COHORT PROGRAMS AND GRADUATE PROGRAMS

Students enrolled in cohort-based graduate and undergraduate programs are assigned an academic advisor to help them determine how they will meet their academic requirements and reach their educational goals. Advisors are assigned based on the student's current program. They help students navigate various university processes, familiarize them with university policies and procedures, and advise and encourage them during their higher education journey. For more information about academic advising in the cohort programs, contact the Director of Advising at (651) 603-6271.

CAREER SERVICES

Career Services at Concordia University is committed to preparing individuals to make thoughtful and informed choices about their vocation, to integrating career planning with academic and life experience, and to teaching skills that contribute to successful career management. For those students unsure of a career direction, career assessment and counseling are available to help in career planning and decision-making. Numerous resources are available to assist students in investigating different careers, internships, and job opportunities. Part- and full-time job postings and internship listings are available. Access to local and on-campus job and internship fairs is provided through this office. A career development course is also available: Career Exploration and Assessment (SSS 150). Contact the Director of Career Services at (651) 603-6241 or visit Career Services.

STUDENT ACCESSIBILITY SERVICES

Concordia University is committed to providing an accessible education to qualified, currently enrolled students who have either temporary or longer-term disabilities. A student with a disability is one who has a condition (physical, emotional, cognitive or even medical) that impacts their ability to perform daily activities at the same level as other students. Student Accessibility Services can:

- help to determine if you may have a disabling condition that impacts educational programs or services
- provide referral for additional testing or supportive services
- set up academic supports that may help in classes (e.g., test taking, note taking, etc.)
- provide individual consultation on a wide variety of disability related issues

Any student with a question regarding disabilities should contact: SAS@csp.edu, our campus website: www.csp.edu/student-life/student-services-offices/disability-services. Telephone (non-texting): (651) 641-8272, or (651) 641-8207. TTY users: Minnesota Relay (711).

INSURANCE

The Affordable Health Care Act requires that everyone has health insurance and provides access to coverage. With this change to the law, Concordia University also expects that all students carry health insurance. It is the student's responsibility to provide payment or insurance for any physical or mental health medical needs.

Concordia University assumes no liability for student illness or injury and no responsibility for medical bills and/or services contracted for by students. It is the responsibility of the student to carry the insurance card at all times to have available in case of illness or injury.

Students and families that are concerned about health insurance should know that the Affordable Care Act requires everyone to have health insurance. There are many options available to students, including, being covered on their parent's policy until age 26 or purchasing coverage through an insurance exchange. The insurance exchange is an online resource where you can find information about different health plans and coverage. Healthcare.gov is the federal insurance exchange. Residents of Minnesota can look under MNsure.org where you can access the cost for each plan and enroll or find out whether you qualify for financial assistance based on annual income.

LEARNING SERVICES

Learning Services staff assists students in learning skills and strategies that help them achieve academic and personal success. Learning assistance is provided through individual counseling and through several credit-bearing courses. For more information and learning resources, visit the Learning Services website at www.csp.edu.

STUDENT SUPPORT SERVICES COURSES (SSS)

SSS 101 CSP Seminar – The CSP Seminar course guides and supports students making the transition from high school to university study. It helps students develop the necessary skills, habits, strategies, and values that will empower them to deal effectively with college life. Students with fewer than 20 transfer credits and former PSEO students who earned college credits in a high-school-setting-only are required to take this course their first semester on campus.

SSS 110 College Reading – This course prepares students for the complexity and intensity of college-level reading demands. The course focuses on the types of textual material students will encounter in various academic disciplines, e.g., history, psychology, science, literature, and so on. Emphasis is placed on developing the critical thinking required by college professors when they ask students to read a text in their discipline. Students with ACT scores of less than 20 in Reading are required to take this course their first semester.

SSS 120 College Turning Points – This course is designed to teach students on academic probation successful strategies, learning techniques, practical knowledge, and life management skills to stay on course in their college journey. Students use journals and class discussion to reflect on personal mindsets and decision-making.

SSS 150 Career Exploration and Assessment – Students relate self-understanding, life-style choices, personality inventory results, and career information to decisions about their own careers. Students will apply new insights about themselves to their investigation of career options and future life plans.

SSS 200 Leadership Development – Learn about your own leadership potential and build skills in conflict management, boundary-setting, team building, group facilitation, stress management, and morale boosting. Apply concepts in ethics, servant leadership, emotional intelligence, and leadership styles to your own life and roles today while developing strengths for your future. (This class includes a service-learning component.)

TUTORING SERVICES

Tutoring for courses and subjects other than writing and composition (which the Writing Center provides) is available free of charge to Concordia University undergraduate students to help them achieve academic success and improve their study skills. Students who would like to improve their grades from B's to A's as well as students who might be struggling in classes may request services.

Students who excel in subjects may apply to become Peer Tutors. This position provides students with the opportunity to explore their interests, connect with others, practice workplace skills, and enjoy the additional benefits of increasing their understanding of a subject. Contact the Tutoring Coordinator at (651) 603-6216 for more information.

WRITING CENTER

Students are encouraged to use the Writing Center, located in Administration Building Office 200, at any stage during the writing process. Writing Center tutors, who include students, staff, and faculty, are trained to assist writers with focus, content, clarity, grammar, and mechanics in their works-in-progress. Students not only receive help on their writing projects, but also learn how to improve their writing skills. Some of these skills may include prewriting, planning, drafting, using sources, revising, and editing. Students may sign up for a half- or full-hour appointment by stopping by the Center or calling (651) 603-6233.

SERVICE LEARNING

Service-learning at Concordia University is defined as an experiential approach to teaching and learning that intentionally combines meaningful community or public service with an academic application, development of civic responsibility and personal growth. Service-learning opportunities are ones that are mutually beneficial. Service-learning opportunities can be either curricular – that is, tied to a class – or co-curricular, and these opportunities may involve direct service, indirect service, advocacy, or research. In addition to several course offerings, the Service-Learning Office also offers a variety of other opportunities for students to engage, including (but not limited to) a student club around homelessness issues, National Hunger and Homelessness Awareness Week and National Environmental Awareness Week, social justice Immersion trips over winter and spring breaks, and tutoring/ mentoring at the PLUS Time after-school program. For more information, contact the Service Learning Coordinator at (651) 603-6318 or check out the website at the Service Learning website.

UNIVERSITY MINISTRY

The purpose of university ministry at Concordia University, Saint Paul, is to provide a Christ-centered, team based approach to ministry that supports the spiritual formation of a diverse student population within the context of the Christian Gospel.

Vision – Concordia university ministry is centered upon Jesus Christ, the Living Word of God. University ministry is focused upon serving the spiritual needs of Concordia University students as they experience their spiritual journey. Regardless of one's spiritual background, the Concordia University student may find a place of dialogue, rest, and service within the ministry experience.

WORSHIP IN THE CHRISTIAN COMMUNITY

The university's sense of community is rooted in its commitment to a Christian perspective within the Lutheran tradition. Worship and devotions are at the center of campus life and relate to all campus activities, whether academic, social, cultural, or co-curricular. All members of the campus community are welcomed as participants in the devotional assembly: chapel is held each morning and M-TH evening, festival celebrations, devotional activities in residential units, or individual rooms.

PASTORAL CARE

Personal and academic counseling services are described elsewhere in this catalog. Above all, however, the university president exercises pastoral leadership for the campus. Spiritual and very personal matters, moreover, may be referred to the University Pastor. All pastoral care is given under the normal assurances of clerical confidentiality and in keeping with Lutheran practice.

STUDENT HOUSING, FOOD SERVICE, SECURITY, AND PARKING

RESIDENCE HALL POLICIES

First-year and second-year students are required to live in university-owned housing unless living with their parents. Exceptions to the policy must be requested in writing and approved by the Residence Life Office. New students are mailed the housing application and agreement by the Office of Undergraduate Admissions.

Returning students obtain a housing application and agreement from the Residence Life Office. All room assignments are made by the Residence Life Manager. Special requests for roommates may be honored.

Luther Hall, Wollaeger Hall, and Hyatt Village are double occupancy rooms and are assigned accordingly. There are a few larger rooms where three are assigned. Single rooms may be assigned upon request based on availability for an additional charge. Rooms are furnished with cable television service, wireless internet, extra-long twin bed and mattress, desk and desk chair for each resident, wardrobe and dresser.

Holst Hall is apartment-style primarily containing 4-bedroom apartments. There are a limited number of two-bedroom and studio apartments assigned on a points basis. Holst Hall has cable television service in each room and provide wireless internet. Apartments are furnished with an adjustable height bed and extra-long twin mattress, dresser, desk, pedestal, desk chair, 3-piece sectional living room furniture, end table, coffee table, table and chairs, oven/stove, microwave and refrigerator.

Changes in room and roommate assignments must be approved in advance by the Residence Life Manager. Housing agreements run for the entire academic year.

All residence students are charged an inclusive room and board fee. Refunds are not made for meals missed during the week or for weekends. Meal plan flex points do not carry over at semester.

Additional information regarding services and expectations that pertain specifically to residential students is included in the Housing Agreement. You can request a copy by emailing the Residence Life Manager or view the Student Policies Handbook.

Luther Hall, Wollaeger Hall, and Hyatt Village are normally closed for vacation periods of more than one week. Students may occupy residence halls for vacation periods of one week or less. Holst Hall does not close for break periods and students can sign up to stay during break at no additional charge. Food service is not available when classes are not in session. Please refer to the current housing agreement for information on break and vacation periods. All policies and regulations remain in effect during vacation and break periods.

Each residence hall includes laundry facilities, twenty-four hours lounge areas and study rooms for student use. Laundry machines operate with the Concordia Cash feature of the student ID card.

Resident Assistants (RAs) aid the Residence Life Coordinators and Residence Life Managers in the management of the residence halls. Occupants of residence halls are responsible for rooms and furnishings supplied by Concordia University. No Concordia-owned (provided) furniture may be removed from the room and/or residence hall.

To protect student rights to privacy and other legitimate rights, inspections of rooms will normally be made only when the room occupant is present. The university reserves the right to enter student rooms for cause (health and safety checks, requested or emergency repairs which affect the living unit, room inspections made to protect university property, suspected violations of university regulations or state laws which are obvious to an RA or member of the university staff, requests made by law enforcement agencies, concern for the occupants, and the like).

Student should respect one another's right of quiet enjoyment for purposes of study and sleep. The RA is charged with the responsibility of promoting and maintaining a safe, pleasant and wholesome environment.

The university provides reasonable security services to protect student property. It is expected that students at the university will act in a mature, law-abiding and responsible way. They are expected to obey national, state and local laws and ordinances, respect the rights and privileges of others, be forthright and honest in social and academic conduct and conduct themselves in a manner which brings credit to themselves and the university. In addition, students are expected to obey university regulations which are based on policies established by the Board of Regents and the faculty.

FOOD SERVICE

The university contracts with a Food & Facilities Management company called Sodexo to provide meals in the Winget Student Life Center, as well as to cater other special functions on campus. Sodexo is the exclusive food vendor on campus. No other group, individual, or organization may provide food or food services without the expressed written permission of the university. Residential students have specific meal plans and all Commuting students are welcome to purchase a special "Commuter Plan" that best suits their needs. Commuting students can purchase a plan at the Sodexo administrative office located on the 2nd floor of the Winget Student Life Center. All faculty and staff members can purchase a declining balance account of any amount through the Sodexo administrative office also located on the 2nd floor of the WSLC. This allows them to use their Concordia University identification card to purchase items at the Commons Caribou Coffee Kiosk and Winget Student Life Center for themselves or their guests. Cash & Credit Card purchases are always welcome at the Commons and SLC food service location on campus for students, families, employees, and friends of the university. Current menus and special can be found at <http://www.cspdining.com/>

UNIVERSITY-OWNED APARTMENTS

Concordia University makes apartment units available on a limited basis to those for whom residence hall life is not well suited. Priority is given based on the date of application and personal circumstances. Apartment agreements with deposits are required. Information about priority and availability of housing may be obtained from Residence Life/Housing at (651) 641-8228.

SECURITY

The Concordia University Security Department exists to ensure a safe environment for all members and guests of the campus community. This includes educating students, faculty, and staff so that they may identify safety hazards and security problems. University Security Officers patrol the campus properties to deter potential theft, guard against injury, and provide emergency and non-emergency assistance. Concordia University Security is staffed 24 hours a day, seven days a week, and 365 days a year.

The Department of Security works closely with the Saint Paul Police Department as well as other state and local authorities. Concordia University receives timely police services to help protect life and property in a manner, which is sensitive to both the rights of the individual and the values of the university. More information about the Department of Security, access to the Campus Crime Report and information pertaining to parking at Concordia University may be found at www.csp.edu/security.

PARKING

The Concordia University parking policy requires that all motor vehicles on campus used by university students, faculty, and staff be registered with the Security Department. Vehicles parked in university lots must have a valid Concordia University Parking Permit properly attached to the rear view mirror, facing the windshield. There is no cost to register a motor vehicle with the Department of Security. Failure to register motor vehicles will result in ticketing, immobilizing, and/or the eventual towing of illegally parked vehicles at the owner's expense. Registration of motor vehicles may be completed in the Security Office located on the first floor of Meyer Hall at 275 North Syndicate Street or during Welcome Weekend. The university maintains parking lots for students. These are: Lot C, Lot D, Lot E, Lot F, Lot G, and Lot H. Lots located behind campus apartments may be used by residents of apartments only. Residents will be given a special permit and ONLY they have exclusive rights to park in the apartment lots. University parking meters are enforced

Monday-Friday from 8:00am-4:00pm. All vehicles parked in metered spaces must pay the meter. This includes vehicles with university parking permits. Vehicles parked in spaces with expired parking meters will be ticketed. Special signed parking areas (Hmong Parking, Admissions and Advancement, President, Residence Life Manager, etc...) are reserved for the individuals specified on the sign and should not be used by registered vehicles unless prior approval has been given by the Security Department. Handicapped/Disabled parking is available on campus. State handicapped parking permits and a valid university parking permit are required to park in these spaces. Concordia University is not responsible for any loss or damage to vehicles parked on university property. For further information, contact the Security Department at (651) 641-8717 or check out the Department of Security web site at www.csp.edu/security.

CO-CURRICULAR ACTIVITIES, CLUBS AND ORGANIZATIONS

Co-curricular activities grow out of the curriculum of the university. All co-curricular activities are approved, coordinated and budgeted by the university and/or the Concordia student association. Co-curricular activities include intramural and intercollegiate athletics, social and recreational events, clubs and special interest groups. Standards of eligibility for participation in co-curricular activities have been established by the faculty. Consult the Concordia University Student Policies Handbook for additional information.

FINE AND PERFORMING ARTS

ALL - STUDENT JURIED ART EXHIBITION

The department of art annually sponsors a show of student art work in the main art gallery on campus. It is open to all students from all colleges and is judged by an outside juror. The work should have been completed within the last year, but need not have been done within the context of course work on campus. The exhibition is traditionally displayed in the months of April and May.

MUSIC GROUPS

The Christus Chorus, Jubilate choir, Concert Band, Jazz Ensemble, Shades of Harmony Multicultural Gospel Choir, Chapel Band, Chamber Choir, Jazz Combo, Handbell Ensemble, Beginning Handbells, Brass Ensemble, Chamber/String Ensemble, Flute Ensemble, Guitar Ensemble, Percussion Ensemble, Saxophone Quartet, Woodwind Ensemble, and vocal ensembles are open to those students who meet eligibility requirements for the respective organization. Auditions for new students are normally held during summer orientation and registration sessions and at the beginning of each academic year during Welcome Week.

Choral auditions are also available at the end of each semester. Students participating in instrumental groups usually are expected to furnish their own instruments, but a limited number of instruments are available for a nominal rental fee.

THEATRE ARTS OPPORTUNITIES

The department of theatre and dance offers students the opportunity to participate in the theatre arts under the supervision of the artistic and technical faculty and staff. A full schedule of major productions is presented throughout the year, including student-directed plays and showcases.

ATHLETIC ASSOCIATIONS AND ACTIVITIES

- Cheer Team (by tryout)

OTHER ACTIVITIES AND ORGANIZATIONS

BOOK OF THE YEAR

Each year Concordia University, Saint Paul selects a “Book of the Year” for students, faculty, and staff to read. The Book of the Year selection committee is comprised of faculty from various academic departments, staff members, and students. Some previous years’ selections have been The Greatest Generation Speaks by Tom Brokaw, Pay It Forward by Catherine Ryan Hyde, Profiles in Courage For Our Time introduced and edited by Caroline Kennedy, Choice of Weapons by Gordon Parks, Growing An Inch by Stanley Gordon West and Picking Cotton by Jennifer Thompson Cannino and Ronald Cotton with Erin Torneo.

The Book of the Year committee selects books based on the following criteria:

- quality of the literature
- connection to classes
- potential to involve students, faculty and staff and to generate meaningful campus-wide activities; connection to fine arts
- relevance to our university’s promise, mission, vision and strategic priorities
- potential for convocations and presentations

CENTER FOR HMONG STUDIES

In the fulfillment of Concordia’s mission to prepare students for thoughtful and informed living, for dedicated service to God and humanity, and for the enlightened care of God’s creation, the Center for Hmong Studies was founded in 2005 to provide a significant place to cultivate the heritage of the Hmong people, promote education and empower the Hmong community to pursue their respective vocations, recognize their strengths and abilities, and utilize their skills for service. The Center for Hmong Studies seeks to cultivate the past, interpret the present, and enrich the future through research and publication, curriculum and teaching, and conference and convening.

MISSION

The mission of the Center for Hmong Studies is to cultivate the past, interpret the present and enrich the future through research and publication, teaching and curriculum, and conferences and convening.

VISION

The Center for Hmong Studies strives to create a high academic program that will strike a balance between academic study and community engagement.

GOALS

1. Make Concordia University, Saint Paul a higher educational institution of choice for Hmong as well as for non-Hmong students throughout the world who have an interest in Hmong history, culture and language.
2. Make Concordia University, Saint Paul the place “to go to” for Hmong scholars, researchers, the media, businesses and government institutions on Hmong-related issues and topics.
3. Enrich the lives of each graduating student and expand their knowledge about the Hmong people through the teaching and learning of Hmong history, culture and language.
4. Encourage, promote and facilitate scholarly research in the Hmong community.

OBJECTIVES

1. Offer an academic minor in Hmong Studies.
2. Offer an academic conference every other year for scholars to promote and share their research findings on the Hmong people and society.
3. Initiate one scholarly research project a year on topics that would be beneficial and of interest to the Hmong and the community at large.
4. Conduct one Hmong study tour a year to Asia.

For further information, contact Professor Lee Pao Xiong, Director of the Center for Hmong Studies, at xiong@csp.edu or (651) 641-8870. The center’s website is www.csp.edu/hmongcenter

HOFFMANN INSTITUTE

The Hoffmann Institute, an outreach arm of the Department of Theology and Ministry at Concordia University St. Paul, equips God’s baptized people for witness and service in today’s multicultural and increasingly urbanized world. This organization was formerly known as the Oswald Hoffmann School of Christian Outreach. As a separately funded, donation-supported outreach organization, the Hoffmann Institute develops programs on- and off-campus to enable the outreach efforts of individuals, congregations, and church-related agencies.

The contact information for the Hoffmann Institute is: (651) 641-8701 and <http://www.hoffmann-institute.org/>

UNDERGRADUATE ACADEMIC INFORMATION

Definition of Academic Terms

There are three 14-week semesters offered at Concordia University. The traditional academic year consists of fall and spring semesters plus final examination days each semester, fall and spring.

Bachelor of Arts degree consists of a major of typically 32 to 44 credits or two minors, general education courses, and elective courses totaling a minimum of 128 credits.

Bachelor of Business Administration degree consists of a major in Accounting, general education courses, and electives courses totaling a minimum of 128 credits.

Bachelor of Science degree consists of a major of typically 45 to 60 credits, general education courses, and elective courses totaling a minimum of 128 credits.

A certificate of proficiency is awarded by the faculty when prescribed courses are met and proficiencies are demonstrated.

Certification for Church work is the process by which the faculty approves candidates for placement in the public ministry of The Lutheran Church Missouri Synod (LCMS); including teacher, Director of Christian Education, Director of Christian Outreach, and Director of Parish Music.

A credit means a semester hour credit. One semester hour credit represents 35 hours of engaged time.

An elective course is a course chosen in addition to major, minor, or emphasis requirements.

An emphasis consists of 12 to 19 credits taken in courses in one area or related areas of study.

An academic hour is a 50-minute period per week required in a given course to earn a semester hour credit.

An integrative course is comprised of two or more disciplines, is team-taught, and makes connections to life beyond academic material.

A teaching licensure is recommended by the university after completion of requirements for the desired license and is granted by the state of Minnesota.

An academic major normally consists of 32 to 44 credits taken in courses in one area or related areas of study prescribed by the faculty.

An academic minor normally consists of 20 to 24 credits taken in courses in one area or related areas of study prescribed by the faculty.

A prerequisite is a course which students are required to take before being eligible to enroll in an advanced course.

A specialization or specialty is a focused group of courses required in addition to a major to attain a certification such as for teaching licensure.

Summer school consists of two seven-week course sessions May - August.

A track is one of two or more alternative sets of courses prescribed by the faculty within a major. The purpose of a track is to provide direction to a student in meeting interest, vocational, or other needs while fulfilling the requirements of a major.

A transcript of credits is a certified record of all grades earned and all courses attempted at a given school, college or university.

ACADEMIC POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

REGISTRATION

The requirement for completion of an undergraduate degree at Concordia University, Saint Paul, is 128 semester credits. Graduate degrees can be earned for 30 or more semester credits depending on the program. The average academic load for a full-time undergraduate student is 16 credits. The maximum load for undergraduate students without payment of additional fees is 19 credits. Students who desire an academic overload must petition through the advisor for permission.

Ordinarily freshmen and sophomore students register for courses numbered from 100 to 299. Faculty and/or Staff Advisors assist in the planning and approval of course registration. Credits earned in courses numbered less than 100 are not applicable to graduation requirements.

In undergraduate degree completion programs, enrollment is considered continuous throughout the program or until the student informs their academic advisor about a discontinuation. Students who stop participating but have not officially discontinued are liable for the cost of attendance.

TIME LIMITS

There is no time limit for completion of a degree in undergraduate programs at Concordia University.

CLASSIFICATION OF STUDENTS

Full-Time Students

Full-time students are those who have satisfied the entrance requirements, have been admitted to the university and are registered for a minimum of 12 credits per semester. The Minnesota State Grant program defines a full-time student as one who is registered for a minimum of 15 credits per semester.

Part-Time Students

Undergraduate students are considered part-time when they carry 11 credits or fewer during a semester. Undergraduate students carrying 9 to 11 credits are classified as three-fourths time students; students carrying 6 to 8 credits are classified as half time students.

Undergraduate students are placed in a class according to the total number of credits earned:

Freshman	up to 31 credits
Sophomore	32 to 63 credits
Junior	64 to 95 credits

REPEATING COURSES

Students may repeat a course. If students repeat a course, both courses remain on the student's transcript but only the higher/highest grade is used in computing a student's cumulative grade point average (CGPA).

AUDITING COURSES

Students who satisfy the requirements for admission may register to audit a course without receiving academic credit for the course. Registration procedures are the same as for credit-bearing courses. The course fee is at a reduced rate unless the course fits under the regular credit limit of 19 credits per semester. Auditing students need not meet regular course requirements but should confer with the instructor as to their privileges and responsibilities in the course. Upon completion of the course, an entry is made on the student's permanent record along with other classes. Students may find it helpful to audit a course to review materials for a more advanced course or to enrich an interest area. Auditors are excluded from laboratory and studio participation. Students may change regular registration to an audit before the end of the eighth week of the semester. Registration may be canceled for non-attendance.

CO-CURRICULAR ACTIVITIES

Members and managers of an intercollegiate team (one complete season) and cheerleaders and drill team members may apply a maximum of three credits in three different athletic activities toward graduation requirements as electives. Any additional credit earned in the same or other co-curricular activities will be indicated on the transcript but will not meet graduation requirements.

INDEPENDENT STUDY

Independent study is an educational experience conducted for credit outside the regularly scheduled classroom offerings. It may be an existing course or an approved student/faculty designed course. Either experience must be conducted under the supervision of an instructor who is responsible for the academic soundness of the proposal. Each credit awarded must represent approximately 35 clock hours of academic work.

Credit for independent studies may be used to fulfill any curriculum requirement. Only four credits of independent study may be taken at one time. No more than 12 credits of independent study may be counted toward graduation requirements. Students are responsible for completing an application form that specifies course goals/objectives and projected outcomes, learning strategies and evaluation procedures. The proposal must be approved by the advisor, instructor, department chair and the dean of the college. An independent study application form may be submitted during regular registration times but no later than the end of the second week of a class. Forms are available in the academic advising office, on the university website, and in the Office of the Registrar.

INTERNSHIPS

Students may apply for internship programs with the approval of the instructor, the advisor, the department chair, the director of advising and the registrar. Internship guidelines are available from the appropriate department. Application blanks are available in the academic advising office and on the web. No more than one-third of a major or a minor may consist of internship credits; normally, no more than 12 field-based experience credits may be applied toward the minimum of 128 credits required for the baccalaureate degree. The number of credits applicable to a major, minor or emphasis is determined in advance by the appropriate department(s). Separate learning contracts are written with the department(s) and work is evaluated by a faculty member or an adjunct faculty member from each department involved. The Director of Christian Education and Director of Christian Outreach programs require an internship. Separate guidelines apply to these internships. The Pass/No Pass grade is given for all field-based learning experiences.

ATTENDANCE IN CLASS AND COMPLETION OF ASSIGNMENTS

The university assumes that all registered students have freely accepted personal responsibility for regular class attendance. Students are expected to attend all class meetings and laboratory sessions for the courses in which they are enrolled. In cases of emergencies and/or unforeseen circumstances students are expected to notify their instructors and arrange for any possible "makeup" assignments; however, instructors are not required to allow for such "makeup" assignments. Instructors will record attendance and specify procedures for handling absences in course syllabi.

The undergraduate degree completion programs are unique and typically offer an accelerated calendar for adults which require fewer but more intense class sessions, chats sessions, and the like. Since these courses are only seven weeks in length, missing "class" is highly discouraged and may affect the final grade and/or course completion. In cases of extreme emergencies and unforeseen circumstances students are expected to notify their instructors and arrange any possible "makeup" assignments; however, instructors are not required in any way to allow for such "makeup" assignments.

All course assignments are also to be completed according to established deadlines. Instructors are not required in any way to accept coursework beyond the established deadline. Missing assignment deadlines will most certainly impact a grade in a course.

Additional attendance guidelines and requirements for degree completion undergraduate students:

- If a student must miss a class/chat because of an emergency or illness, he/she is required to complete his/her regular assignments(s) and complete a make-up assignment that contributes to the subject being studied and enhances the class-learning environment. A missed class/chat may result in a grade reduction.
- If a student misses two classes/chats, the instructor and the student need to discuss the student's ability to complete the course. In addition, the student will be required to complete his/her regular assignment(s) and extra work. Two missed classes/chats will result in additional grade reduction.
- Any additional absences will require retaking the course. The student will be billed and a grade will be issued each time the course is taken.
- Regular attendance is a key factor in determining the continuing financial aid support.
- Instructors understand the uncertainty of military requirements and other contractual obligations, and they will work with the student to meet educational goals.
- It is the student's responsibility to contact the instructor to make appropriate arrangements.

ACADEMIC CREDIT FOR PRIOR EXPERIENCE

Degree-seeking students may earn up to 32 credits of coursework for experiences from any of the following: non-accredited institutions, documented work training, or military. Credits are typically for elective coursework. Credit for coursework in majors and minors must be approved by the respective academic department. General Education coursework must be approved by the General Education Committee. The office of the Registrar may grant such credit.

ASSESSMENT OF STUDENT LEARNING AND OTHER MATTERS

Concordia University conducts a series of activities to assess – among other things – student learning, program effectiveness, and student perceptions of faculty effectiveness. The assessment program at Concordia University, Saint Paul is a process for educational improvement that helps both the institution and the individual student. Assessment results help determine how well the institution is meeting its mission and goals for students, what is working and where changes need to be made. In addition, assessments provide students with feedback to monitor progress toward their own educational goals. This assessment program uses a variety of tools to measure students learning and development beyond what simple grades can indicate. In some cases, assessment results will demonstrate how Concordia University students compare in certain subject areas to students across the country. Many of the assessment activities are part of courses and some will be a part of the process of applying for an academic major. Other assessments will involve student participation in surveys, focus groups or interviews. As part of the general education program and at the completion of the academic major and minor, students will also complete an outcomes assessment. As alumni, students will be asked to participate in assessment surveys that inquire about the impact their Concordia University education has had for them. More information about assessment activities can be obtained from academic advisors or the associate dean for academic affairs.

DROP REGISTRATION FROM COURSES “WITHOUT ACADEMIC RECORD”

Full Semester Courses

Students may withdraw from a course without record during the first two weeks of the course.

Half Semester Courses (7 Week Courses)

Students may withdraw from a course without record during the first week of the course.

WITHDRAWAL FROM COURSES/WITHDRAWAL WITH ACADEMIC RECORD

Full Semester Courses

Students may withdraw from full semester courses any time after the second week of the course through the eleventh week and receive a “W” grade.

Half Semester Courses

Students may withdraw from half semester courses any time after the first week of the course through the fifth week and receive a “W” grade.

Withdrawal Procedures

- Students are able to drop courses online through the drop dates posted on the academic calendar.
- After the drop period is over, students must submit a signed Registration Restriction Form with instructor and advisor signatures.
- Effective dates for withdrawals will be determined by the date when the properly completed Registration Restriction Form is received in the Registrar’s Office.
- Withdrawal from coursework may have financial implications. Students will receive 100% tuition refunds only for courses from which they withdrew prior to the 6th business day of the term. See financial policies for further information.

Withdrawal from the University

Students who desire to discontinue from the university, take a leave of absence, or changing their cohort must discuss their plans with their advisor. Traditional undergraduate students will contact the Director of Academic Advising at (651) 603-6271 or advising@csp.edu for an exit interview. It is the student’s responsibility to fulfill all necessary obligations by contacting the following: financial aid office, student accounts, library/information services/help desk, security, and offices issuing special equipment, such as laptops, instruments, keys, and athletic equipment. Students who officially withdraw from school will receive refunds and grades according to the standard schedule. Students who discontinue without notice will be liable for any financial obligations.

Students who are asked to leave Concordia University as a result of administrative dismissal or academic disqualification, may appeal. Contact the Director of Academic Advising, (651) 603-6271 or advising@csp.edu

GRADING SYSTEM – UNDERGRADUATE PROGRAMS

A	Superior	4.00 grade points
A –	3.67 grade points
B+	3.33 grade points
B	Above Average	3.00 grade points
B –	2.67 grade points
C+	2.33 grade points
C	Average	2.00 grade points
C –	1.67 grade points
D+	1.33 grade points
D	Below Average	1.00 grade points
D –	0.67 grade points
F	zero grade points
P	Pass
N	No pass
X	Continuing registration for more than one term
V	Audit
W	Withdrawal	Student officially withdrew from a course during the third through eighth week of the semester.
I	In progress	This grade is given to students who have missed part of their assigned work due to circumstances beyond their control, but who are otherwise doing satisfactory work.

REQUESTING AN “IN PROGRESS” GRADE

An In-Progress grade may be given to students who have missed part of their assigned work due to circumstances which are beyond their control and who are otherwise doing satisfactory work. Note that any in-progress grade could affect the students’ probationary and disqualification status (See Satisfactory Progress Policy). Process:

- Prior to the end of the term the student files a form with the professor requesting an “I” grade and indicating a planned completion date.
- Students and instructors develop an agreement including the guidelines for completion of the necessary coursework. In degree completion programs, an “in-progress” grade should be removed within two weeks.
- In traditional programs, an in-progress should be completed and removed by the seventh week of the following semester in which the “I” grade was incurred or at a date set by the professor on the form provided. In degree completion undergraduate programs and graduate programs, all course requirements must be completed within four weeks from the last day of class.
- The grade of “I” will be changed to the grade of “F” by the registrar unless an instructor assigns a passing grade or requests an extension beyond the normal time limit.
- Permission may be granted by the instructor to extend the time of an “I” grade to a maximum of one year.
- When extenuating circumstances warrant. Any further extension must be approved by the instructor and the Vice President for Academic Affairs and filed with the registrar.

PASS/NO-PASS GRADING

A course usually graded A through F may be taken Pass/No Pass by a student if the course is an elective and not part of the general education curriculum or part of a major or minor. A course is designated as elective when it is not used by a student to meet any specific area or course requirement including the general education program, major, minor, emphasis, or professional courses. To take a course usually graded A through F as a Pass/No Pass course, a student must file the appropriate form with the Office of the Registrar before the course is half over – the end of the third week for a seven week class or the end of the seventh week for a full semester course. Pass/NoPass courses transferred in by students as required courses (a course is designated as required when it is used by a student to meet any specific area or course requirement including the general education program, major, minor, emphasis or professional courses) are acceptable only from colleges where the grading system is the normal system as described above.

There is a four-credit limit of P-N courses per semester for sophomores, juniors, and seniors. Internships (see below) which are normally graded by the Pass/No Pass system do not count towards these limits.

Field experiences, internships, and co-curricular athletic activities are offered ONLY on a Pass-No Pass basis. A student may earn a maximum of eight credits in the combined music/drama area and one credit in each area of athletics that are applicable to the total credits for graduation requirements. The maximum credit limit applies to students who are not completing a music/drama major, minor, or emphases. Although these courses apply toward graduation requirements, they are not calculated into the cumulative grade point average.

ACADEMIC GOOD STANDING

A student in good standing is one who:

- Is registered for the current term
- Is attending class in accordance with the class attendance policy
- Has no financial obligations to the university
- Is not on disciplinary probation and
- Is not on academic probation.

Eligibility to participate in certain interscholastic activities necessitates the fulfillment of additional requirements.

SATISFACTORY ACADEMIC PROGRESS POLICY FOR UNDERGRADUATE STUDENTS

To be eligible to register continuously without conditions, a student must achieve satisfactory academic progress. Concordia will follow federal-financial-aid policy on satisfactory academic progress as long as Concordia accepts federal funding. (See full policy details in the Financial section on pages 25-26)

When a student does not maintain satisfactory progress, the university will impose certain restrictions that will affect the student's eligibility for enrollment:

1. Academic Probation: Academic probation is a formal warning that students did not achieve satisfactory progress. A student on probation will remain eligible to enroll in the subsequent term for a maximum of 16 credits, but must achieve satisfactory progress at the end of that term or face disqualification.
2. Disqualification: Disqualification occurs when students do not meet satisfactory academic progress requirements for two consecutive terms. Students may appeal to be re-admitted by completing the Disqualification Appeal Form.

DISQUALIFICATION APPEAL PROCESS

A Disqualification Appeal Form must be submitted to the academic appeals committee. The academic appeals committee will decide approval or denial of students who are appealing their academic disqualification. Appeals must be submitted to the academic appeals committee at least two weeks before the start of the term for which the student desires readmission. The appeal must state what undue hardship caused the student's inability to meet satisfactory progress standards. The hardships could include illness, injury, or death of an immediate relative. Only special extenuating circumstances will be considered. Students must also explain how they propose to remedy their situation. If the appeal is successful, the student is readmitted on probationary status. Appeals are approved for one term only. Students may also show successful completion of 12 semester credits with a CGPA of 2.0 or higher from another accredited institution to indicate that they have overcome the challenges that caused the original disqualification.

HONOR RECOGNITION – DEAN'S LIST

Full-time (12 or more credits) undergraduate students, who earn a grade point average (GPA) of 3.6 and above in a given academic semester, are included on the dean's list. To be considered, all course incompletes must be removed by the end of the second week after the week of final examinations.

GRADUATION HONORS

Full-time students in bachelor degree programs at Concordia University who have earned at least 64 credits at Concordia University and who have earned a cumulative grade point average of 3.90 or higher are designated as graduating summa cum laude; those students with a cumulative grade point average of 3.75 to 3.89 are designated as graduating magna cum laude; those students with a cumulative grade point average of 3.60 to 3.74 are designated as graduating cum laude.

Students in bachelor degree programs who have earned fewer than 64 credits at Concordia University and have at least a 3.90 GPA at Concordia will be recognized as graduating "with high distinction." Students who have earned fewer than 64 credits and have a GPA between 3.75 and 3.89 will be recognized as graduating "with distinction."

ACADEMIC HONORS CONVOCATION

Students receiving dean's list recognition, special departmental awards, and merit scholarships will be recognized at the annual Academic Honors Convocation held during the spring semester.

HONORARY SOCIETIES FOR STUDENTS

Lambda Pi Eta

Lambda Pi Eta is the official communication studies honor society of the National Communication Association (NCA). The Nu Beta chapter of Lambda Pi Eta was chartered at Concordia University in 2001. As an accredited member of the Association of College Honor Societies (ACHS), Lambda Pi Eta has nearly 300 active chapters at colleges and universities worldwide. Lambda Pi Eta was founded in 1985 at the University of Arkansas, became a part of the National Communication Association (NCA) in 1988, and became the official honor society of the NCA in July 1995. Lambda Pi Eta represents what Aristotle described in his book, Rhetoric, as the three ingredients of persuasion: Logos (Lambda) meaning logic, Pathos (Pi) relating to emotion, and Ethos (Eta) defined as character credibility and ethics. The goals of Lambda Pi Eta are to:

- recognize, foster, and reward outstanding scholastic achievement;
- stimulate interest in the field of communication;
- promote and encourage professional development among communication majors;
- provide an opportunity to discuss and exchange ideas about the field;
- establish and maintain close relationships and understanding between faculty and students; and
- explore options for further graduate studies.

<http://www.natcom.org/StudentOrgs/LPH/LPH.HTM>

Sigma Tau Delta

Sigma Tau Delta, The National English Honor Society, was founded in 1924. In 1987, the Mu Chi Chapter was established at Concordia University. Membership is open to students who have completed at least five semesters of college work with a minimum of 3.00 grade-point average in English and who rank in the top 35 percent of their class in general scholarship. The purposes of the society are to:

- confer distinction for high achievement in English language and literature;
- to promote interest in literature and the English language on the campus and in the surrounding community; and
- to foster the discipline of English in all its aspects, including creative and critical writing.

PARTICIPATION IN COMMENCEMENT CEREMONIES

Students who have 15 or fewer credits left to complete at the time of the annual commencement ceremony in May are allowed to participate. Contact the Registrar's Office for more information.

FINANCIAL HOLD

Students who are not current in their financial obligations to Concordia University, are placed on financial hold. While on financial hold, students:

- may have their course management system (CMS: WebCT, Blackboard, Moodle) disabled
- may be subject to late fees
- may have financial aid canceled for future terms
- may be de-registered from future class registration
- may be unable to receive grades, transcripts, or diplomas

RESEARCH WITH HUMAN SUBJECTS

All research projects employing human subjects must be reviewed by the Human Subjects Review Committee. No research project should be implemented without the approval of the Human Subjects Review Committee. Students and faculty who are planning to conduct research are directed to use and follow the procedures in the Faculty Handbook Section 8, Appendix D: Concordia University Saint Paul, MN Protocols and Procedures for Research Involving Human Subjects Application and Information Packet and Appendix E: Protocol Form Research Involving Human Subjects.

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY

Academic integrity is essential to any academic institution and is in keeping with the mission of the university. In order to protect Academic integrity is essential to any academic institution and is in keeping with the mission of the university. In order to protect the rights of students, the disciplinary procedure for dealing with cases of academic dishonesty follows these broad guidelines.

Academic integrity includes working honestly on tests and assignments, honestly reporting research findings, properly citing the source of any materials quoted, paraphrased or modified in the work one submits. A popular handbook for writers defines properly citing source material in this manner:

"To plagiarize is to present another person's words or ideas as if they were your own. Plagiarism is like stealing. The word plagiarize comes from the Latin word for kidnapper and literary thief. Plagiarism can be intentional, as when you submit as your own work a paper you did not write. Plagiarism can also be unintentional, but not less serious an offense if you are unaware of what must be acknowledged and how to do so with documentation." (Troyka, L. Handbook for writers, Simon and Schuster, 6th ed.)

Violations of academic integrity include "cheating" and "plagiarism" as defined by the university's Student Code of Conduct (SCC).

OFF-CAMPUS SEMESTER STUDY

Concordia University encourages students to broaden their horizons and explore their surrounding world through off-campus study programs. In order to apply for off-campus study, students must meet certain criteria dependent upon the study option. Concordia University will allow only two semesters of off-campus study or a maximum of 32 off-campus study credits to be applied to the 128 credits for the bachelor's degree. The university's Bachelor of Arts and Bachelor of Business Administration graduation requirements will remain in effect. Students enrolled in pre-approved off-campus study will also be considered in the financial aid process. In no way will program leaders or instructors of programs/courses be responsible for personal injury or property damage arising out of the act or negligence of any direct carrier, hotel, or travel service or any other person rendering any service offered in connection with off-campus study.

GLOBAL OFF-CAMPUS ENRICHMENT STUDY

Another off-campus study option available to students is our short-term Global Off-Campus Enrichment (GOE) trips. New faculty-led programs are approved annually and courses are offered around the world in many different disciplines. In order to participate, students must be in good standing. For further information, contact the Community Action, Leadership, and Learning Center (CALL Center) at (651) 641-8236.

RESERVE OFFICERS TRAINING CORPS (ROTC) AIR FORCE ROTC

A cooperative program between Concordia and the University of Saint Thomas provides Concordia students with the opportunity to concurrently enroll in credit courses in aerospace studies at Saint Thomas. Air Force Reserve Officer Training Corps is an educational and leadership development program designed to prepare students for commissioning as second lieutenants in the United States Air Force. Air Force ROTC complements the academic major of the student's choice and increases the student's career options. Students incur no obligation by enrolling in the courses; the Aerospace classes are free and are paid by a University of Saint Thomas grant. Credit is transferable. Scholarships are available, especially in engineering, mathematics, physics, computer science, and nursing. For more information, contact the Department of Aerospace Studies at the University of Saint Thomas, (651) 962-6320 or 1-800-328-6819, ext. 6320.

ARMY ROTC

ROTC trains and prepares men and women for a commission as an officer in the regular Army, Army Reserve and National Guard. In addition to instruction in military fundamentals, ROTC develops leadership qualities and self-confidence essential to success in today's world.

Concordia's program, six semesters in length, is completed concurrently with course work required for a B.A. degree through the University of Minnesota. The first two semesters constitute the Basic Program, while the four remaining semesters are the Advanced Program.

Cadets/students are under no legal obligation while in the Basic Program. Upon entrance into the Advanced Program the students sign a contract and begin receiving a monthly stipend from the ROTC program. Traditional Concordia University students who are also Army ROTC scholarship winners shall receive a room and board scholarship assurance each term while they are on a scholarship contract. Non-traditional degree completion students enrolled as cadets in the University of Minnesota Corps of Cadets by means of a scholarship contract shall receive a $500 per semester stipend for each semester they are enrolled in an undergraduate degree completion program. For further information, call (612) 626-1584.

NAVAL ROTC

Naval ROTC two-year scholarship and non-scholarship programs allow students to earn a commission in the U.S. Navy or U.S. Marine Corps. Concurrent completion of degree requirements at Concordia and Naval Science requirements at the University of Minnesota results in an active duty commission. Career options include aviation, submarine warfare and surface warfare (Navy), or aviation and ground office positions (Marines). For further information, call (651) 625-6677.

GRADUATION REQUIREMENTS

ASSOCIATE OF ARTS DEGREE (A.A.)

Students may obtain the Associate in Arts (A.A.) degree at Concordia University, by completing a 64-credit program that includes the equivalent of the 47 credits of general education curriculum. A minimum of 32 credits must be earned at Concordia University. In addition, students must:

1. Earn a minimum cumulative grade point average of 2.00 at Concordia University.
2. Complete all general education requirements.
3. Complete all assessment activities and outcome examinations required for general education.
4. Complete, if desired, an area of emphasis to complete the total number of credits required for graduation.

Areas of emphasis as a part of the A.A. program are 12 credits. Students may select an area of emphasis with the approval of their academic advisor. The academic department and the Registrar must approve the area of emphasis in order for it to be listed on the student's transcript.

BACHELOR OF ARTS DEGREE (B.A.)

The Bachelor of Arts (B.A.) degree from Concordia University carries the following general requirements. Students will:

1. Complete 128 total credits applicable to graduation of which 32 must be completed at Concordia University and 20 in the senior year.
2. Complete the course requirements for the 47 credits of general education program
3. Complete the course requirements for an academic major – typically 40 to 44 credits for the BA – or two academic minors – typically 20 to 24 credits each. At least 50% of a major, minor or emphasis must be completed in residence unless approved by the appropriate department(s).
4. Complete petitions for any and all substitutions for general education courses and courses in the major and/or minor(s).
5. Earn a cumulative grade point average of 2.00 or above, a cumulative grade point average of 2.50 or better in the major and all minors. If the 2.50 cumulative grade point average is not attained in a minor, the minor will not be listed on the transcript. Two or more majors, minors, or emphases can be requested in related areas, with a maximum of three courses, or one-fourth of the total credits, whichever is higher, in common. An exception may be granted for multiple teaching licenses.
6. Complete all assessment activities and outcomes examinations required for general education and/or majors and minors.
7. Traditional undergraduate students – meet with the Registrar after applying for graduation to review final requirements. It is recommended to apply and meet with the Registrar before registering for the entire senior year to allow for any contingencies. The deadline for the graduation application is set for the Friday before Thanksgiving for students planning to complete the following spring, summer, or fall to participate in the upcoming

May ceremony. Students in the undergraduate degree completion programs are to communicate with an academic advisor on a continuing basis.

8. Be approved as a candidate for a degree by the faculty, upon the recommendation of the Registrar.

NOTE: Additional requirements for Teacher Education majors include completion of state tests, human relations activity hours, and current certification in CPR and First Aid.

BACHELOR OF BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION DEGREE (B.B.A.)

Admission to the degree program for the Accounting Bachelor of Business Administration (BBA) major:

1. Complete all freshman/sophomore required business and prerequisite courses.
2. Earn no more than 8 credits of D/F grades in the freshman/sophomore required business and prerequisite courses. All D/F credits from all prior enrollments in courses that a student repeats are counted as D/F credits for the purposes of admission to the majors in the BBA program. Accounting majors also earn at least B, C or C, B in ACC 201 and ACC 202.

The BBA degree from Concordia University carries the following general requirements. Students will:

1. Complete 128 total credits applicable to graduation.
2. Complete all requirements for the degree within eight (8) years of entering Concordia University. The 128 credits consist of general education courses, basic business core courses, major courses, elective courses, and all necessary prerequisites.
3. Complete all upper-level (300- and 400-level) basic business core courses and all major courses in residence.
4. Earn a cumulative grade point average of 2.00 or above, a cumulative grade point average of 2.00 or better in the major and a 2.50 in all minors.
5. Pass the Major Field Test in Business.

If a student has earned the grade of D in a course that is part of the BBA basic business core and has taken that course at a school other than Concordia University, the course will not substitute for a course that is part of the business core. A student may earn transfer credit for a lower-level (100 or 200 level) course that is part of the business core only if the student took the course at an accredited institution of higher education.

BACHELOR OF SCIENCE DEGREE (B.S.)

The Bachelor of Science (B.S.) degree from Concordia University carries the following general requirements. Students will:

1. Complete 128 total credits applicable to graduation of which 32 must be completed at Concordia University and 20 in the senior year.
2. Complete the course requirements for the 47+ credits of general education program
3. Complete the course requirements for a Bachelor of Science academic major – typically 45 to 60 for the B.S. At least 50% of a major, minor or emphasis must be completed in residence unless approved by the appropriate department(s).
4. Complete petitions for any and all substitutions for general education courses and courses in the major and/or minor(s).
5. Earn a cumulative grade point average of 2.00 or above, a cumulative grade point average of 2.50 or better in the major and all minors. If the 2.50 cumulative grade point average is not attained in a minor, the minor will not be listed on the transcript. Two or more majors, minors, or emphases can be requested in related areas, with a maximum of three courses, or one-fourth of the total credits, whichever is higher, in common. An exception may be granted for multiple teaching licenses.

6. Complete all assessment activities and outcomes examinations required for general education and/or majors and minors.
7. Traditional undergraduate students – meet with the Registrar after applying for graduation to review final requirements. It is recommended to apply and meet with the Registrar before registering for the entire senior year to allow for any contingencies. The deadline for the graduation application is set for the Friday before Thanksgiving for students planning to complete the following spring, summer, or fall to participate in the upcoming May ceremony. Students in the undergraduate degree completion programs are to communicate with an academic advisor on a continuing basis.
8. Be approved as a candidate for a degree by the faculty, upon the recommendation of the Registrar.

UNIVERSITY OUTCOMES FOR ALL GRADUATES

The Concordia University graduate will be able to demonstrate the following competencies:

Critical Thinking -- Identify the problem/issue; articulate solutions/perspectives; identify and assess key assumptions; identify and assess data and evidence; identify and consider of the influence of context; evaluate of the ethical dimensions and apply ethical principles; and synthesize conclusions, implications, and consequences.

Information Literacy -- Prepare for research; generate search strategy and access resources; evaluate and process information; transfer and apply learning; incorporate information technology; practice legal and ethical use of information.

Oral Communication -- Develop content into a well-organized oral presentation; use appropriate language and nonverbals to enhance the fluency of the presentation; effectively incorporate citations into the presentation; effectively tailor the presentation to the audience and respond appropriately to audience feedback.

Quantitative Reasoning -- Translate verbal or written assertions into quantitative data; read, analyze, and interpret quantitative data, such as graphs, charts, or statistics; and support conclusions using quantitative data.

Writing -- Relate content to an audience, to develop and organize material, to construct fluent sentences using standard grammar, mechanics and references.

Aesthetic Values-- Relate how artistic expressions reflect philosophical, religious, and social thought in human communities; and recognize major forms of artistic expression in their culture.

PRE-PROFESSIONAL PROGRAMS

Concordia University provides opportunities for students to pursue a professional degree beyond the undergraduate degree at Concordia by establishing pre-professional programs in specific areas such as those listed below.

PRE-CHIROPRACTIC

Our “3+3” partnership with Northwestern Health Sciences University (Bloomington, MN) will enable Concordia students to earn both a bachelor’s and doctorate in chiropractic in just six years. Students will spend their first three years at Concordia, St. Paul, and the final three years at Northwestern.

PRE-ENGINEERING

Students who wish to pursue a degree in Engineering but do not want to begin their education at a large college or university have an option to attend Concordia University in the Pre-Engineering program. The program was designed in consultation with the Institute of Technology at the University of Minnesota to ensure that course credits meet the program requirements. Pre-engineering students fulfill general education requirements and build a solid foundation in mathematics and the sciences, including calculus-based physics courses. When students complete their first two years at Concordia, they are prepared to study engineering as upper level students.

Recommended for Pre-Engineering:

Chemistry: CHE 115, CHE 116, CHE 221, CHE 222, CHE 326, CHE 327

Computer Science: CSC 301

Mathematics: MAT 135, MAT 145, MAT 330, MAT 255, MAT 310, MAT 365

Physics: PHS 221, PHS 222

For further information, contact the coordinator of pre-engineering studies, Dr. Rob Krueger at (651) 641-8848 or rkrueger@csp.edu.

PRE-DENTAL

Pre-dental students can best prepare for dental school by completing either a biology major or a biochemistry major. Most students take the DCAT (dentistry) in April of their junior year. For further information, contact the coordinator of pre-dental studies, Dr. Leanne Bakke at (651) 641-8750 or bakke@csp.edu.

PRE-PHARMACY

Students interested in pursuing a doctorate of pharmacy degree can meet the admission requirements for any program by completing a biology major or a chemistry major with a biology minor. For further information, contact the coordinator of pre-pharmacy studies, Dr. Leanne Bakke at (651) 641-8750 or bakke@csp.edu.

PRE-PHYSICAL THERAPY

Each physical therapy graduate program varies in specific requirements but all require a bachelor’s degree. It is highly recommended that students interested in physical therapy complete a major in Biology. For further information, contact the coordinator of pre-law studies, Dr. Eric LaMott at (651) 641-8729 or lamott@csp.edu.

PRE-LAW STUDIES

Pre-law students at Concordia University should complete the Bachelor of Arts degree in one or more fields of study. Law schools prefer that students complete a broad, diverse, and challenging undergraduate curriculum and reserve legal study for law school. Undergraduate programs should reveal the student’s capacity to rise to intellectual challenge and perform well at an academically rigorous level whether in the sciences, the liberal arts, the business curriculum, or other fields. For further information, contact the coordinator of pre-law studies, Dr. Paul Hillmer at (651) 641-8215 or hillmer@csp.edu.

PRE-MEDICAL STUDIES

To enter professional programs in medicine, dentistry, veterinary medicine, chiropractic, pharmacy, physician’s assistant, and physical therapy, students normally complete a Bachelor of Science degree or a Bachelor of Arts degree in a related field. Pre-medical education should be considered a field of interest rather than a major. The Biology major allows students to select a track appropriate to the chosen professional program (health sciences, general biology, biotechnology and environmental science).

Students who are planning a pre-medical program should consult with the pre-medical faculty advisor in the Department of Science. Interested students should contact the college or university where they intend to complete their degree program for a list of acceptable courses for transfer. Students typically take the Medical College Admission Test (MCAT) in April of their junior year.

CERTIFICATIONS

DIRECTOR OF CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

The purpose of the Director of Christian Education certification program is to prepare students for professional Word and Service ministry as lifespan educational leaders and equippers in the Church.

LUTHERAN CLASSROOM TEACHER

The purpose of the Lutheran Classroom Teacher (LCT) certification program is to prepare students for professional Word and Service ministry integrating faith and learning in the lives of children, youth, and families served by Lutheran schools. Students complete a teaching licensure program in order to be licensed as a teacher, and the Lutheran Theology minor in order to be certified for service in the Church.

DIRECTOR OF CHRISTIAN OUTREACH

The purpose of the Director of Christian Outreach certification program is to prepare students for professional Word and Service ministry as equippers of the Church to carry out God’s mission to seek and save the lost throughout the world.

DIRECTOR OF PARISH MUSIC

The purpose of the Director of Parish Music certification program is to prepare students for professional Word and Service ministry that uses music to praise God, proclaim the Gospel, and lead the song of the people in the life and worship of the Church.

CERTIFICATION THROUGH COLLOQUY

- Director of Christian Education
- Lutheran Classroom Teacher
- Director of Christian Outreach
- Director of Parish Music

PROFESSIONAL CHURCH WORK PROGRAMS

Through its Department of Theology and Ministry in the College of Arts and Letters, Concordia University, Saint Paul supports four professional church work programs that prepare students to be placed on the roster of Commissioned Ministers of The LCMS: Director of Christian Education; Director of Christian Outreach; Director of Parish Music; and Lutheran Classroom Teacher. The department also houses the Pre-Pastoral and Pre-Deaconess Studies programs. For further information on any of these programs contact the Department of Theology and Ministry (651-641-8892; theology@csp.edu).

DIRECTOR OF CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

The Director of Christian Education (DCE) program prepares men and women to serve as lifespan educational leaders in various team ministry settings in the congregation. With different emphases and specializations, the DCE is there to help teach the Christian faith to children and adults across the lifespan. The DCE program is five years in duration, entailing the core Bible and theology component, a cluster of more specialized courses, and one year devoted to a supervised internship.

DIRECTOR OF CHRISTIAN OUTREACH

The Director of Christian Outreach (DCO) program prepares outreach specialists for service to the church. A DCO helps to assess outreach opportunities unique to a ministry setting and to equip each congregation to bring the Gospel to people in the most winsome and effective ways possible. The DCO may serve in North America or on a foreign mission field. The DCO program entails a core of academic work in Lutheran theology, a core of specialized courses, and a supervised internship.

DIRECTOR OF PARISH MUSIC

The Director of Parish Music (DPM) program uses music of all forms and times while drawing on the rich liturgical tradition of the Lutheran church in the leadership and enhancement of the worship of the Church. The DPM program helps men and women serve God and God's gathered people through the gift of music. The Director of Parish Music will be active in worship planning, while equipping, leading, and teaching others in worship and music. A DPM program entails a core of academic work in Lutheran theology, its own curriculum in music and music education, and a supervised fieldwork experience.

LUTHERAN CLASSROOM TEACHER

The Lutheran Classroom Teacher program is a partnership between the College of Arts and Letters and the College of Education and Science, preparing men and women for teaching careers in one of the more than 2,500 pre-school, elementary or secondary schools of The Lutheran Church - Missouri Synod. A student preparing to be a Lutheran Classroom Teacher meets the requirements for Minnesota state licensure as a teacher through the College of Education and Science and meets the requirements for church certification through the Department of Theology and Ministry. The programs between the two colleges are integrated and coordinated in such a way as to benefit the student in achieving ministry goals.

PRE-SEMINARY EDUCATION

The pre-pastoral program at Concordia University, Saint Paul equips students for success at a Lutheran seminary, where they receive their formal education for service in Word and Sacrament ministry.

PRE-DEACONESS EDUCATION

The pre-deaconess program at Concordia University, Saint Paul prepares students for Word and Service ministry as a Deaconess. Beginning the program at Concordia University, Saint Paul, the pre-deaconess student may transfer at the beginning of the junior year for continued preparation in the Concordia University, Chicago Deaconess program, or she may graduate from CSP with a major in theology and may continue preparation at Concordia Seminary, Saint Louis, Missouri or Concordia Theological Seminary, Fort Wayne, Indiana, earning a Master of Arts degree and the Deaconess certification.

CO-CURRICULAR ACTIVITIES

Members and managers of an intercollegiate team (one complete season) and cheerleaders and drill team members may apply a maximum of three credits in three different athletic activities toward graduation requirements as electives. Any additional credit earned in the same or other co-curricular activities will be indicated on the transcript but will not meet graduation requirements.

GENERAL EDUCATION AND ELECTIVE COURSES THROUGH THE SCHOOL OF CONTINUING STUDIES

Concordia's School of Continuing Studies offers undergraduate general education and elective courses delivered in accelerated online formats. The courses are designed for adult students and to assist students in building enough general education credits to start one of Concordia University's adult accelerated degree programs. Through these intensive courses learners can earn up to 36 semester credits in approximately one calendar year. There are no educational prerequisites to enroll in these classes and visiting students are welcome to enroll.

Accelerated general education courses allow learners to:

- efficiently obtain general study requirements to prepare for an accelerated learning program;
- develop skills to be successful in academic work;
- earn foundational credits for a liberal arts education; and
- work towards a college degree, regardless of geographic location or time.

COURSE DELIVERY

Courses are delivered online. In the online accelerated classes learners collaborate with a community of peers through chats, discussion boards, and email.

COURSE SELECTION

Participants will be teamed with an advisor who will assist in creating a class schedule that fits with the student's work and personal life.

SCHOOL OF CONTINUING STUDIES TUITION AND FEES 2015-16

Auditing (per class)	$175

ASSOCIATE OF ARTS DEGREE: ONLINE

The Associate of Arts (A.A.) degree provides learners with general education credits from various academic disciplines delivered through online education. General education courses provide students with a foundation for critically examining the world from unique perspectives. These courses also help prepare students for the major courses in their bachelor degree programs.

TUITION AND FEES

The Associate of Arts degree program totals 64 semester credits. REQUIREMENTS (64 CREDITS)

- LSC 159 The Inner Review (2 credits)
- Communication (4 credits)
- Writing (4 credits)
- Literature (4 credits)
- Health and Physical Education (3 credits)
- Social/Behavioral Science (4 credits)
- History/Political Science (4 credits)
- Fine Arts (minimum of 2 different areas: Music, Theatre or Art (4 credits)
- Mathematics (3 credits)
- Global Studies (4 credits)
- Physical Science (4 credits)
- Biology (4 credits)
- RLG 415 Biblical Christianity (4 credits)
- Specialization or Elective Credits (16 credits)

ASSOCIATE OF ARTS IN EARLY CHILDHOOD EDUCATION

12 credits from the list of the Early Childhood classes below will complete the Early Childhood emphasis.

Satisfies 12 electives credits in the B.A. Child Development program

Certificate classes:

CHD 310	Growth and Development of Children	4
CHD 330	Best Practices in Early Childhood	4
CHD 320	Role of the Early Childhood Educator	4

Satisfies 12 credits in the B.A. Child Development program:

CHD 435	Developmentally Appropriate Practices in ECE	3
CHD 440	Children's Play and Learning	3
CHD 430	Infants and Toddlers	3
CHD 445	Language Development/Literacy	3

GENERAL EDUCATION REQUIREMENTS

The purpose of the general education curriculum is to provide Concordia University students with the opportunity to grow in their ability to:

- discover, confront and explore unfamiliar information and ideas;
- use available academic resources and skills to think analytically, critically, and synthetically;
- use appropriate and current technology for research and problem solving; and
- ideally move beyond the academic data itself to formulate and express new insights and ideas.

FINE ARTS (four credits required; two courses from two different areas – Art, Music, and Theatre)

The fine arts curriculum increases students' awareness, understanding and critical appreciation of varied aesthetic expression; and seeks to foster their creative talents.

HISTORY AND POLITICAL SCIENCE (4 credits required)

History offerings help students understand historical sources on their own terms and to recognize the interplay of political, intellectual, social, economic and cultural factors in the development of civilizations. It thereby provides one method whereby present-day circumstances can be better understood and evaluated. Political science courses help students understand their own government and the role of each citizen in the democratic process. Applied globally, political science pertains to the relationships between different governments and peoples and explores how their interests and welfare are connected by many of the same factors examined by historians.

HIS 212	Introduction to History	4
HMG 110	Introduction to Hmong History	4
POL 131	American Government	4

COMMUNICATION (4 credits required)

Communication courses pertain to the study of verbal and nonverbal messages between communicators in interpersonal, group, public, intercultural and mass media contexts. Communication theory and analysis informs student choice of ethical as well as effective strategies and skills used to relate and respond to ideas.

COM 103	Interpersonal Communication	4
COM 212	Public Speaking	4

GLOBAL STUDIES (4 credits required)

Very broadly construed, global courses help students recognize global interdependence and/or cultural connections; as such, they enhance students' ability to work constructively with a people, language, or culture other than their own.

LITERATURE (4 credits required)

The literature curriculum helps students develop their abilities to think critically about, write coherently on and discuss enthusiastically a variety of literary texts; students develop both an intellectual understanding of the power of literature and an aesthetic appreciation for diverse literary works.

ENG 155	Introduction to Literature	4

MATHEMATICS AND NATURAL SCIENCE (9 credits required)

Mathematics offerings are designed to develop students' understanding of basic mathematical concepts, to develop their abilities to analyze and solve mathematical problems and to promote mathematical awareness in the analysis of problem solving strategies and the interpretation of results. Natural science courses examine the physical nature of the world. Biology involves plant, animal and human life; physical science deals with the processes of the earth; while earth science studies the earth and the universe.

All students must take a total of 9 credits of mathematics and natural science, with the prescribed number of credits in each of the following three areas.

MATHEMATICS (MINIMUM 3 CREDITS REQUIRED)

Incoming students are initially placed in math courses according to their math ACT scores. Students who do not have a current math ACT score or those who would like to change their placement will need to take the Math Placement Exam.

UNIVERSITY HONORS PROGRAM

Concordia's University Honors Program in litteris fideique ("in faith and learning") is an alternative approach to meeting General Education requirements. It is interdisciplinary course of study that challenges talented students to integrate Christian faith and academic learning. The Honors Program provides opportunities for students to become leaders in academic research and in service to others while engaging in constant conversation with the Christian gospel.

There are four core courses for the University Honors Program in litteris fideique, offered on a two-year cycle (two courses each year). Honors students take the four core courses during their first two years at Concordia, so that each incoming class of Honors students takes courses together with the class adjacent to theirs. Each course integrates selected arts and sciences with the gospel and embracing a distinctly global perspective. Each course will be administered by the faculty of the University Honors Program and will be taught by a team of faculty representing the major academic disciplines of the university

The Theoretical Year

HON110 -- Perspectives, Approaches, and the Gospel (8 credits)

HON120 -- Hearing Their Voices: Globalism, Justice and the Lives of the Marginalized (8 credits)

The Practical Year

HON210 -- Being Human and Christian in an Interconnected World (8 credits)

HON220 -- Scholarship and Service for the Sake of the Others (8 credits)

Capstone

During the senior year, students in the University Honors Program reconvene to put their knowledge and gifts into practice for the good of others.

HON410 -- Building for Eternity (2 credits)

Students who complete the University Honors Program have met their General Education requirements.

UNDERGRADUATE MAJORS

ACCOUNTING MAJOR: 40 CREDITS (BA ADULT)

Program Overview – The degree completion program in Accounting prepares students for accounting careers in business, government or non-profit organizations. The major builds upon a strong liberal arts and business core foundation and prepares students for professional certifications such as the Certified Public Accountant (CPA) and the Certified Management Accountant (CMA). This program has been designed for students who have completed an AS, AAS, or equivalent degree, in Accounting.

Prerequisites: 14 credits

ACC 201	Principles of Accounting I	4
ACC 202	Principles of Accounting II	4
ACC 311	Intermediate Accounting I	4
ECO 102	Microeconomics	2

Students holding an AS or AAS in Accounting who have NOT completed one or more of the mentioned courses will be advised accordingly.

ACCOUNTING MAJOR: 66 CREDITS (BBA TRADITIONAL)

Program Overview – The Bachelor of Business Administration degree is available with an Accounting major. Because the BBA requires more business courses than a Bachelor of Arts or Bachelor of Science degree, it is considered the degree of choice for students planning a career in accounting, better preparing students to excel in the business world. Accounting majors benefit from close contact with instructors who have extensive practical experience in the business world. The classroom structure stresses ethics and the practical application of accounting knowledge. The major will prepare students to take the Certified Public Accountant (CPA) examination.

APPLIED MATHEMATICS/DUAL-DEGREE IN ENGINEERING (BS TRADITIONAL): 54 CREDITS

Program Overview - Concordia University and the University of Minnesota are partners in the Dual Degree program, allowing you to earn both an Applied Math degree from Concordia and an Engineering degree from the University of Minnesota. Students in the program complete Concordia's general education curriculum along with significant coursework in math and science, leading to an Applied Mathematics degree from Concordia. After two to three years at Concordia with a minimum GPA in content coursework, students receive automatic acceptance into one of the 11 different engineering programs at the University of Minnesota, with the final two to three years of courses completed at the U of M campus. Students will work closely with both Concordia and Minnesota advisors to determine the best route to a timely completion of all requirements. Normal completion time for the dual degree program is five years.

ART AND DESIGN PROGRAMS IN GENERAL

The Concordia Department of Art and Design provides experiences, opportunities, coursework, and faculty that expand the role of visual art in a student's life. The department provides broad curricula in graphic design, studio art, art education, community arts, and more in order to prepare students for careers, or simply for enhanced appreciation of the field. Several highly qualified and active professors offer an advantageous student-to-faculty ratio. These teachers provide an educational environment that is both challenging and supportive. The impressive four-story Concordia Art Center gives students 24-hour access to a wide range of facilities and tools to aid their learning. Concordia has large studios for painting, sculpture, printmaking, and ceramics. There is a dazzling Mac lab for design, and the department teaches both digital and traditional photography. The equipment matches the studios. For example printmakers can do screen, intaglio, lithography and relief; while clay artists can fire in electric, gas, raku, and wood kilns, among others.

Student artwork is showcased in campus galleries throughout the year, with seniors having solo exhibitions. The department is very career-oriented, which is emphasized with portfolio development and internship opportunities. Students also may actively participate in Concordia's Art Club. The Department also offers study-abroad trips to Mexico and Europe. With the richness of their experiences Concordia's art and design students are very successful with either career placements or pursuing further education.

ART EDUCATION/TEACHING (GRADES K-12) MAJOR: 85 TO 89 CREDITS (BA TRADITIONAL)

Program Overview – An Art Education major at Concordia University prepares a student to teach K-12 art in and out of Minnesota. Students gain sophisticated knowledge of the field and the effective teaching skills needed to pass along that knowledge to their future students. Successful students have futures in any school setting, or they may attend graduate school for advanced degree work.

Course Information – Concordia offers studio coursework in drawing, painting, photography, printmaking, sculpture, ceramics, and graphic design in large well-equipped studios. Educational coursework and experiences will prepare students for all aspects of the complex teaching world.

ART STUDIO MAJOR: 56 CREDITS (BA TRADITIONAL)

Program Overview – Studio Art combines the best of a small private university with the vibrant art community of the Twin Cities area. Students are prepared to excel through working hard in the context of close mentorships with faculty. Students network with art professionals and come to know contemporary trends in art. Successful students have futures in a variety of art-centered careers, or in graduate school.

Studio Art majors produce an exhibition and portfolio of their best work, informed by their knowledge of contemporary art as well as by western and non-western art history. They are verbally and visually fluent in their chosen medium.

BIOLOGY MAJOR: 39 CREDITS (BA TRADITIONAL)

Program Overview – Biology majors develop a strong foundation in biology by exploring cell biology, genetics, chemistry, molecular biology, ecology, evolutionary theory, scientific methodology, research techniques and more. The coursework encourages students to sharpen their analytical, problem-solving, scientific reasoning, critical thinking, communication, and laboratory skills. Students have the opportunity to work in Concordia University's research laboratory to get hands-on experience early in their coursework and to develop mentoring relationships with fulltime faculty who are experienced in cutting-edge research. Experience in the human cadaver laboratory is an important part of the program.

BUSINESS MAJOR: 40 CREDITS (BA ADULT; ONLINE ONLY)

Program Overview – A major in business is applicable to virtually any industry and will provide the knowledge and skills for students to start their own business. It also provides a broad exposure to all the elements that make an organization function well. The BA program in business provides a general overview of business and is comprised of 10, four-credit courses. Students are encouraged to also complete a minor in a supplementary field. This major is designed to prepare students with the knowledge and skills needed to work effectively in a business organization or as an entrepreneur.

BUSINESS MANAGEMENT MAJOR: 44 CREDITS (BA TRADITIONAL)

Program Overview – Students will develop business skills in leadership, team-building, and project management. They will explore core business principles in marketing, finance, management, law, economics and accounting with an emphasis on international perspectives and ethics. Students investigate various dimensions of business decisions by delving into case studies and working with area businesses to develop solutions to situations they may later face in the business world.

CHEMISTRY MAJOR: 40 CREDITS (BA TRADITIONAL)

Program Overview – Chemistry coursework at Concordia University gives students a framework of knowledge that allow them to learn and incorporate new facts and concepts as the field evolves. Chemistry students benefit from a low faculty-to-student ratio that allows direct personal attention from faculty who focus primarily on teaching. Students often combine majors and minors in Chemistry, Biology and/or Mathematics to gain breadth and additional depth of knowledge.

CHRISTIAN MINISTRY MAJOR: 42 CREDITS
(DCE CERTIFICATION = 86 CREDITS; DCO CERTIFICATION = 78 CREDITS)

Program Overview – The primary objective of the Christian Ministry major is to equip students for exemplary service in Christian ministry settings in the areas of education and/or outreach. It presupposes the minor in Lutheran Theology, which represents the theological core of the program and is taken by most church work students. The following objectives, growing out of and informed by the Christian Gospel, help to determine the plan of study for the Major in Christian Ministry:

For Certification in the LCMS as a Director of Christian Education (DCE), add 12 credits of internship and 8 credits of additional coursework (see below). For Certification in the LCMS as a Director of Christian Outreach (DCO), add 12 credits of internship. Both DCE and DCO certifications also require completion of the Lutheran Theology minor.

CHURCH MUSIC MAJOR: 48 TO 52 CREDITS (BA TRADITIONAL)

Program Overview – While the Church Music major enjoys all of the features of the Music program in general, the Church Music major has the following more specific features:

- there are organ, choral, piano, guitar, instrumental, composition, and generalist tracks, thus equipping students to lead both traditional liturgies and contemporary worship formats.
- each track shares the core musicianship (music theory/analysis/writing/ear-training/keyboard harmony) and music history courses. Private lessons and ensembles applicable to each track are also part of the core.
- each track has specialized courses, culminating in a senior project/recital in the track.
- the program culminates in a two-credit internship in a church (done while the student is attending school) in a metro area church.
- students may add Director of Parish Music Certification by completing the Lutheran Theology minor, completing a portfolio, and passing the entrance and exit interviews. This leads to rostered church worker status as a Commissioned Minister in The Lutheran Church–Missouri Synod.

With several tracks available, the Director of Parish Music certification at Concordia allows students to pursue music ministry in the area that best suits their interests and talents.

Prerequisites
The successful church music major will enter the program with music-reading ability and previous music performance experience and study. The level of each student's abilities and experience will be initially assessed through a music placement survey, auditions for ensembles and placement evaluations by private lesson instructors. Based on this assessment, the student may be required to take one or more of the following courses:
MUS 101	Basic Musicianship	2
MUS 111	Class Piano I	2
MUS 112	Class Piano II	2

COMMUNICATION STUDIES MAJOR: 44 CREDITS (BA TRADITIONAL)

Program Overview – Lifelong skills such as speaking, working in groups, working with new media, organization, critical thinking, and writing, are the foundation of the Communication Studies program. The classroom as well as an on the job internship experience prepares students for thoughtful and informed entry into countless career choices.

The Communication Studies major is based on research data, indicating that employers are interested in potential employees who have oral communication, listening, writing, interpersonal communication, interviewing and small group communication skills, as well as some career training and orientation. For these reasons, Concordia University has developed six career tracks in the communication program.

ENGLISH MAJORS (BA TRADITIONAL)

Program Overview for English Majors in General – Students in the English and Modern Languages major will gain broad-based knowledge of literature from all periods and from around the world. They will learn to write clearly and persuasively, think independently, create original ideas, present alternative viewpoints and solve problems, all of which are skills highly valued by employers.

Students develop these skills by working closely with knowledgeable faculty members who are dedicated to relationship-based education through discussion, debate, course presentations, one-on-one consultations with professors, and supervised writing projects.

Students have many opportunities to apply the skills learned in the classroom to practical hands-on situations, such as writing for The Sword (the student newspaper), tutoring students in the Writing Center, student teaching, or gaining internship experience at local businesses.

Concordia's metropolitan location provides students with an abundance of opportunities, some of which include attending readings by well-known authors, enjoying plays at numerous local theatres, joining literary discussions and writing groups at The Loft Literary Center, and touring the offices of potential employers.

Students interested in English may choose one of two majors: Education or Liberal Arts. Education majors may go on to teach elementary, middle, or high school.

Liberal Arts English majors choose one of four emphases: Creative Writing, Literature, Journalism, or Professional Writing. Liberal Arts majors may go on to work in journalism, publishing, public relations, copywriting, technical writing, marketing, government, and various other industries. Many English majors go on to graduate school, law school, and other professional programs.

GRAPHIC DESIGN MAJOR: 48 CREDITS (BA TRADITIONAL)

Program Overview – Creative professions like graphic design provide satisfying and rewarding careers for talented and strategic-minded visual artists and communicators. The Concordia graphic design major offers a unique emphasis on the art and craft of typography and applied graphic design practice. Interwoven throughout this program are communication and interactive studies and the practices of new and emerging digital media.

Whether engaging traditional or new media, the design principles one acquires through training and practice remain the same. Early sequential courses are structured to stress advanced craft, theory, process, and technical skills to ensure refined success in later project work. Advanced courses and the senior project capstone experience can be customized to reflect the individual interests one may have in such areas as institutional branding and identity, new media, web development and interactivity, package design, publication design, advertising, illustration, signage and exhibition design, sustainability, spirituality, or social change.

Graphic design majors are taught by an experienced faculty of active professionals with close ties to the vibrant Twin Cities creative community. As noted above, there is 24-hour access to a state-of-the-art Macintosh computer lab with the latest Adobe software and large format digital printing, plus direct exposure to some of the most recognized graphic designers and design firms in the country.

HISTORY MAJOR: 44 CREDITS (BA TRADITIONAL)

Program Overview – The study of History at Concordia University is not only about the past – it is also about the present and the future. A student in this program will learn to think critically about change over time and how contemporary society has been shaped by all those who came before. The program stresses both global and community education. The program offers students the global knowledge they will need to compete in the 21st century. At the same time, students can experience and witness local history first-hand. The History major will allow students to develop skills in both research and content knowledge. The program offers courses that focus on the entire globe. Students get a mix of political, social, economic, and diplomatic history. The major requires a senior research project, where students do an original research paper, as well as a senior readings course. The remaining classes are electives, with the stipulation that at least one of those courses has a global focus. History majors are also required to do an internship, which helps them prepare for their careers and the job market.

MUSIC MAJORS (BA TRADITIONAL)

Music Major Program Overview in General – The Music major has three tracks: Performance, Theory/Composition, and History/Literature. Each track shares the core musicianship (music theory/analysis/writing/ear-training/keyboard harmony) and music history courses. Private lessons and ensembles applicable to each track are also part of the core. Each track has specialized courses, culminating in a senior project/recital in the track.

Students in the Music major at Concordia expand their creativity, as well as their analytical, research, and writing skills, while studying music performance, programming, analysis, composition, history, literature, education, and the music of worship. The music program is led by accomplished and caring faculty who give one-on-one attention to students in a nurturing community where competition is downplayed.

Classroom work and hundreds of performance opportunities each year help students hone their skills and abilities. There are performance opportunities at monthly recitals, at campus concerts, in studio classes, at daily chapel services, at local church services, on international and U.S. tours, and for many community functions. Students may audition for Concordia's many vocal groups, including the Christus Chorus, Jubilate, Chamber Choir, Opera Workshop, Shades of Harmony Multicultural Gospel Choir, and Vocal Jazz Ensemble.

Students may also participate in instrumental groups. These include the Concert Band, Jazz Band, Percussion Ensemble, Guitar Ensemble, String Ensemble, Drumline, Brass Ensemble, Handbell Ensemble, Woodwind Ensemble, Beginning Handbells, Jazz Combo, Musical Theatre Pit Orchestra, Christmas Concert Orchestra, and Chapel Band.

MUSIC MAJOR: 44 CREDITS (BA TRADITIONAL)

Program Overview – Students in the Music major expand their creativity, analytical, research and writing skills while studying music performance, programming, analysis, composition, history, literature, education and worship music. GRADUATE PROGRAMS – ACADEMIC INFORMATION

DEFINITION OF ACADEMIC TERMS

Certificate is a package of courses available for credit but not typically fulfilling graduation requirements.

A credit means a semester hour credit. It represents one class meeting of fifty minutes or a laboratory double period of one hundred minutes each week for one semester of the academic year.

Doctoral Degree: May be earned in:
1. Physical Therapy (DPT) – 111 credits
2. Education (ED.D) – at least 60 credits

An endorsement is a focused group of courses within a graduate program that leads to a state licensure.

An emphasis is a focused group of courses within a graduate program that may or may not lead to a certification or a licensure.

Full-time graduate students are students who have been formally accepted into a graduate degree program and enrolled in a minimum of 6 credits in a semester. Half-time Graduate Students are students who have been formally accepted into a graduate degree program and are enrolled in three to five credits in a semester. Visiting students* are those students who have registered for graduate courses but have not been admitted to a program.

A Master's degree consists of at least 30 semester credits. All programs include a survey of the academic field, ethics, diversity, research, and a capstone course.

There are three 14/15-week semesters offered at Concordia University. Graduate students typically take two seven-week courses in each semester.

Specialization: at least 30 credits beyond the Master's degree. May be earned in:
1. Education – Principal Licensure/Superintendent Licensure (ED.S)

A transcript of credits is a certified record of all grades earned and all courses attempted at a given school, college, or university.

The Principles of Graduate Study

- Graduate coursework is more creative.
- Graduate coursework is more self-directed.
- Graduate coursework is more rigorous.
- Graduate coursework is more attentive to epistemological issues.
- Graduate coursework is more attentive to research.
- Graduate coursework is more a community of learners, rather than merely a teacher-student relationship.
- Graduate students give careful consideration to research, information, and bibliographic references.
- Graduate learning is not just remembering information, it is constructing knowledge.

Graduate professors are actively engaged in research and learning.

ACADEMIC POLICIES AND PROCEDURES – GRADUATE

FULLTIME STATUS

Graduate students are considered full-time students when they have been admitted to the university and are registered for a minimum of 6 credits per semester.

TIME LIMITS FOR COMPLETION

- Master's degree programs at Concordia University must be completed within five years of the first date of the beginning of the first course.
- Ed.S. degree programs must be completed within six years of beginning of the first course.

- Ed.D. degree programs must be completed within seven years of the beginning of the first course.
- DPT degree programs must be completed within four years of the beginning of the first course.

REPEATING COURSES

Students may repeat a course. If students repeat a course, both courses remain on the student's transcript but only the higher/highest grade is used in computing a student's cumulative grade point average (CGPA).

AUDITING COURSES

Students who satisfy the requirements for admission may register to audit a course without receiving academic credit for the course. Registration procedures are the same as for credit-bearing courses. Auditing students need not meet regular course requirements but should confer with the instructor as to their privileges and responsibilities in the course. Upon completion of the course, an entry is made on the student's permanent record along with other classes. Students may find it helpful to audit a course to review materials for a more advanced course or to enrich an interest area. Auditors are excluded from laboratory and studio participation. Graduate students may change regular registration to an audit before the end of the fourth week of the semester. Registration may be canceled for non-attendance.

INDEPENDENT STUDY

Independent study is an educational experience conducted for credit outside the regularly scheduled classroom offerings. It may be an existing course or an approved student/faculty designed course. Either experience must be conducted under the supervision of an instructor who is responsible for the academic soundness of the proposal. Each credit awarded must represent approximately 35 clock hours of work.

Credit for independent studies may be used to fulfill any curriculum requirement. Students are responsible for completing an application form that specifies course goals/objectives and projected outcomes, learning strategies and evaluation procedures. The proposal must be approved by the advisor, instructor, department chair, and the dean of the college. An independent study application form may be submitted during regular registration times but no later than the end of the second week of a class. Forms are available in the academic advising office, on the university website, and in the Registrar's Office.

DROP OF REGISTRATION AND WITHDRAWAL FROM COURSES

Students may drop their registration from a course without record during the first (1st) week of the course. Students may withdraw from courses any time after the first (1st) week of the course through the fifth (5th) week and receive a "W" grade.

WITHDRAWAL PROCEDURES

1. Students are able to drop courses online through the drop dates posted on the academic calendar.
2. After the drop period is over, students must submit a signed Registration Restriction Form with instructor and advisor signatures.
3. Effective dates for withdrawals will be determined by the date when the properly completed Registration Restriction Form is received in the Registrar's Office.
4. Withdrawal from coursework may have financial implications. Students will receive 100% tuition refunds only for courses from which they withdrew prior to the 6th business day of the term. See financial policies for further information.

WITHDRAWAL FROM THE UNIVERSITY

Students who desire to discontinue from the university, take a leave of absence, or change their cohort must contact their academic advisor. It is the student's responsibility to fulfill all necessary obligations by contacting the following: financial aid office, student accounts, library/information services/help desk, security, and offices issuing special equipment, such as laptops, instruments, keys, and athletic equipment. Students who officially withdraw from school will receive refunds and grades according to the standard schedule. Students who discontinue without notice will be liable for any financial obligations.

Students who are asked to leave Concordia University as a result of administrative dismissal or academic disqualification, may appeal. In this case, students should contact their academic advisor.

GRADING SYSTEM

A	Superior	4 grade points
B	Good	3 grade points
C	Fair	2 grade points
D	Poor	1 grade points
F	Failure	0 grade points
I	In progress	0 grade points
W	Withdrawal	0 grade points
P	Pass	Not included in grade point calculations
N	No pass	Not included in grade point calculations

Professors are instructed not to award grades with plus or minus signs, in keeping with the scale above. Even if a plus or minus sign is reported to the student or the Registrar, it is not calculated in the student's grade point average.

REQUESTING AN "IN PROGRESS" GRADE

An In-Progress grade may be given to students who have missed part of their assigned work due to circumstances which are beyond their control and who are otherwise doing satisfactory work. Note that any in-progress grade could affect the students' probationary and disqualification status (See Satisfactory Progress Policy). Process:

1. Prior to the end of the term the student files a form with the professor requesting an "I" grade and indicating a planned completion date.
2. Students and instructors develop an agreement including the guidelines for completion of the necessary coursework. The grade of "I" will be changed to the grade of "F" by the registrar unless an instructor assigns a passing grade or requests an extension beyond the normal time limit.
3. Permission may be granted by the instructor to extend the time of an "I" grade to a maximum of one year when extenuating circumstances warrant. Any further extension must be approved by the instructor and the Vice President for Academic Affairs and filed with the Registrar.
4. The maximum number of In-Progress grades students may carry at one time is two.

SATISFACTORY ACADEMIC PROGRESS POLICY

- A. To remain in good standing, a degree graduate student must maintain a 3.0 cumulative grade-point average and complete a minimum cumulative of 67% of all attempted graduate level coursework. Incompletes (I) and withdrawals (W) do not count toward completion.
- B. When a student does not maintain satisfactory progress, the university will impose certain restrictions that will affect the student's eligibility for enrollment.
 1. Academic Probation: Academic probation is a formal warning that students did not achieve satisfactory progress. Students will be notified of their probation status in writing by the registrar.
 2. Disqualification: Disqualification occurs when students do not meet satisfactory academic progress requirements for two consecutive terms. Students will be notified of their disqualification in writing by the registrar. Students are ineligible to register for subsequent terms. Students may appeal to be readmitted by completing the Disqualification Appeal Form.

DISQUALIFICATION APPEAL PROCESS

A Disqualification Appeal Form must be submitted to the graduate academic appeals committee. The graduate academic appeals committee will decide approval or denial of students who are appealing their academic disqualification. Appeals must be submitted to the academic appeals committee at least two weeks before the start of the term for which the student desires readmission. The appeal must state what undue hardship caused the student's inability to meet satisfactory progress standards. The hardships could include illness, injury, or death of an immediate relative. Only special extenuating circumstances will be considered. Students must also explain how they propose to remedy their situation. If the appeal is successful, the student is readmitted on probationary status. Appeals are approved for one term only.

FINANCIAL HOLD

Students who are not current in their financial obligations to Concordia University, are placed on financial hold. While on financial hold, students:

- are NOT allowed to attend any classes
- have their course management system disabled (i.e., Blackboard)
- are subject to late fees on any and all unpaid balances
- have financial aid for the next terms canceled (since they are not current students)
- are de-registered so all student loans move into repayment status
- are unable to receive grades, transcripts, or diplomas
- who receive veterans benefits have those benefits discontinued.

In these situations, students do not receive grades for courses attended while on financial hold even if coursework is completed.

RESEARCH WITH HUMAN SUBJECTS

All research projects employing human subjects must be reviewed by the Human Subjects Review Committee. No research project should be implemented without the approval of the Human Subjects Review Committee. Students and faculty who are planning to conduct research are directed to use and follow the procedures in the Faculty Handbook Section 8, Appendix D: Concordia University Saint Paul, Minnesota Protocols and Procedures for Research Involving Human Subjects Application and Information Packet and Appendix E: Protocol Form Research Involving Human Subjects.

Student researchers must read the Belmont Report and sign off on the Human Subjects Application.

GRADUATION REQUIREMENTS – GRADUATE PROGRAMS

A graduate degree from Concordia University carries the following general requirements. Students will:

- a. Successfully complete all required courses in the degree program with a cumulative grade point average in the courses of a 3.0 or higher.
- b. Complete petitions for any and all substitutions made in the program.
- c. Complete all assessment activities and outcomes examinations required by the program or for the degree.
- d. Be approved as a candidate for a degree by the faculty, upon the recommendation of the Registrar.

Students who complete all course requirements within 30 calendar days following the end of a regular academic term at Concordia University are listed as graduates of that term.

TRANSFER CREDIT

Up to 6 semester credits may be accepted for transfer from an accredited graduate school for the graduate programs. The credits must be appropriate to the student's program and the course outcomes (objectives) need to match a course in the student's program. Application for transfer of credit is made by the student to the Advisor. The credits must be certified by the Registrar and approved for the degree program by the program director.

Up to 9 semester credits may be accepted for transfer from an accredited graduate school for the Ed.S.

Up to 12 semester credits may be accepted for transfer from an accredited graduate school for the Ed.D.

Normally no credits will be accepted for transfer into the DPT program.

Only courses with a grade of B or better will be accepted for transfer credit and normally credits older than five years will not be accepted. The chair of the graduate program or designee will make the determination whether a student is required to audit a course in place of taking the course for a grade.

GOOD STANDING

To remain in good standing, a graduate student must maintain a 3.0 grade-point average for all courses in the graduate program. Students not in good standing must return to good standing during the next semester or be dropped from the program.

ATTENDANCE POLICIES

Absence from more than two weeks of any course shall be grounds for requiring the repeat of the course.

PROGRAM REQUIREMENTS

A master's degree at Concordia University shall require a minimum of 30 semester credits with a grade-point average of 3.00 or better.

A Doctor of Physical Therapy degree shall require a minimum of 111 semester credits beyond a bachelor's degree with a grade point average of 3.0 or better.

An Educational Specialist degree at Concordia University shall require a minimum of 30 semester credits beyond a master's degree with a grade point average of 3.0 or better.

An Educational Doctorate degree at Concordia University, St. Paul, shall require a minimum of 60 semester credits beyond a master's degree with a grade point average of 3.0 or better.

Graduate students must pass their capstone at 80% or higher.

APPEAL OF POLICY AND PROCEDURE

Graduate students may appeal decisions made by program faculty or administrators regarding disqualification, re-admission, grade change, or academic integrity regarding entry into a program, continuation in a program, or questions that may arise as a result of a candidate's academic performance in a program.

Both non-academic and academic appeals begin with the student submitting the appropriate forms. Non-academic appeals begin with the involved instructor or administrator. Academic appeals begin with the Graduate Academic Appeals Committee.

Steps for non-academic performance appeals include:

1. The student should first consult directly with the instructor, or administrator involved.
2. If this does not satisfactorily resolve the conflict, appeals may also be made to the following in the sequence listed as the need or circumstances would dictate: program director, the dean of the college, the dean of the Graduate School, vice president for academic affairs, and the president of the University.
3. Any appeal shall be initiated within 30 calendar days after the contested judgment was made. All appeals must be processed within 60 calendar days after the initial appeal was filed.
4. The president reviews each case and decides if the appeal is valid, the decision is announced to the student in writing, is final and not subject to further appeal.

UNIVERSITY AND PROGRAM REQUIREMENTS

Students must complete all requirements as specified by the program with a minimum of a 3.0 cumulative grade point average in the courses transcribed at Concordia University. In order to be granted a degree, all grades for courses must be filed and recorded with the Registrar and students must also make full payment of all tuition and fees. Candidates who complete all course requirements within 30 calendar days following the end of a regular academic term at Concordia University are listed as graduates of that term.

COMMENCEMENT

Students will be invited to participate in the annual commencement ceremony in May providing all coursework will be completed by the last day of August. Students who are unable to participate in the May ceremony may graduate in absentia.

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY FOR GRADUATE STUDENTS

DEFINITION OF TERMS

1. Academic integrity is essential to any academic institution and is in keeping with the mission of Concordia University. In order to protect the rights of students, the disciplinary procedure for dealing with cases of academic dishonesty follows these broad guidelines. Violations of academic integrity include "cheating" and "plagiarism" as defined by the university's Student Code of Conduct (SCC).
2. The term "cheating" includes, but is not limited to: (1) use of any unauthorized assistance in taking quizzes, tests, or examinations; (2) dependence upon the aid of sources beyond those authorized by the instructor in writing papers, preparing reports, solving problems, or carrying out other assignments; or (3) the acquisition, without permission, of tests or other academic material belonging to a member of the university faculty or staff (4) academic deception (e.g. fabricating data, misrepresenting sources, misleading presentations, lying) in written or oral form.

3. The term "plagiarism" includes, but is not limited to, the use, by paraphrase or direct quotation, of the published or unpublished work of another person without full and clear acknowledgement. It also includes the unacknowledged use of materials prepared by another person or agency engaged in the selling of term papers or other academic materials.

IMPLEMENTATION OF ACADEMIC INTEGRITY POLICIES

1. The instructor will gather and document all evidence of academic dishonesty in a clear and concise manner. The instructor will complete a Graduate Student Academic Report.
2. The instructor will present this evidence to the student. The instructor will notify the student in writing that this has been done and will provide instruction for the appeal process.
3. The instructor may prescribe academic penalties, including but not restricted to, the requirement of additional work, an assignment of a failing grade on the work in question, or a failing grade for the entire course. Any prescribed penalties must be in writing and include instructions for the appeal process. These should be documented through the Graduate Student Academic Report.
4. The instructor will send documented academic dishonesty violations and prescribed penalties to the Department Chair. The Department Chair or Program Director will receive a copy of the Graduate Student Academic Report from the Associate Vice President (AVP) for Graduate Studies. The department chair will forward documentation to the Dean of their college. The AVP for Graduate Studies will file the Graduate Student Academic Report to the academic advisor's student file and the Registrar's file (banner).
5. If this is a repeated occurrence, the Department Chair, Dean of the College and the AVP for Graduate Studies may impose additional penalties, including but not limited to dismissal from the departmental program, suspension from the university, or expulsion from the university.
6. A student has the right to appeal the academic penalties imposed by the instructor by filing an appeal with the AVP for Graduate Studies within 5 university business days of the documented imposition of penalties. A response regarding the appeal is normally received within 15 university business days.

DOCTORATE IN EDUCATION (EdD)

The EdD is designed to address three salient areas and concentration in leadership. The first area of concentration will address a core understanding of leadership issues pertaining to exemplary leadership models, ethics, policy making, and special topics. A second area focuses on scholarship for understanding, and producing and evaluating research applicable to improving organizations. The third area provides comprehensive coursework, integrated with Doctorate Field Experience/Research, field experiences, and designed with flexibility to allow students to focus on areas of specialization of their choosing within leadership. In addition, one of the most significant underpinnings of Concordia's doctorate is to prepare leaders to lead in culturally diverse environments.

DOCTOR OF PHYSICAL THERAPY (111 credits)

The Doctorate in Physical Therapy is a 111-semester credit program. The program's mission is to prepare students for autonomous practice across the lifespan. Students in the program and graduates from the program will apply and contribute to evidence-based practice while epitomizing the art of physical therapy. Graduates will embody lifelong learning and will be leaders in education, scholarship, and Christian service within their communities.

COURSE DESCRIPTIONS

ACC 201 Prin of Acct (Financial)	4
This class introduces the student to the role of accounting in the business world. The principles and concepts of financial accounting and analysis of accounting statements are covered. Accounting cycles, procedures and balanced sheet classifications are emphasized.
ACC 202 Prin of Acct (Managerial)	4
"This course is continuation of ACC201 with an emphasis on liabilities, corporate equity measure measurement and earnings per share calculations. The course examines the evaluation of financial goals with an introduction to managerial accounting topics including cost/volume/profit analysis, responsibility accounting, allocation methodologies, budgets and cash flow. (Prerequisite: ACC201)
ACC 311 Intermediate Accounting I	4
"This course is an expansion of topics covered briefly in Principles of Accounting. The course develops the student's ability to analyze complex financial accounting reporting problems and discusses financial accounting measurements, revenue and expense recognition, inventory cost and valuation, long-lived assets, costing valuation and amortization. The student is also introduced to selected topics in international accounting. (Prerequisite: ACC202)
ACC 312 Intermediate Accounting II	4
"This course is a continuation of ACC311 with emphasis on liabilities, corporate equity measurement and earnings per share. The course also explores the areas of evaluation of financial goals, performance review and special topics in financial reporting, such as: accounting for income taxes, leases, pensions and cash flow. (Prerequisite: ACC311)
ACC 411 Advanced Accounting	4
This course covers the advanced study of accounting principles including: accounting for combined corporate entities, consolidated statement preparation and analysis, branch accounting, partnership accounting, accounting for international transactions, governmental accounting, non-profit accounting and accounting for bankruptcies, estates and trusts. (Prerequisite: ACC 312).
ACC 412 Auditing	4
"This course defines the ethical and legal responsibilities of the auditor and covers the topics of the preparation of the audit program and working papers for the audit of the financial statements in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards (GAAS). (Prerequisite: ACC311)
ACC 413 Cost Accounting	4
"This course develops and uses accounting data for managerial decision-making. Cost concepts for planning and control, cost/volume/profit relationships, responsibility accounting and inventory planning and control emphasized. (Prerequisite: ACC202)
ACC 440 Forensic Accounting	4
Overview of the nature of accounting fraud and how it is committed including an introduction to the actions that can be taken to determine the presence of fraud and procedures that can be implemented to deter fraud.
ARC 101 Intro to Archaeology	2
"This course surveys the history and methods of the discipline of archaeology. It examines the relationships between historical records and material remains, and it provides hands-on experience with material remains.
ARC 250 Near Eastern Archaeology	4
The course surveys the archaeology of the Levant from prehistoric times into the Islamic periods. It explores sites, monuments, and artistic remains as expressions of each society's institutions, beliefs, and self understanding. This course also introduces the main issues in the practice of Near Eastern archaeology.
ARC 351 Field Archaeology	4
"Through work at a field site, students gain experience in the excavation, recording, collection, conservation, and interpretation of material remains.
ART 101 Approaching Art	2
"This course lays the foundation for approaching visual art by introducing fundamental aspects of the nature of art and art making. The course will investigate four areas which are key to appreciating art. These four units will include the importance perceptual skills, the nature of the creative process, the place of art in its cultural context, and the role and processes of abstraction. The course will involve looking at art, reading, writing and speaking about art using acquired vocabulary and knowledge.
ART 102 2D Design	3
"This course introduces the foundation design elements and principles for two-dimensional design. Compositional problems are introduced and solved in a studio setting. In addition basic two-dimensional media are introduced and explored during the different units of the course of study.
ART 103 3D Design	3
"This course introduces the foundation design elements and principles for three-dimensional design. Compositional problems are introduced and solved in a studio setting. In addition basic three-dimensional media are introduced and explored during the different units of the course of study.
ART 104 Introduction to Art History	3
A captivating exploration of the history of art in the West and throughout the world, this course encourages students to develop an appreciation for a diverse range of works of art. Students will explore the creation of art, see it as critical thinking, and problem solving that has relevance to their lives. Students will also see art as a rich array of materials and aesthetic elements combined with the inner workings of the human spirit, passion, emotion, and creativity.
ART 105 Color Theory	3
Traditional and contemporary approaches to color theory will be taught. These ideas will be beneficial for most studio areas and of particular importance to careers in design.
ART 111 Drawing I	3
"This introductory studio course is designed to familiarize beginning students with fundamental techniques and concepts of drawing. In that basic skill building is the core of this course it is a very approachable class for non-art majors. Although some history of drawing will be presented learning will be assessed primarily through portfolio production and review. (Prerequisite: ART101 or consent of instructor)
ART 211 Illustration	3
"This course introduces the technical and conceptual skills for successful illustration. It is an important foundation for all design and applied arts fields.
ART 221 Painting I	3
This course is designed to introduce students with fundamental concepts in oil and/or acrylic painting. Historical and contemporary approaches to painting will be addressed. Non-art majors can also succeed in this course.
ART 241 Photography I	3
"This course is designed to familiarize beginning students with the fundamental techniques and concepts of photographic practices and processes. The use and operation of the 35mm film camera, experimental and traditional black and white darkroom techniques and new digital technologies will be taught through demonstration and assigned projects. Photographic history and criticism will also be introduced. Portfolio production will be the main form of assessment in this introductory course.
ART 251 Sculpture I	3
"This introductory studio course is designed to familiarize beginning students with the fundamental techniques and concepts of contemporary sculpture. Both additive and reductive sculpture will be explored as students are introduced to both traditional and non-traditional sculpture media. Students will also investigate the relationship of drawing to the sculptural process. Although some 19th and 20th C. sculpture history will be presented, learning will be assessed primarily through portfolio production and review. (Prerequisites: ART101, ART103 or consent of instructor)
ART 261 Ceramics I	3
"This introductory studio course is designed to familiarize beginning students with the fundamental techniques and concepts of contemporary ceramic art. Students will see and also investigate sculptural and vessel forms in clay, along with the relationship of drawing to the creative process. Although significant clay art history and technology will be taught, learning will be assessed primarily through portfolio production and review.
ART 271 Survey of Western Art I	3
This course is designed to introduce students to fundamental concepts in art history as well as important masterworks from the western art tradition. Prehistoric work through the 14th C. will be addressed. Non-art majors can enjoy this course. (Prerequisite: ART101)

ART 272 Survey of Western Art II	3
This course is designed to introduce students to fundamental concepts in art history as well as important masterworks from the western art tradition. 15th C. work through the present will be addressed. Non-art majors can enjoy this course.
ART 282 Graphic Design I	3
This course lays the foundations of the discipline of graphic design. The course helps students apply concepts of design and color theory into applied arts areas. (Prerequisite: ART102 or ART202)
ART 284 Graphic Imagery	4
This hands-on introduction to graphic design encompasses the fundamentals of design theory, process and practice. Emphasis is placed on the development of creative problem solving skills and processes primarily through the creation of structured iconography and letterforms. Students also explore visual communications-related professions and practices.
ART 300 Community Arts	4
"This course is designed to introduce students to the variety of forms community arts programs have taken and are taking across the country. Facets of community arts programs such as legal aspects, funding issues, cooperation and collaboration, as well as aesthetic issues will be explored. Many fine and performing arts genre will be addressed and specific programs will be referenced and researched. Guest presenters from the Twin Cities will play a large part in this course.
ART 311 Figure Drawing	3
"This course is designed to familiarize beginning students with anatomy and the figure as a subject matter vital in an artist's vocabulary. Students will build on drawing and composition skills to create designs with a variety of drawing media. Although the history of figurative art will be explored, learning will be assessed primarily through portfolio production and review. (Prerequisites: ART102, ART111 or consent of instructor)
ART 321 Painting II	3
This is an intermediate level course designed to stimulate and further develop an interest in painting methods and techniques for personal expression. Students are encouraged to create and solve specific problems in painting. Learning will be assessed primarily through portfolio production and review and also class participation. (Prerequisite: ART221 or consent of instructor)
ART 331 Relief Printmaking	3
This introductory course is designed to familiarize students with the fundamental techniques and concepts of relief and intaglio printmaking. Students will build on drawing and composition skills to create editions of prints. Techniques covered will include woodcut, linocut, collagraph, and monoprints. Although some history of printmaking will be presented learning will be assessed primarily through portfolio production and review.
ART 332 Screen Printmaking	3
This course is designed to familiarize beginning students with the fundamental techniques and concepts of silkscreen printmaking. Students will build on drawing and composition skills to create editions of silkscreen prints. Techniques covered will include cut, painted and photographic stencils. Although some history of printmaking will be presented, learning will be assessed primarily through portfolio production and review. (Prerequisite: ART111)
ART 333 Intaglio Printmaking	3
"This course is designed to familiarize beginning students with the fundamental techniques and concepts of intaglio printmaking. Students will build on drawing, composition, and other art skills to create editions of intaglio prints. Techniques covered will include etching, dry point, aquatint, collagraph, monoprinting and photo-polymer plates. Although some history of printmaking will be presented, learning will be assessed primarily through portfolio production and review.
ART 341 Photography II	3
This course expands students' knowledge of the use of the 35 mm camera and black and white darkroom processing and printing. Students learn to control film exposure and development in order to make consistently good prints. Photographic theory is introduced. Students will fully explore their ideas through shooting a lot of film. Learning will be assessed primarily through portfolio development and review, as well as class participation. (Prerequisite: ART 241 or consent of instructor.)
ART 342 Digital Photography	2
This course will investigate the unique approaches to digital photography as an art form. This field will be compared and contrasted with black and white photography and also explored as its own unique area of artistic investigation.
		Emphasis will be given to seeing and thinking like an artist.
ART 351 Sculpture II	3
"This is an intermediate level course designed to stimulate and further develop interest in sculptural methods and techniques for personal expression. Media exploration and contemporary aesthetic issues such as environmental sculpture or installation are introduced, as students are encouraged to create and solve problems in sculpture in specific areas of the discipline. Learning will be assessed primarily through portfolio development and review. (Prerequisite: ART251 or consent of instructor)
ART 361 Ceramics II	3
This intermediate course is designed to advance students' knowledge of the techniques and concepts of contemporary ceramic art. Students will investigate both sculptural and vessel forms in clay with special emphasis given to exploration of a wide variety of surface treatments. Students will develop substantial knowledge of glaze technologies. Learning will be assessed primarily through portfolio production and review, along with class participation. (Prerequisite: ART261 or consent of instructor)
ART 370 Mexican Art and Culture	4
This course introduces the student to Mexican art and culture through study and experience in Mexico The social, political and historic context of Mexican culture is emphasized. Required pre-trip and post-trip involvement and observation and discussion carry most of the course content. Students must also complete a project following up on the experiential learning.
ART 374 Art Of Mexico	4
This course is intended to provide a survey of the history of Mexican art. It is arranged in three parts starting with pre-conquest indigenous cultures, which will be the majority of the course emphasis. It will also include the Colonial Period and Revolutionary Art. Special emphasis is placed on relating the art to the cultural contexts from which it came. Influences such as religion and political histories are investigated in their relationship to the art. (Prerequisite: ART101 or consent of instructor)
ART 376 Ethnographic Art	4
This course is intended to provide a survey of non-western, world art. It is arranged in multiple units, which will sample ethnographic art from across the world. Cultures from West Africa, the Near East and the Far East, indigenous cultures from the Americas and Oceanic cultures will be surveyed. Special emphasis is placed on relating the art to the cultural contexts from which it came. Influences such as religion and political histories are investigated in their relationship to the art. (Prerequisite: ART101 or consent of instructor)
ART 382 Graphic Design II	3
This course develops sophisticated applications in the discipline of graphic design. The course helps students develop their professional portfolio for applied arts areas. (Prerequisite: ART282)
ART 383 Web Design I	3
The Web Design course is structured to teach the visual, communication and marketing aspects of a good website. It is a project based course where students will create websites and web content using Adobe Creative Suite software (Dreamweaver, Photoshop, Flash) and other web-related tools. Course material will be tailored to the experience level of students enrolled in the course.
ART 384 Typography 1	4
An introductory graphic design study of written communication through the craft and art of letterforms and application of typographic principles. It serves as an introduction to typography as an element in the design process. The course is taught as a skill and an art form. It explores the dynamics of type in context. From the traditions of book design to the frontier of digital and interactive typography, students explore type as a design and communication tool, investigating these contexts through the lens of historical innovation.
ART 387 Art in Secondary Education	2
This course guides prospective junior and senior high school art teachers in understanding the spirit of art teaching and equips them with knowledge and skills necessary for successful teaching. Students will be involved in practical problems of school art both in the classroom and outside the classroom. The course deals with aesthetics, critical program evaluation, research, history and skill building and idea awareness in Discipline Based Art Education. (Prerequisite: acceptance in education program or consent of instructor)

ART 411 Advanced Drawing	4	This course is designed to establish personal style in a variety of drawing media. Traditional subjects like the still life and the figure will be investigated along with creative and divergent situations used for expression. Significant emphasis will be placed on developing skills in formal and iconographic criticism. Learning will be assessed primarily through portfolio development and review. (Prerequisite: ART311 or consent of instructor)	ART 482 Graphic Design III	4	This advanced course further develops applications in the discipline of graphic design. Students will work on a series of projects and develop a professional portfolio. (Prerequisite: ART384)
ART 421 Advanced Painting	4	"This course is designed to encourage the individual stylistic development of advanced painting students. Students may explore new painting media and/or figurative painting while applying previously learned techniques in creating complete artistic expressions/compositions. Students will be encouraged to work in series. Learning will be assessed primarily through portfolio development and review. (Prerequisite: ART321 or consent of instructor)	ART 483 Web Design II	3	This course explores the more advanced visual, communication and marketing aspects of professional websites. It is a project based course where students will create websites and web content using Adobe Creative Suite software (Dreamweaver, Photoshop, Flash) and other web-related tools. course material will be tailored to the experience level of students enrolled in the course.
ART 431 Mixed Media Graphics	3	"This course is designed to familiarize intermediate students with alternative and advanced graphics techniques, in particular photographic and digital applications for printmaking, as well as digital prints and non-silver photography. Contemporary issues and themes in graphics will be discussed. Learning will be assessed primarily through portfolio production and review. (Prerequisites: ART102, ART111, and one of the following: ART141, 202, 231, 232, 233, or permission)	ART 484 Typography 2	4	The culmination of all previously taught typographic competencies, this course focuses on developing type skills applicable to the work a designer is assigned at recognized design and advertising firms. Advanced project work addresses functional as well as expressive typography. The class requires students to develop concepts, present and explain their ideas, and bring their solutions to life.
ART 435 Advanced Printmaking	4	This course is designed to encourage the individual stylistic development of advanced printmaking students. Students may explore new printmaking media while applying previously learned techniques in creating more developed projects. Learning will be assessed primarily through portfolio development and review. This course may be repeated for credit.	ART 485 Graphic Des Senior Projects 1	4	The advanced culmination of all previously taught graphic design skills and proficiencies. Project work centers on complex applications incorporating a wide spectrum of creative solutions to both practical and experimental design problems. Portfolio development and artistic professionalism is stressed.
ART 441 Advanced Photography	4	"This course is designed to establish personal style in photography. Traditional treatment of the medium will be investigated along with creative and divergent photographic expressions. Computer applications in photography will be introduced and explored. Significant emphasis will be placed on developing skills in formal and iconographic criticism. Learning will be assessed primarily through portfolio development and review. (Prerequisite: ART 241 or consent of instructor)	ART 486 Graphic Des Senior Projects 2	4	This rigorous studio course is designed to facilitate challenging, individual directions in design and critical thinking. Students map out a plan of study for the semester and work on a series of related ideas that culminate in a cohesive body of work. Students are expected to refine their understanding of contemporary issues and historical approaches related to their specific concept or process, and bring an advanced competency to the technical and formal concerns that inform their work. Through frequently scheduled critiques, and a developed designer statement, an emphasis will be placed on developing a process of self-evaluation to clarify visual choices and express and defend individual artistic points of view. Over the course of the semester students will investigate exhibition design and prepare for the exhibition and presentation of their work.
ART 451 Advanced Sculpture	4	This course is designed to develop personal style in sculpture. Contemporary issues in sculptural media and theory will be addressed. Learning will be assessed primarily through portfolio production and review.	ART 487 Art Education Capstone	2	This course aims to enable future art teachers to relate the general concepts of art education to specific teaching theories. Past and contemporary theories of art education are studied. In addition, historical approaches to art education are presented, as are a variety of artists' philosophies on the nature of art. (Prerequisite: ED447 or consent of instructor)
ART 461 Advanced Ceramics	4	"This course provides an in depth study of the techniques and concepts of clay as an art medium. Students build on previous ceramics experience to work in series as a way of developing sophistication in their clay work. Advanced glaze technology, firing options and construction techniques constitute the course content. Learning will be assessed primarily through portfolio development and review. (Prerequisite: ART361 or consent of instructor)	ART 491 Theories in Contemporary Art	3	This seminar style course discusses theories and ideas that underpin the current art world. The approaches of many current artists and critics are examined. (Prerequisite: ART272)
ART 472 19th & 20th Cntry Art & Dsgn	4	"This course examines the revolutionary developments in painting, sculptural and architectural traditions from the 19th C. as well as the Modernist traditions of the first half of the 20th C. and the initial Post-Modern trends that follow. The course links these artistic developments with world-wide cultural influences. In addition, special attention is given to the history of design. (Prerequisite: ART272)	ART 499 Art Senior Seminar	2	"This course serves as the capstone experience in the Art Department. The course will vary somewhat based on the student's degree sought. It will normally be the production of a solo exhibition, or of a professional design portfolio, or a Community Arts experience. The work produced and presented must be the student's current work. Individual directions will be developed with the professor and student's advisor. (Prereq Senior standing or Instructor consent)
ART 473 IS: History of Photography	3	"This course introduces students to 19th, 20th and 21st century photographic technologies, practitioners and images. Emphasis is on Western photographic practices and the impact that the invention of photography has had on our understanding of the world around us from science, history, culture, aesthetics, politics, current events, and every-day life.	BIO 100 Biology Today	3	"This course challenges students to confront, evaluate, and integrate the major discoveries and principles of the biological sciences within their worldview as members of contemporary society. Major themes of the course include the role of genes and inheritance in human growth and development; health and behavior; human origin and relationship to the Earth's biodiversity; and human impact on, role within, and responsibility for the integrity of the biosphere. Lectures, readings, discussions, films, and laboratory activities comprise the course. (Prerequisites: none. Students planning further study in biology or other natural sciences should complete BIO120 and BIO130.)
ART 481 Topics in Art:	4	"This teacher directed course will center on advanced and narrowly defined studio or art historical investigations to be announced. The course focus may introduce unfamiliar or unusual media, or subjects, or provide very advanced level knowledge of a familiar discipline. (Prerequisites: ART101 and consent of instructor)	BIO 102 Biology in a Box	4	This augmented course challenges students to confront, evaluate, and integrate the major discoveries and principles of the biological sciences within their worldview as members of contemporary society. The course incorporates hands-on experiments and activities to aid in learning core concepts in biology. All required materials can be purchased as a single lab kit that comes straight to your home - in a box! Learn about biology from the tiniest cellular viewpoint all the way
ART 481 Topics in Art:Appl Comm Arts	4	"This teacher directed course will center on advanced and narrowly defined studio or art historical investigations to be announced. The course focus may introduce unfamiliar or unusual media, or subjects, or provide very advanced level knowledge of a familiar discipline. (Prerequisites: ART101 and consent of instructor) up to the larger scale, whole world ecological viewpoint.

BIO 120 Biology I: The Unity of Life 4
"Emphasizing inquiry and investigation, this course introduces students to the discoveries, both historical and contemporary, that support the unifying theories of modern biological science. Topics considered include the nature and methods of modern biological science; the basis of life in terms of matter, energy, cells, genetics, and reproduction; and the impact of evolution on the unity of life. The course is comprised of lectures, readings, discussions, written assignments, films, and an inquiry-based laboratory component. (Recommended prerequisites: one year of high school biology and chemistry and four years of high school mathematics)

BIO 130 Biology II: Diversity of Life 4
"Current and competing hypotheses explaining the origin, development, and maintenance of the Earth's biodiversity are critically evaluated. Employing a phylogenetic approach and emphasizing the Eukaryote, the major lineages of life are surveyed and compared by considering evolutionary trends and the relationships between structure and function within and among lineages. Abiotic and biotic factors, including human activity, influencing populations, communities, ecosystems and the biosphere are explored. The course is comprised of lectures, readings, discussions, written assignments, films, and an inquiry-based laboratory component. (Prerequisite: BIO120; Recommended prerequisites: one year of high school biology and chemistry and four years of high school mathematics)

BIO 210 Genetics 4
This course is a study of the principles of heredity based upon concepts and principles of the gene. Major topics include Mendelian genetics, sex determination and sex linkage, gene mapping, structure and function of DNA, translation, transcription, recombinant DNA technology, chromosome mutations and aberrations, transposons, extra nuclear genomes and quantitative genetics. Problem solving will be emphasized. Three lecture/discussion sections and one three hour laboratory period per week. (Prerequisite: BIO120)

BIO 220 Plant Biology 4
This course is a study of botany based primarily upon morphological and physiological concepts and principles. Major topics include the plant cell; the ontogeny, structure and physiology of plant tissues and organs; and the forms, phylogeny and life cycles of representative plant groups. Three lecture/demonstration sessions and one two-hour laboratory period per week.

BIO 230 Animal Biology and Physiology 4
"This course provides a comparative study of major animal groups within a taxonomic, morphological and physiological framework. Major topics include animal cells, animal tissues, organ systems, animal phylogeny, life cycles and development. Three lecture sessions and one three hour laboratory period per week. (Prerequisites: BIO120)

BIO 300 Microbiology 4
This course explores the nature and diversity of microorganisms by considering their structural, functional, ecological and taxonomic relationships. Major topics include microbial structure and growth, metabolism, environmental and ecological interactions, viruses, genetics and representative prokaryotic groups. Three lectures and one three-hour laboratory period per week. (Prerequisite: BIO120)

BIO 315 Human Anatomy and Physiology I 4
"This course is part one of a study of the structure and function of the human body. Major topics include the introduction to the human body, cells, tissues and skeletal, muscle, nervous and cardiovascular systems. Three lectures and one three hour lab period per week. (Prerequisite: BIO120)

BIO 316 Human Anatomy & Physiology II 4
This course is part two of a study of the structure and function of the human body. Major topics include the autonomic nerves and special senses and endocrine, respiratory, digestive, immune, metabolism, reproductive and urinary systems. Three lectures and one three hour lab period per week. (Prerequisite: BIO120 or instructor consent)

BIO 330 Cell Biology 4
"This course is a study of the structure and function of eukaryotic cells from a molecular viewpoint. Major topics include molecular cell structure, energy requirements of the cell, membranes and compartments of the cell, nucleus and information of the cell and specialized cellular organelle functions. Three lectures and one three-hour laboratory period per week. (Prerequisite: BIO120)

BIO 340 Science Issues and Ethics 4
"This course includes a short introduction to the study of philosophy and ethics, followed by critical analyses of current issues in health and environmental sciences. Ethical discussions are framed in a solid understanding of the science behind each topic. The course will include a variety of formats, including reading and reviewing papers and/or texts, analyzing case studies, and participating in class discussions. (Prerequisite: BIO120 and CHE115).

BIO 350 Medical Terminology 2
This course will help students learn the components of medical terms. Students will learn the basic elements of words, such as roots, prefixes, suffixes, combining vowels, and combining forms in order to understand, the word's meaning. Students will be able to apply the meaning of the word to an anatomical structure, physiological function or pathology, the course will be mainly online but with several scheduled face-to-face meetings for discussion and examination.

BIO 415 Biology of Aging 3
This 3 credit course will focus on theories of human aging from a biological perspective. The structural and functional changes that occur during the aging process will be investigated at several levels: molecular, cellular, tissue, and organ system. The symptoms and clinical management of age-related diseases will also be explored. This course is targeted for students interested in the health sciences and is required for the gerontology minor/certification. Prerequisite: BIO120 (preferred) OR BIO100

This course provides a comprehensive study of the immune system. Major topics include passive immunity, cell-mediated immunity, humoral immunity, autoimmune diseases, vaccination strategies and other medically relevant topics. (Prerequisite: BIO330)

BIO 440 Human Gross Anatomy 4
"This course is a comprehensive study of human anatomy which includes dissection of a human cadaver. Skeletal, muscular, nervous, digestive, cardiovascular, respiratory, and urogenital systems will be covered, and emphasis will be placed on the relatedness of structure and function.

BIO 450 Special Topics in Biology 1
"The topic for this course will vary each semester, chosen from a wide range of current research in biology. Students will read background material, participate in discussions and complete writing assignments as directed by the instructor. This course will meet for one lecture/discussion hour per week. (Prerequisite: BIO120)

BIO 456 Research in Biology 4
"This course offers students an opportunity to do original research in an area of expertise of one of the biology faculty members. When applicable, the research will be followed with presentation of a poster or a paper at a research symposium. (Prerequisite: BIO120)"

BIO 497 Biology Teaching Assistant 1
Students enrolled in this course will work with a faculty member to gain teaching experience in biology courses. Activities may include: designing laboratory exercises; working with students in laboratory, classroom and tutoring environment; preparing and delivering lectures; developing course materials; and grading.

BIO 498 Biology Internship 16
"This internship is designed to provide students with a work/educational experience which will help them determine their future educational and occupational goals.

BUS 210 Adult Lrng Theory for Trainers 4
This course introduces the unique perspectives of the adult learner. Participants will gain knowledge in self-directedness, learning styles, learner's motivations, and how new learning can trigger transformational experiences. Participants will also explore adult development as it relates to learning.

BUS 280 Topics in Leadership 3
To achieve a true understanding of leadership, it is necessary to look back at how the various theories of leadership and management have developed, changed, and coincided with the needs of the workplace at the time they were popular. This course explores the development of leadership theory as a means of understanding the current concepts. Application of various theories are also examined.

B

US 281 Leadership Process	3	BUS 430 Business Law and Ethics	4
Leadership is often incorrectly interpreted as a position within an organization. This course provides a tremendous source of theoretical concepts and examples to improve leadership behaviors.		This course examines the legal aspects of business, the ethics of business, and the connection between the two.
BUS 282 Leadership Ethics	3	BUS 440 Business Analytics II	4
Is it possible to lead without ethics? Is there a lesson to be learned from the Enrons and World Coms we have heard so much about? This course focuses on leadership ethics – what, how, and why. Learn about and test your own ethical values – apply your ethics to current cases from the business world. Learn the impact of ethical leaderships on others, and the cost of unethical leadership. Learn to let your ethics be your rudder in life.		"In this course students will be introduced to the growing field of Business Intelligence and Data Analytics. Topics include data mining, text mining, business intelligence architecture, data reporting systems and data visualization tools.
BUS 283 Supervisory Leadership Tools	3	BUS 445 International Management	4
Every leader can benefit from improved supervisory skills. This course focuses on some of the basic skills necessary to be an effective manager or supervisor. Effective communication will be applied to the topics of facilitating teams, delegation, and how to coach employees at different performance levels. Students will apply these concepts to personal and organizational situations.		This course focuses on the practice of managing business operations in more than one country. Topics include the language, culture, economic and political environment, and business practices of countries in which multinational firms actively trade and invest.
BUS 285 Emotional Intelligence in Leadership	2	BUS 450 Business Analytics II	4
Why are those with the highest IQs not necessarily the most successful in their personal and business lives? The latest research into factors that distinguish successful individuals tends to show that – or Emotional Intelligence is the more significant factor. This applies both to personal success and to bottom-line company performance of companies whose leaders have high –. This is something we recognize intuitively – the people we like to work with are those who both understand and effectively manage their emotions and are able to discern the emotions of others in order to develop the most rewarding relationships.		In this course students will learn to use various tools to analyze data and make predictions. These tools include probability analysis, hypothesis testing, regression analysis, linear programming and tools for financial analysis.
BUS 287 Intro to Personal Coaching	3	BUS 490 Business Strategies	4
This course explores personal life coaching while discussing the distinctions between coaching, mentoring, and counseling. An introduction to coaching concepts and skills is discussed while exploring the many coaching niches. Students apply coaching concepts to personal and organizational situations. BUS 310 Organizational Behavior	4	BUS 492 Business Capstone	4
Organizations are complex entities and understanding them is important for students in business programs. This course investigates the impact of individuals, groups, the structures, and the environments of organizations.		This course is the culminating experience in business and business-related undergraduate programs and is designed to guide students through a process of synthesis.
BUS 340 Business Analytics I	4	CHD 310 Growth/Development Child	4
In this course students will apply tools and concepts from mathematics and statistics to learn a portfolio of tools used in business. Mathematical and statistical concepts include descriptive statistics, mathematical modeling, ratios and percentages, probability and counting rules, probability and decision analysis, hypothesis testing, correlation, regression, chi-square, and analysis-of-variance.		This is a broad sketch of human growth and development from pre-natal stages to elementary age. Developmental processes are studied from a biological and developmental perspective. Personality development and the effects of temperament on learning are discussed.
BUS 345 Business Analytics	4	CHD 320 Role Early Childhood Educator	4
"In this course students will apply tools and concepts from mathematics and statistics to learn a portfolio of tools used in business. These tools include probability analysis and hypothesis testing. Students will be introduced to the growing field of Business Intelligence and Data Analytics. Topics include data mining, text mining, business intelligence architecture, data reporting systems and data visualization tools.		This foundational course discusses the roots of early childhood education and the purposes of early childhood in today's society. The historical and present role of adults within the field of early childhood will be examined. Learners will explore NAEYC's code of ethics and its implications for the profession.
BUS 350 Innovative Marketing	4	CHD 330 Best Practices in EC	4
This course provides an introduction to the study of marketing, e-commerce, and social media in business and other organizations.		This class provides the theoretical framework and best practices for working in early childhood settings. Learners examine how individualized curriculum and environment can be integrated through developmentally appropriate practices in order to promote the cognitive and social development of children.
BUS 360 Accounting and Budgeting	4	CHD 400 Intro to ECE	3
This course explains the financial implications of business management and includes both the principles of accounting and the principles of finance.		"This seminar helps students grasp the breadth, depth, and foundations of early childhood education.
BUS 410 Operations, Techn & Qual Mgmt	4	CHD 402 Writing for Educators	3
This course will discuss the theoretical foundations for production management. The course will focus on the management of resources such as the production process, the management of equipment and machinery, facilities and maintenance, materials management, inventory control, quality control, scheduling, and purchasing. The course will also introduce students to theories and tools for quality management and the management of technology and information systems.		Early childhood staff of all levels (directors, teachers, assistants, aides, family child care, etc.) must demonstrate professionalism as strong communicators not only verbally, but as writers, as well. This course will lay the ground work of writing expectations in the program, and serve to remediate as needed.
BUS 420 Corporate Finance	4	CHD 410 Growth/Development Child	3
This course explores the basics of financial management. Topics include the capital markets, the cash budget, pro forma statements, analysis of financial statements, and the time value of money. Students also complete a research project.		"This is a broad sketch of human growth and development from pre-natal stages to elementary age. Developmental processes are studied from a biological and developmental perspective. Personality development and the effects of temperament on learning are discussed.
		CHD 411 Child Social & Emotional Growth	3
		This course studies the social, psychological and emotional growth of children from prenatal to elementary ages. Issues of attachment, perspective-taking and friendship are discussed.
		CHD 422 Human Diversity & Relations	3
		"The purpose of this course is to expand our understanding of the influences of gender, culture, economic situation, learning styles, and language on the socialization of children, and then how to use this new understanding to form the way we program for and interact with children.

CHD 430	Infants and Toddlers	3	"In this course, students will study the emerging skills and developmental characteristics of infants and toddlers. Course topics include environments that foster development, appropriate practices, and promoting the development of autonomy.	of molecular structure is introduced. (Prerequisite: CHE116)
CHD 435	DAP in ECE	3	"This is a historical, present, and future perspective of developmentally appropriate practices. Appropriate classroom practices and current topics are discussed.	CHE 222 Organic Chemistry II 4 This course is a continuation of Organic Chemistry I. Topics covered include additional functional group chemistry, reaction mechanisms, heterocyclic compounds, proteins, lipids and synthetic macromolecules. Three lectures and one three-hour laboratory period per week. (Prerequisite: CHE221)
CHD 440	Children's Play and Learning	3	"Theories of Piaget, Parton, Erickson, and Vygotsky are studied to determine how children learn to play and the effect that play has on the child's development. Historical perspectives and effects of play on learning are reviewed.	CHE 326 Analytical Chemistry I 4 Introduction to the wet and instrumental techniques of analytical chemistry. Emphasis on Gravimetric and Volumetric Analysis, Statistical Evaluation of Data and Quality Assurance. Three lectures (150 minutes) and one four-hour laboratory period per week. (Prerequisite: CHE116)
CHD 445	Language Development/Literacy	3	"The research and stages of language development from birth through age seven are extensively explored. Students will understand how to guide children through the language acquisition process.	CHE 328 Biochemistry 4 "Molecular determinants of structure and function of biomolecules. Biological processes at the molecular level. Enzyme catalysis, bioenergetics, and metabolism. Three lectures (150 minutes) and one laboratory period (180 minutes) per week. (Prerequisite: CHE221)
CHD 450	Children's Literature	3	"Using children's books to develop literature-based curriculum is the emphasis of this course. There is a review of authors of children's literature and an exploration of books for a variety of purposes.	CHE 330 Dietary Biochemistry 4 Examination of the digestion and utilization of macromolecules from a biochemical viewpoint. Metabolic pathway activation/regulation via diet. Factors influencing macromolecule content of common foodstuffs. (Prerequisite: CHE328)
CHD 451	Dual Language Learners	3	This course will address the needs of the early childhood classroom professional. The course will move beyond the basics of child development to help educators understand the natural progression of second-language acquisition in young children.	CHE 341 Physical Chemistry 4 This course is an introduction to fundamental topics in physical chemistry, including quantum theory, electronic structure, computational chemistry, thermodynamics, and chemical kinetics. (Prerequisite: CHE116)
CHD 461	Ethics in Early Childhood	3	Classical and historical ethics are explored, as well as the student's personal values system. Individuals face tough ethical decisions with increasing frequency in our society and a framework for addressing those questions is needed. Each student will develop a system for making ethical decisions in their personal and professional life.	CHM 268 Intro. to Christian Ministry 2 Through an exploration of scriptural, theological, historical and social foundations of Christian ministry, students work to develop a personal philosophy of ministry. In addition, students study and utilize essential leadership skills for effective Christian ministry practice and service. As a major project throughout the course, students develop a professional Christian ministry portfolio.
CHD 482	Young Child with Special Needs	3	"This course is designed to introduce the student to the information and techniques needed to develop curricula and instruction to meet the unique needs of individual children in early childhood settings. Special emphasis is given to the theories, research, and practical application from the fields of both early childhood education and special education.	CHM 321 Found for Teaching & Learning 4 Students explore the scriptural, theological and historical role of Christian education within the church. This exploration will equip students to teach the faith across the lifespan through an intentional implementation of Christian educational programs and experiences.
CHD 490	Portfolio and Synthesis	3	"This final course is designed to help learners reflect on all they have done in the BA program. Through guest speakers, research study, and reflection on practice, students will synthesize all they have learned. Preparation of a professional portfolio will cap the learning experience.	CHM 325 Strategic Ministry 4 Christian ministry in diverse and fluid cultures calls for strategic and intentional leadership. Students explore and apply current strategic planning theories, methods and tools to help Christian ministry organizations fulfill their missions within ever-changing communities and cultural contexts. Through case study analysis and projects, students apply organizational change theory to congregations and ministry organizations.
CHE 115	General Chemistry I	4	"Systematic introduction to the conceptual and symbolic aspects of chemistry. Critical and quantitative thought as applied to the topics of measurement, formula and equation writing, stoichiometry, atomic structure and periodicity, bonding and molecular geometry, gases, phases and phase changes. Brief introduction to Organic Chemistry. Three lectures and one two-hour laboratory period per week. (Prerequisites: High School chemistry and one year of algebra or consent of instructor)	CHM 330 Cultural Context & Faith Devlp 4 Students study the practice of Christian ministry within different cultural contexts and across the lifespan, paying particular attention to applying principles of biblical interpretation and a Lutheran understanding of Law and Gospel to the design and implementation of ministry experiences. Through applied projects, students develop a commitment to a reflective practice that respects diverse voices and beliefs.
CHE 116	General Chemistry II	4	"Continuation of General Chemistry I. Solutions and Colligative Properties, Equilibrium, Thermodynamics, Qualitative Analysis, Kinetics, Reduction, Oxidation, Nuclear Chemistry. Three lectures and one two-hour laboratory period per week. (Prerequisite: CHE115)	CHM 421 Teaching to Lead and Equip 4 Effective ministry requires teams of transformational leaders. Educators and other leaders in the church serve and lead in ways that equip and empower others to serve within their local congregations, communities and beyond. Reflective practice helps leaders shape educational experiences that equip learners to serve and volunteer within diverse and rich cultural settings. Through applied projects and research, students design volunteer ministry programs and leadership training experiences. There is a fieldwork component to this course.
CHE 141	Household Chemistry	3	"A general education course emphasizing applications of chemistry to daily living. Topics range from baking to medications, from cleaning to cosmetics and from secrets under the sink to close encounters with clothing. Hands-on lab activities supplement the topics. (Prerequisites: A high school chemistry course and access to a kitchen and basic utensils)	CHM 425 Youth and Family Ministry 4 Youth and family ministry is a partnership within congregation, home and community. Grounded in baptismal theology, this ministry is a tending of the faith journey throughout the lifespan. Students develop skills to lead a relational and Christ-centered ministry for and with youth in a congregation. There is a fieldwork component to this course.
CHE 221	Organic Chemistry I	4	This course is an introductory study of organic compounds using a functional group approach and stressing basic principles. Topics covered include the covalence of carbon, isomerism, stereoisomerism and the structure, properties, nomenclature and reactions of the common functional groups. The determination	CHM 450 Great Commission Congregations 4 Students explore a strategic, team-based approach to congregational outreach and discipleship. By means of classroom and field experiences a multi-phase model is explored, developed and applied to a chosen contextual setting. There is a fieldwork component to this course.

CHM 455 Urban Outreach	4
Students develop an understanding and appreciation for the distinct outreach opportunities available in 21st century urban centers. Through classroom experience and interaction with cooperative agencies, a theological perspective is developed that moves students to connect entrepreneurial practices and evangelistic ministry. There is a fieldwork component to this course.
CHM 490 Theory to Action: Capstone	2
Students reflect on and formalize their understanding of Christian ministry in the context of their personal identity in Christ, the broader ministry of the Gospel, and their vision of future ministry and personal growth. Students prepare and present a capstone Christian Ministry project.
CHM 498 Commissioned Ministry Intern I	6
The internship provides DCE and DCO students a full-time supervised involvement in the educational or outreach ministries of a cooperating congregation or cross-cultural organization. Emphasis is placed on active leadership in a variety of professional tasks. Students register for CHM498 in the fall and CHM499 in the spring to complete the 12-month internship.
CHM 499 Commiss. Ministry Internship II	6
The internship provides DCE and DCO students a full-time supervised involvement in the educational or outreach ministries of a cooperating congregation or cross-cultural organization. Emphasis is placed on active leadership in a variety of professional tasks. Students register for CHM498 in the fall and CHM499 in the spring to complete the 12-month internship.
CI 560 Curric & Instr in Literacy	3
An examination of the history of the school curriculum, the fundamentals of curriculum design, and methods of implementation for literacy.
CI 561 Foundations of Literacy	3
A survey of the historical and theoretical development of literacy education and expectations for becoming an effective literacy teacher.
CI 562 Literacy Strat for Grades K-6	3
An investigation of literature and effective literacy strategies for the elementary classroom.
CI 563 Literacy Strat Grades 7-12	3
A review of adolescent literature and effective literacy strategies for learners in grades 7-12.
CI 564 Assess, Eval & Supervision	3
Administration and analysis of individual and group assessments and strategies for supervising literacy programs and communicating student progress.
CJU 402 Returning Student Sem for CJ	4
This course will provide each student with an opportunity to reflect on their decision to return to college. Emphasis will be on preparations for their return to college and their development of a learning plan. Students will focus on time management, organizational skills, and practical writing for criminal justice practitioners. Extensive time will be devoted to writing fundamentals, such as mechanics, sentence structure, academic and professional prose and APA style.
CJU 422 Information Literacy in CJ	4
Information today grows exponentially. This course teaches students to identify information needs in their profession, know and access criminal justice data bases, discern legitimate information, manage the data, and present information in an articulate, professional manner. Students will effectively integrate sources in academic writings using APA style.
CJU 431 Inside the Criminal Mind	4
"This course explores theories and research of criminal behavior. Students will examine how past and present understanding of criminals has determined responses of society and the criminal justice system.
CJU 435 Philosophy of Values & Ethics	4
Students examine the issues of accountability in government and business regarding human rights and ethics through readings, discussion and debates. Exploring both ethical theory and personal values, students develop a system for making ethical decisions in their personal and professional lives. This course also explores the emotional and physical risks associated with their work and helps develop strategies that will nurture maintaining physical and emotional health.
CJU 437 Systems Thinking in Crim Just	4
"Given the dynamic complexity of organizations, it is vital that professionals have an understanding of how organizations and systems interact. This course provides the skills to diagnose interactions and engage in finding solutions to problems. ""Systems thinking"" serves as one of the threads of continuity running throughout this degree program.
CJU 451 Diversity in Criminal Justice	4
"While multiculturalism is a popular term in today's society, diversity issues play a particularly important role in criminal justice. This course provides an understanding of diversity from theoretical, organizational, and personal perspectives to impact the effectiveness of those employed in criminal justice and mitigate the risk of legal liability and public perception issues that negatively impact this profession.
CJU 452 Constitutional Law for CJ	4
"This course will develop the understanding and working knowledge of constitutional law that professionals in this field are expected to have. Students will review constitutional history and basic concepts to understand interpretations of the Constitution by the United States Supreme Court impacting criminal justice, and learn practical research strategies to find law.
CJU 453 Troubled Youth in CJ System	4
This course explores why and how governments have always treated children differently than adults. Theories of delinquency and the corresponding responses by society through the criminal justice system are addressed, as are current data, trends and programs. Students will also explore the challenges facing juvenile corrections in a society that continues to change in demographics, norms, and expectations of criminal justice.
CJU 455 Contemporary Issues in CJ	4
"Current criminal justice related events occurring nationally and locally will provide the scenarios for students to apply the knowledge acquired during this degree program in a thoughtful and scholarly manner. Students will draw upon their understanding of systems thinking, constitutional law, religion, modern trends, ethics, and individual and community behavior.
CJU 490 Criminal Justice Portfolio	4
This final course is designed to help learners reflect on all they have done during this degree program. Students will synthesize all they have learned. Preparation of a professional and educational portfolio or e-folio will cap the learning experience. Students will participate in group activities to provide closure to the program.
CJU 500 Admin of Criminal Justice	4
"This course is a scholarly consideration of the concepts, principles, and analytical tools for effectively administering criminal justice agencies. Students will examine the critical application of strategic management skills in operational environments that are ever-changing, under intensive scrutiny by the public and media, and limited by legal, financial, and political constraints.
CJU 502 Correctional Design	4
"The philosophies, roles, and designs of juvenile corrections continue to evolve. This course expands upon the basics of institutional and community corrections by exploring modern research and trends in modern corrections. Students will address leadership, legal, political, and financial issues impacting the effectiveness of corrections in a society with increasing demands and expectations of the criminal justice system.
CJU 505 Reflective Adult Learner & Ldr	4
The premise of this course is leaders must have an understanding of who they are and why they are here. Students will devote considerable time to self-examination and reflection to gain greater awareness and understanding of who they are, and how their life and professional experiences influence their paradigms and leadership qualities. There is an emphasis on attitude and emotional intelligence and how they influence leadership effectiveness and results.
CJU 520 Research Methods in CJ	4
This course will provide an understanding of the dynamics of problem-solving with special attention to research methodologies which result in finding creative and productive solutions.
CJU 543 Contemp Issues in CJ Ldrshp	4
This course examines stress from a leadership perspective by asking why and how employers should respond to mental health issues. Theory, research, and trends in employee assistance are discussed as students consider how employers can help prevent, mitigate, and respond to emotional issues impacting personnel on the job.

CJU 545 Legal and Legislative Issues	4
"Those in leadership positions find themselves with a greater duty to recognize and respond to legal issues. This course examines how law defines policy in areas impacting the business of criminal justice, including due process, civil rights, equal protection, employment law, civil liability, and criminal procedure. In addition to identifying emerging law, this class addresses the political science of public policy at jurisdictional levels, including the United States Supreme Court.
CJU 570 Applied Ethics in CJ Ldrshp	4
This course will review and analyze popular models of ethical decision making and problems criminal justice professionals face every day. Readings, case studies, and written assignments will provide opportunities to investigate current ethical issues facing criminal justice leaders and managers in organizational settings, as well as critically apply various ethical theories and decision-making frameworks. Discussions relative to Christian vocation, applied ethics, and value-centered leadership will be explored. Weekly written assignments will demonstrate the integration of a personal and vocation ethic.
CJU 584 Accessing CJ Resources	4
This course familiarizes students with online academic and professional criminal justice leadership periodical indexes. Students will employ secondary research techniques in a criminal justice topic area of their choice. Students will evaluate and ethically report the body of research and informational landscape related to the topic in APA style. Students will learn to integrate knowledge navigation into academic, professional, and personal application. Students will also reflect on program objectives and personal learning and identify a direct link between the new knowledge they have acquired and their career field. Students will also begin steps to set up their final project (E-folio) due at the end of the master's program.
CJU 596 Criminal Justice Capstone	4
"The Capstone course is the concluding event of the program. This course assists students in synthesizing previous coursework and research leading to greater self-reflection, application to their career field, and an assessment of their learning throughout the duration of the program. The student will present and discuss the final M.A. Capstone E-folio.
CLI 100 Fundmntls of Reading & Writing	4
This course will concentrate on providing foundational reading and writing skills needed to function successfully in U.S. university courses. This course is part of the Concordia University English Language Institute.
CLI 101 College Reading and Writing for English Language Learners	4
This course will concentrate on providing advanced reading and writing skills needed to function successfully in U.S. university courses. This course is part of the Concordia University English Language Institute.
CLI 102 Fndmntls of Oral Communication	4
This course will focus on the development of introductory communication through speaking and listening. This course is part of the Concordia University English Language Institute.
CLI 103 College Speaking and Listening for English Language Learners	4
This course will focus on the development of advanced communication through speaking and listening. This course is part of the Concordia University English Language Institute.
COM 103 Interpersonal Communication	4
Students examine their methods of interpersonal communication in various contexts including dyadic, small group, and mediated communication. Individual activities and group work include both oral and written components. Class discussions and small group activities provide opportunities to practice and refine interpersonal communication skills. Objective exams and quizzes focus on cognitive learning of the principles and concepts in the various communication contexts. (COM103 is one of the two choices for the communication general education requirement for all students. It is also a prerequisite for all communication majors.)
COM 109 Intro to Communication	3
"This course introduces the practices and principles of interpersonal communication. This course will require students to gain introductory knowledge of theory as well as apply course concepts through written assignments in addition to individual and group presentations. Emphasis is placed on the communication process. Issues to be addressed include: interpersonal relationships, sending and receiving messages, language, listening, and cultural
COM 205 Small Group Communication	4
Students study and practice communication in small discussion and task groups. Topics include leadership and facilitation of groups as well as group dynamics. Group activities include problem solving discussions and task completion. Course units include goal setting, cohesion and norms, power, leadership, decision-making and problem solving, conflict and facilitating task and interpersonal relations in face-to-face and virtual groups. (Prerequisite: COM103 or COM212)
COM 212 Public Speaking	4
Students prepare and deliver various types of public performances including speeches and oral interpretation. The evaluation and criticism of speeches is studied. Videotape helps students adjust to their performance style and improve presentation delivery. Course units include speech construction, presentation and delivery, audience and text analysis, informative, persuasive and special occasion speeches as well as visual aid construction. (COM212 is one of the two choices for the communication general education requirement for all students. It is also a prerequisite for all communication majors.)
COM 222 Mass Communication	4
Students study and learn to critically appraise various media by exploring the weaknesses and strengths of each. The content of the course includes history of the traditional mass media as well as an exploration of contemporary social media, advertising, public relations, media law and regulation, media ethics, and social responsibility. Video projects develop basic skills of digital image gathering, editing, and distribution. (Prerequisite: COM103 or COM212)
COM 309 Intercultural Communication	4
"Students explore the principles and processes of communication between cultures. Course topics include intercultural communication models, the impact of different cultural patterns on the communication process, the anthropological concept world view and its impact on intercultural communication, detection of communication problems in intercultural situations, gender and diversity issues in intercultural communication, and constructing valid strategies for communicating interculturally. (Prerequisite: COM103 or COM212)
COM 325 Social Media & Public Relation	4
"Students develop an understanding of the theory and strategic management of social media especially in the public relations context. By analyzing history, tactics and current trends, students learn how the public relations process and the goal of relationship building with various stakeholders is impacted by various social media applications. Students also become acquainted with social media tactics in various professional settings. (Required prerequisite: COM103 or COM212) (Suggested prerequisite: COM222)"
COM 403 Family Communication	4
Students examine communication patterns in functional families and interpersonal relationships. Reading and discussion are combined with experiential activities. Course units include diverse family systems, health communication, communicating with aging family members and those with disabilities, communication patterns, family roles, power, decision-making, conflict, stress and coping, ecology, and improving family communication. (Prerequisites: (COM103 or COM212) and COM205)
COM 441 Communication Research Methods	4
Basic quantitative and qualitative approaches and methods are applied to communication studies. The course includes question construction, survey research and design, experimental design, quantitative content analysis and comparisons, and qualitative analysis of participant observation, interviewing and focus group methodology. Critical studies and approaches in the field of communication will be discussed. This course is a prerequisite for COM442 because it implements the research proposal. (Prerequisites: COM103, COM212, COM205, and COM222)
COM 442 Communication Theory	4
Students study and apply theories to human communication including interpersonal and public communication, small groups, mediated communication, persuasion, gender studies, as well as work, friend, and marital relationships. Perspectives on and methods of critical inquiry and research are an integral part of the course content. Research projects are presented to the rest of the class as well as submitted to professional organizations for review. COM442 implements the research proposal developed in COM441. COM442 and COM443 are intended to be a year-long capstone sequence. (Prerequisites: COM103, COM205, COM212, COM222, COM309 and a minimum grade of C- in COM441)

COM 443 Persuasive Communication	3
Students study and apply persuasive communication theories to the study and analysis of communication events including speeches, posters, films, campaigns, television programs, advertising, social media and other forms of public communication. Students examine the ways in which beliefs, values, attitudes, and behavior are deliberately affected through various forms of human and electronic communication. The major project is an application of theory and research. Research projects may be submitted to professional organizations or an online journal for review. COM442 and COM443 are intended to be a year-long capstone sequence. (Prerequisites: COM103, COM205, COM212 AND COM222)
COM 443 Persuasive Communication	4
Students study and apply persuasive communication theories to the study and analysis of communication events including speeches, posters, films, campaigns, television programs, advertising, social media and other forms of public communication. Students examine the ways in which beliefs, values, attitudes, and behavior are deliberately affected through various forms of human and electronic communication. The major project is an application of theory and research. Research projects may be submitted to professional organizations or an online journal for review. COM442 and COM443 are intended to be a year-long capstone sequence. (Prerequisites: COM103, COM205, COM212 AND COM222)
COM 478 Organizational Communication	4
Students examine theories of communication systems, processes and assumptions in organization structures. Topics include roles, relationships and responsibilities of individuals within organizations as well as skills in and applications of organizational communication, including communication audits. Interviewing skills in the various demands of organizations will be examined and practiced. Values and ethical communication behaviors are explored through a variety of activities including case studies and self-assessments. Exploration of crisis communication strategies and their effectiveness in organizational image restoration are examined. (Prerequisites: COM103, COM212 and COM205)
COM 490 Senior Seminar	2
Students finalize their capstone research project in this culminating experience in the discipline. Students will be expected to prepare their research projects for dissemination to professional organizations for review, presentation, or publication. (Prerequisite: Minimum grade of C- in COM441 and COM442, Permission of instructor, Senior Standing)
COM 500 Strategic Communication Mgmt	3
This course provides an introduction to a broad range of strategic communication management topics, addressing the communication theories, dynamics, research, principles, and practices that are most prevalent in small groups, societies, and in all aspects of organizational life. The course takes time to build group relationships and creates a collaborative learning environment conducive for personal and professional growth that emphasizes problem solving and healthy decision-making throughout the program.
COM 510 Persuasive Communication	3
This course covers the principles and practices of persuasion, advocacy, and marketing. Learners explore theories of motivation, attitude, and behavior that guide how an ethical communicator strives to gain compliance; properly advocate for people, values, and ideals; and change attitudes and behavior. Students learn about how research informs marketing and persuasion tactics, and apply key concepts and conceptual frameworks in marketing such as how to segment, reach target audiences, and influence others in a socially responsible way. Students work with a communications plan that addresses a real issue that draws upon the things you have learned in this course. Students also have an opportunity to develop presentation skills through in-class presentations.
COM 520 Media Strategies	3
This course presents a structured approach to understanding and managing internal and external communications. Students explore media relations, the research and creation of strategic public relations media plans, audience analysis, media characteristics, media and marketing decisions, and how to manage various communication technology functions and budgets. Special attention is given to the role of emerging media formats.
COM 530 Interactive Media Mgmt	3
This course explores how emerging interactive communication technologies affect interpersonal and organizational communication. Students are introduced to different types of interactive media, while also researching and discussing issues related to cyberspace, virtual communities, collaborative teams, business on global networks, search engine optimization, search engine marketing, digital brand integration, Web analytics, blogs and podcasts, and wireless marketing.
COM 540 Communication Inquiry & Meas	3
This course introduces communication research strategies like a communications audit and the role of marketing research, but especially focuses on the Action Research Project (ARP) that each student will complete through the remainder of the program. Students will identify an organizational challenge (problem) that provides a learning content for applying research and change management techniques in two contextual change management cycles. The first three of the five chapters of the ARP are completed in draft form during the course (the remainder of the project is completed independently and presented in COM695). The course teacher continues to coach the student's independent work after the course is completed and is part of the final project presentation. The ARP becomes a lifelong tool for process improvement for a strategic communication manager.
COM 545 Interactive Project Management	3
This course increases student effectiveness in a variety of strategic communication management roles and functions by exploring resources and tools (software) that help manage major projects, analytic evaluations, information from a cross-platform interactive social media projects, or site-appropriate tools for monitoring metrics that project tracking systems for use in social media organizational applications.
COM 550 Comm Strat for Conflict Mgmt	3
This course provides an overview of the nature and functions of perspectives, viewpoints, and values on conflict, as well as the difficult elements and role of communication in human conflict. Students develop communication skills, such as listening and collaboration, which are necessary for managing conflict productively in interpersonal, organizational, and intercultural contexts. Professionals will gain an understanding of patterns, research strategies, and processes associated with conflict management styles with civility. This course addresses how language, perception, gender communication, generational differences, and context influence the conflict process.
COM 560 Intercultural Communication	3
This course provides an overview of the major concepts, research, theories, and models that explore intercultural communication, with an emphasis on using these ideas in applied contexts. Important topics include: worldviews, communication styles, skills development in intercultural arenas, societal influences on stereotyping, ethnocentrism and racism, cultural value orientations, nonverbal dimensions of communication, language interaction, gender communication, intra-cultural issues, stereotypes, intercultural transitions, and adaptation.
COM 570 Leadership Communication	3
This course emphasizes the way leadership depends on healthy communication skills that nurture a healthy organizational culture. Critical management techniques also rely on understanding those leadership skills that are essential to work with people in a dynamic interactive culture. Course elements include a focus on the research behind successful leadership and management strategies as part of human interaction, decision making, problem solving, mentoring, collaboration, team building, change management, facilitation, and core management skills.
COM 590 Crisis Communication Mgmt	3
This course addresses the basic types and elements of crises, and the importance of providing effective leadership and management in those times. Effective strategies include procedures for developing a crisis communication plan and identifying ways of reacting to crises when crises occur. Students develop tools for dealing with the media in less-than-optimal situations, learn how to develop plans for different critical audiences (both internal and external), and discover ways to utilize effective strategies for communicating the organizational message during a crisis.
COM 610 Corp Resp & Ethical Comm	3
This course explores foundations in personal values and mission statements, decision trees in ethical decision-making, and ethical theories and moral philosophies that relate ethics to organizational, mediated, mass media, and interpersonal communication contexts. The course examines the communication components and hindrances to good ethical decision-making. Students learn how to think critically, gain sensitivity in using appropriate language, express clear ethical reasoning in both written and verbal communication, and research the role of communication in the creation of an ethical corporate culture. Through case studies, readings, and other activities, students are exposed to ethical issues that arise in communication and are required to argue and analyze the ethical dilemmas they will encounter in the working world. Learners will gain skills in assessing ethical risk to organizations in the public sphere and develop insights into their personal philosophies.

The final course provides an opportunity for students to review and reflect upon the courses and experiences in the program. Additional activities add self-confidence in strategic communication management and leadership skills. Students present the completed Action Research Project they have worked on with the project coordinator, and polish their ARP report in an error-free and thorough submission. Students also continue reading and reflection on their course work and experiences as life skill builders. Students receive feedback from their Action Research Project coordinator and share learning with other students in the final presentation.

CSC 115 Intro to Computer Science 4
This course is designed to provide an overview of basic principles and practices used in the field of computer science. It covers common terminology, career paths in the computer science field, and common methodologies used in software development.

CSC 121 Basics of Technology in Business 2
“The purpose of this course is to respond to the technological demands of business today. Students will be equipped with the required knowledge and skills to fulfill basic business needs. A foundation in fundamental tools and emerging technologies will be explored through both practice and theory with a focus on how they can be leveraged for business advantage.

A solid base in business information systems will provide students the confidence to generate and manage information for thoughtful and informed decisions. Business efficiency and productivity topics will include emerging and contemporary technologies for data management, business intelligence, and professional communication.

CSC 135 Modern Web Design 4
This course covers the fundamentals of Web design, using current methods of development across platforms. It includes concepts related to user interface and accessibility. (Suggested prerequisite: CSC115)

CSC 175 Math for Computer Science 4
This course covers mathematical concepts that are widely used in the field of Computer Science, including discrete math, logic, and proofs. (Prerequisite: Two years of high school algebra, minimum of C- in MAT100 Intermediate Algebra, or Level 3 on the Math Placement Exam)

CSC 210 Microsoft Excel Core 4
Through Microsoft Excel, students will be led through an exploration of a powerful spreadsheet program. After a review of the basic commands and functionality, students will be challenged to manipulate specific data for informative reporting that is visually, accurately and dynamically representative of the learning objective. To accomplish this task advanced formulas, search strategies, and data analysis tools will be incorporated into learning projects including mastery of Pivot Tables and Pivot Charts. Further studies will include strategies for managing large data sets, linking and importing external data, mitigating security issues, and working toward automation. Upon completion of the course, students will have sufficient preparation if they wish to take the Microsoft Excel Expert Exam for the Microsoft Office Specialist Certificate.

CSC 225 Object-Oriented Programming 4
This course provides an introduction to concepts related to object-oriented programming, including pillars of OOP, data structures, and class design. It addresses tiered architectures and the use of UML class diagrams. (Suggested prerequisite:CSC175)

CSC 230 Database Design 4
Utilize a database tool to create a prototype for output that meets real-life business outcomes. Learn the fundamentals of database design including the relational model, SQL, and data warehousing. Practice working individually and in teams to learn the normalization process, minimizing opportunities for redundant, inaccurate data. Other topics include design implications for speeding data access (e.g. de-normalization), and the emergence of unstructured data systems.

CSC 235 Server-Side Development 4
This course provides an overview of concepts and skills used to maintain a server, including HTTP and database methods. It includes basic database design techniques, with an introduction to SQL and security considerations. (Prerequisite: CSC135)

CSC 245 Advanced Web Development 4
This course covers the use of advanced Web development tools, including JavaScript and core Web technologies. As a capstone for the Associate of Science in Computer Science, students will work in groups to create a Web application. (Prerequisite: CSC225 and CSC235)

CSC 301 Programming & Problem Solving 4
“This course emphasizes structured programming and problem solving techniques as implemented in a high level language. Topics include input and output procedures, control structures and boolean expressions, functions and procedures with parameters, recursion, looping techniques and data structures. (Prerequisite: minimum grade of C in MAT135 or MAT/CSC175)

CSC 310 Computer Arch and Oper Systems 4
This course is designed as an introduction to the functional components of computer systems, including their hardware implementation and management at different levels, and their interaction, characteristics, and performance. The course also covers practical implications for computer programming. (Prerequisite: CSC235 or admission to the B.S. program)

CSC 330 Language Design and Implement 4
The course provides a comparative survey of programming language paradigms. It includes an overview of the properties, applications, syntax, and semantics of selected object-oriented, functional, comparative, and declarative programming languages. (Prerequisite: CSC310)

CSC 410 Development/Operations 4
This course presents the use of established reference architectures to model scalable architectures for cloud applications. In addition, it demonstrates the use of cloud management approaches in the provision of infrastructure resources and in the deployment and management of application components. It includes discussion and application of software development processes, including Agile, continuous integration, automated testing, the use of containers, and other issues related to application deployment. (Prerequisite: CSC330)

CSC 430 Distributed System Architectur 4
This course covers concepts related to distributed systems and parallel computer architecture. Topics include concurrency and concurrent programming, fault tolerance, and parallel programming. (Prerequisite: CSC301)

CSC 450 Computer Science Capstone 4
This course is a capstone course for the Bachelor of Science in Computer Science. Students will work with a mentor to develop an application that demonstrates mastery of program outcomes. The final project will be presented to an audience. (Prerequisite: Advisor approval)

CYB 500 Federal Cybersecurity Policy Review and Risk Management 3
Students review and analyze compliance implications of selected federal cybersecurity policies with a specific focus on the NIST Risk Management Framework.

CYB 501 Cybersecurity Risk Mgmt 3
Students apply the NIST Risk Management Framework (RMF) by completing deliverables and communicating the results of a NIST RMF project. In addition, students review the Common Body of Knowledge (CBK) of the Certified Authorization Professional (CAP) certification.

CYB 502 Cybersecurity Practicum I 3
Students develop the capability to support the conducting of an assessment and authorization project requiring the use of security controls. Students will then document results.

CYB 503 Cybersecurity Practicum II 3
Students develop the capability to provide recommendations based on the results of an assessment and authorization project which requires the use of security controls.

CYB 504 Best Prac Vulnerability Assess 3
Students assess system vulnerabilities, conduct controlled exploitation and produce and communicate an effective remediation plan by applying the professional Common Body of Knowledge (CBK) for both the Certified Ethical Hacker (CEH) and EC-Council Certified Security Analyst (ECSA) certifications.

CYB 509 Cybrsec Ldrship Best Practices 3

Students utilize the 10 domains of the Certified Information Systems Security Professional (CISSP) Common Body of Knowledge (CBK) as a framework for helping organizations integrate stronger security protocols by determining the best response to specific scenarios.

- DI 509 App of DI in Gifted Education 3
This course is a study of the improvement of educational practices in relation to differentiated instruction with emphasis on gifted education.
- DI 515 Family Systems for Educators 3
Best practices for building strong family-school relationships; a survey of current developments in the study of the family and an analysis of changes in American society and their influence on family life.
- DI 532 Collab in Inclusive Settings 3
A study of applied best practices for implementing and sustaining collaborative teaching in inclusive settings. Areas of focus include skills for collaboration, co-teaching, inclusive school practices, team building, shared problem solving, interpersonal communication, conflict and controversy, and home-school communication.
- DI 534 Tchg Stdts w/Mental Hlth Needs 3
A study of classroom strategies, state and district initiatives and support resources that help children and youth with mental health needs learn successfully in the inclusive classroom setting.
- DI 536 Inclusion: Effective Practices 3
Exploring and applying the values underlying inclusion, the foundations of successful inclusion, differentiating instruction and classroom management.
- DI 538 DI Across Content 3
This course will focus on methods of instruction for diverse learners. Students will develop knowledge and skills for planning, implementing, coordinating and evaluating differentiated teaching and learning environments that challenge and assist diverse learners to achieve at their highest level of ability.
- DI 594 Effective Practices in DI 3
An introduction to the study, exploration and application of effective practices for all classroom learners. Focus is on classroom instruction blending of whole-class, group and individual instruction on the premise that instructional approaches are to be varied and adapted in relation to the diverse student needs in the classroom.
- DPT 7100 Service Learning I 1
This is the first course of a two course service learning sequence. Service is an important component of the Lutheran tradition and is a key element of the Concordia, St. Paul mission statement. Service-learning incorporates cultural competence, meaningful service, and critical reflective thinking to enhance student learning. The students will participate in lecture, case studies, and interaction with the community to reinforce the importance of life-long civic engagement, patient and/or community advocacy, and social responsibility. Students apply what they learn in the classroom to the community. (Prerequisite: Successful completion of the first two semesters of the DPT curriculum)
- DPT 7101 Anatomy 6
This course is a comprehensive study of human anatomy, which includes dissection of a human cadaver. Skeletal, muscular, nervous, digestive, cardiovascular, respiratory, and urogenital systems will be covered, and emphasis will be placed on the relatedness of structure and function. (Prerequisite: Acceptance into the DPT program)
- DPT 7102 Systems Physiol & Pathophys I 3
This first course of a two-course sequence begins with a cell structure and function overview. The physiology and pathophysiology of the endocrine, musculoskeletal, cardiovascular, and nervous systems are presented. Fundamentals of pathology for each system are presented from various perspectives: etiology; pathogenesis; signs and symptoms; medical diagnosis, including laboratory tests and diagnostic imaging; and treatment including pharmacological intervention. Emphasis is placed on identifying "red flags" that would indicate to a physical therapist that treatment may be contraindicated or referral to another health care provider is appropriate. Class activities include lecture, discussion and problem solving scenarios. (Prerequisite: Acceptance into the DPT program)
- DPT 7103 Applied Neuroscience 3
This course provides an in-depth exploration of human movement, learning, communication, memory, and emotions. Topics include the components and neuroplasticity of the central and peripheral nervous systems. In addition, clinical aspects of neurological conditions most applicable to the physical therapist are presented. Class activities include lecture, laboratory and working through case scenarios. (Prerequisite: Successful completion of the first semester of the DPT curriculum)

- DPT 7104 Functl. Anatomy/Biomechanics 3
Regional functional and articular anatomy is explored and applied in a rehabilitation context. Principles of and instrumentation for motion analysis are utilized to develop a thorough understanding of human movement. Class activities include lecture, observation, and laboratory activities. Two movement analysis projects provide the student experience in analysis and interpretation of functional movement patterns. (Prerequisite: Successful completion of the first semester of the DPT curriculum)
- DPT 7105 Systems Physiol & Pathophys II 3
This is the second course of a two-course sequence. The physiology and pathophysiology of the integumentary, immune, rheumatic, pulmonary, hematologic, genitourinary, hepatic, pancreatic and biliary and gastrointestinal systems are presented. An overview of infectious diseases and oncology is provided. Fundamentals of pathology for each system are presented from various perspectives: etiology; pathogenesis; signs and symptoms; medical diagnosis, including laboratory tests and diagnostic imaging; and treatment including pharmacological intervention. Emphasis is placed on identifying "red flags" that would indicate to a physical therapist that treatment may be contraindicated or referral to another health care provider is appropriate. Class activities include lecture, discussion and problem solving scenarios. (Prerequisites: Successful completion of the first semester of the DPT program)
- DPT 7106 Medical Screening 2
This course is an introduction of medical screening of patients for conditions that may require examination by a physician or a physician-extender across the lifespan. The lecture and laboratory experiences will enhance professional communication between physical therapists, patients, and physicians facilitating patient referral outside physical therapy.
- DPT 7111 Clinical Seminar I 2
This is the first course of a three course sequence. The roles of the profession of physical therapy within the healthcare system, the healthcare team, and the Christian tradition are explored. Students begin to develop the professional behaviors and communication skills required to thrive in those roles. Emphasis is on the application of this material to real-world situations through multiple clinic visits that occur throughout the semester. Class activities include lecture, group activities, and clinic visits. (Prerequisite: Acceptance into the DPT program)
- DPT 7112 Clinical Seminar II 2
This is the second course of a three course sequence. Issues related to morals and values, cultural and socioeconomic diversity, and psychosocial aspects of disability are explored within the context of multiple clinical visits. Legal and ethical issues in physical therapy practice are introduced. Class activities include lecture, group activities, and clinic visits. (Prerequisite: Successful completion of the first semester of the DPT curriculum)
- DPT 7121 Clinical Skills I/Foundations 4
This is the first course of a three course sequence. The fundamental processes involved in physical therapy patient/client examination, evaluation, and intervention are introduced. Bed mobility, transfers, and wheelchair/assistive device management are included. A basic examination framework that can be utilized across diagnoses and throughout the lifespan is developed. Students begin to use medical terminology to document findings, using a variety of structured formats. Class activities include lecture, lab, interaction with community volunteer patients, and case studies. (Prerequisite: Acceptance into the DPT program)
- DPT 7122 Clinical Skills II/MT & Exerc 4
This is the second course of a three course sequence. Beginning skills in physical therapy interventions for a variety of impairments and functional limitations across diagnoses and the lifespan are developed. Principles of exercise prescription and progression are presented for a variety of impairments and functional limitations. Beginning manual therapy skills are introduced. (Prerequisite: Successful completion of the first semester of the DPT curriculum)
- DPT 7123 Clinical Skills III/Modalities 4
This is the third course of a three course sequence. Physical therapy interventions specific to therapeutic modalities and electrotherapy are developed, with emphasis on integrating these interventions into a comprehensive plan of care for patients across diagnoses and across the lifespan. (Prerequisite: Successful completion of the first two semester of the DPT curriculum)

DPT 7131 Clinical Skills Assessment I	1
This is the first course of a two course sequence. Throughout the semester, students will work with CSP DPT faculty members on developing and implementing evaluation and intervention techniques for commonly seen physical therapy patient presentations. The course culminates with a comprehensive assessment of clinical skills and professional behaviors developed in the first year of the curriculum. This takes place within the context of a benchmark examination and Objective Structured Clinical Examination. (Prerequisite: Successful completion of the first two semesters of the DPT curriculum)
DPT 7141 Health Promotion I	2
This is the first course of a two course sequence. Health is broadly defined. This course will examine the determinants of health status, and will also explore the roles of physical therapy in promoting health, how health promotion fits within APTA's vision for the physical therapy profession, reducing health disparities, and improving quality of life across the lifespan. Students will conduct a community-based needs assessment to identify a health problem and its contributing factors, and later design a collaborative, ethical, and culturally responsive solution to the identified need within their selected community. Students will further investigate the physical therapist's ability to screen and intervene with exercise, stress reduction, and nutrition counseling within the context of community-based health promotion programs. Throughout the course, an emphasis will be placed upon evidence-based practice, learning styles, health theories, cultural competence, and tailored health education in order to provide effective patient education. Class activities include lecture, lab, and development of a community-based health promotion project. (Prerequisite: Successful completion of the first two semesters of the DPT curriculum)
DPT 7151 Lifespan I	2
This is the first course in a two course sequence. Theories of motor development across the lifespan are presented within the context of physical therapy practice. Normal age related change across childhood, adolescence, adulthood, and later adulthood are explored. Health and motor planning across the lifespan, pediatric development, and normal physiological factors specific to the geriatric population will be reviewed. This will include changes in the cognitive, musculoskeletal and sensory systems. Changes in physical function are presented, compared, and contrasted between pediatric and geriatric patients through lecture, small group projects, and large group discussion. Students will develop pediatric and geriatric patient screening examinations. (Prerequisite: Successful completion of the first two semesters of the DPT curriculum)
DPT 7161 Research Methods/EBP	3
Introduction to evidence based practice and clinical research. The skills learned will enable students to develop an initial, general research question, locate the evidence, review the scientific literature, and conduct critical appraisals of scientific articles. Course assignments require student application of the information. Class activities include lecture, discussion, and small group activities.
DPT 7200 Service Learning II	1
This is the second course of a two course sequence. Students develop, implement and evaluate individualized or small group service learning projects. Projects may take on a variety of formats, but must have a common goal of promoting health for a group who otherwise would not have access to that service. Students contract with service learning coordinators for specific requirements. (Prerequisite: Successful completion of the first two years of the DPT curriculum)
DPT 7207 Integumentary/Medical	3
Physical therapy examination and interventions for integumentary and medical conditions across the lifespan and continuum of care are addressed. Issues associated with the lymphatic system are included. Class activities include lecture, lab and case studies.
DPT 7208 Biopsychosocial Aspects	2
The tools and strategies for dealing with the biopsychosocial aspects of patient care are introduced. Biomedical and biopsychosocial models will be investigated and contrasted. Stress management including religious practices for patients and health care providers will be addressed. Class activities include lecture, laboratory sessions, implementation of basic psychological screens, and role-playing scenarios.
DPT 7209 Cardiopulmonary/Acute Care/Trauma	3
Physical therapy examination and interventions for cardiovascular and pulmonary conditions across the lifespan and continuum of care including acute care and trauma are addressed. Class activities include lecture, lab, and case studies.
DPT 7210 Women's Health	2
Basic and clinical science elements of evaluation and intervention of women's health conditions are introduced. Students will be introduced to treatment of pregnancy related musculoskeletal conditions, continence assessment and pelvic floor muscle training, and assessment of risk factors for osteoporosis. Topics covered include anatomy, endocrinology, and physiology, breast health, disease processes with gender differences, incontinence, obstetrics, and osteoporosis (excerpted from IOPTWH).
DPT 7213 Clinical Seminar III	2
Opportunities for students to discuss issues in the context of their previous and future clinical experiences. Topics include legal and ethical issues, delegation and supervision, the healthcare environment and reimbursement, the effects of religious practices, and other practice concerns.
DPT 7232 Clinical Skills Assessment II	1
A comprehensive assessment of clinical skills and professional behaviors developed in the first two years of the curriculum. This assessment takes place within the context of a clinical environment.
DPT 7242 Health Promotion II	2
This is the second course of a two course sequence. Health is broadly defined. This course will examine the determinants of health status, and will also explore the roles of physical therapy in promoting health, how health promotion fits within APTA's vision for the physical therapy profession, reducing health disparities, and improving quality of life across the lifespan. Students will conduct a community-based needs assessment to identify a health problem and its contributing factors, and later design a collaborative, ethical, and culturally responsive solution to the identified need within their selected community. Students will further investigate the physical therapist's ability to screen and intervene with exercise, stress reduction, and nutrition counseling within the context of community-based health promotion programs. Throughout the course, an emphasis will be placed upon evidence-based practice, learning styles, health theories, cultural competence, and tailored health education in order to provide effective patient education. Class activities include lecture, lab, and implementation and evaluation of a community-based.
DPT 7252 Lifespan II	2
This is the second course of a two course sequence. Students build on their experiences with pediatric and geriatric patients through exploration of models of delivery, reimbursement, motivation, education, intervention strategies, and caregiver issues across the lifespan. Class activities include lecture, lab, literature review, caregiver panels, and patient interaction.
DPT 7262 Capstone I	2
"Introduction to the capstone project. Each student will complete one of two tracks: inquiry or professional development. Both require six credits of student work.
Inquiry Track - Students work with a faculty member in small groups to further their knowledge of scholarly methods. Together, they will design a research project that is faculty generated or approved and student implemented. Teaching methods include discussion, small group activities, and use of computer data analysis tools.
Professional Development Track - Students enroll in an interdisciplinary course, complete an independent study, or a course offered by another department to explore a specific area of practice and to enhance understanding of the interdisciplinary team approach. Professional Development projects must be approved by the faculty. Independent studies require the agreement of a faculty member to act as the student's mentor.
DPT 7263 Capstone II	1
Continuation of the inquiry or professional development project.
DPT 7264 Capstone III	1
Continuation of the inquiry or professional development project.
DPT 7271 Musculoskeletal I	3
The role of the physical therapist in examining musculoskeletal conditions across the lifespan and continuum of care is introduced. Examination processes are regionally applied and students gain initial exposure to differential diagnosis and interventions. Class activities include lecture, lab, and case studies.
DPT 7272 Musculoskeletal II	3

Students further develop concepts of differential diagnosis, prognosis, and interventions for patients with musculoskeletal conditions across the lifespan and continuum of care. Class activities include lecture, lab, and case studies.

DPT 7281 Neuromuscular I 3
The framework for examination and intervention is applied and expanded to patients with neuromuscular diagnoses across the lifespan and continuum of care. The course focuses on functional areas of importance including mobility, transfers, wheelchair skills, balance, gait and upper extremity function. Class activities include lecture, lab and case studies.

DPT 7282 Neuromuscular II 3
Students build on their examination and intervention framework and neuroscience foundation to approach patients within the neuromuscular practice patterns across the lifespan and continuum of care. Specific examination and intervention techniques, special topics and prognosticating related to the practice patterns are covered. Class activities include lecture, lab and case studies.

DPT 7291 Administration Roles 3
The roles of the physical therapist in administration and management are explored. Health care economics, budgeting, supervision, planning, marketing, and public relations are specifically addressed.

DPT 7501 Clinical Internship I 4
Students participate in an eight-week clinical rotation that focuses on continued development of basic patient management skills from examination through intervention.

DPT 7502 Clinical Internship II 4
Students participate in an eight-week clinical rotation that focuses on development of patient management skills from examination through intervention.

ECE 321 Pre-Primary Education 3
"Emphasis is placed on an understanding of history and current trends for three, four, and five year olds in early childhood and kindergarten. The focus of the course includes the development of appropriate learning environments and teaching strategies for skilled, foundational, and impressional treatment of all curricular areas. This course, like all early childhood courses, includes the themes of developmentally and culturally appropriate practices, play, behavior guidance and partnerships with parents. This course includes 30 hours of practicum time with young children. (Prerequisite: PSY210)

ECE 322 Kindergarten Endorsement Methods 2
Emphasis is placed on an understanding of the history and current trends for Kindergarten. The focus of the course includes the development of appropriate learning environments, activities, and strategies for intentional teaching in all curricula areas. This course, like all early childhood courses, includes the themes of developmentally and culturally appropriate practices, play, behavior guidance, and partnerships with parents.

ECE 323 Kindergarten Methods 2
Emphasis is placed on an understanding of the history and current trends for kindergarten. The focus of the course includes the development of appropriate learning environments, activities, interactions, and strategies for intentional teaching in all curricula areas. This course, like all early childhood courses, includes the themes of developmentally and culturally appropriate practices, play, behavior guidance, and partnerships with parents.

ECE 324 Language Development & Emergent Literacy 3
"This course is designed to prepare educators and allied professionals to guide young children through the process of language acquisition and emergent literacy. The research and stages of language development from birth through age seven are extensively explored. Literacy strategies are explained, modeled, and experienced. The process of acquiring English as a second language and supportive strategies from adults and peers is also explored. This course, like all early childhood courses, includes the themes of developmentally and culturally appropriate practices, play, behavior guidance and partnerships with parents. Twenty-five hours working with young children is required. (Prerequisite: PSY210)

ECE 325 Education of Infants & Toddlers 3
"This course includes the study of the emerging skills and developmental characteristics of infants and toddlers (birth to age three) and how to create an educational environment to promote their physical, cognitive, and social-emotional development. This course is designed to provide the skills for working with young children in a variety of settings. Course topics include the impact of the early years, behavior and guidance, health and safety issues, program and teacher licensure, and work with parents. This course, like all early childhood courses, includes the themes of developmentally and culturally appropriate practices, play, behavior guidance and partnerships with parents. (Prerequisite: PSY210)

ECE 326 Build Creative Primary Classroom 3
Emphasis is placed on an understanding of the history, goals, and current trends in the education of primary children. The focus of the course includes the development of a creative primary learning environment and strategies in achieving the standards set by the State of Minnesota.

ECE 425 Young Child with Special Need 2
"This course is designed to introduce students to the laws and techniques needed to develop curricula and instruction to meet the unique needs of individual children in the early childhood setting. Emphasis is given to the integration of theories, research, practical application, and promotion of collaboration between early childhood professionals, special educators, and parents. Particular attention is given to authentic assessment which informs instruction, program planning, and individualization of activities. Also included is the presentation and discussion of the theory of behavior guidance in an inclusive early childhood classroom. May be taken in lieu of ED439. If so, 25+ human relations hours working with students with disabilities are required. This course, like all early childhood courses, includes the themes of developmentally and culturally appropriate practices, play, behavior guidance and partnerships with parents. (Prerequisite: PSY210)

ECE 427 Authentic Assessment/Guidance in ECE 2
Students will examine the various methods of child study, observation, portfolio development, and other authentic assessment strategies as a way to assess children's growth and the development of knowledge and skills. Classroom management strategies will be explored including the effect of classroom practices and learning environments on children's behavior.

ECE 520 Effective Research Writing 3
This course will emphasize the difference between academic writing for a master's program and writing for personal use. APA Formatting will be emphasized, strategies for developing a literature review, and writing for academic use will be included.

ECE 521 Topics & Research in Early Ed 3
This course will explore the current research in early education focusing on the theme of evidence based practices by integrating theory with the activities of teacher researchers. Current empirical studies will be used to apply and understand research methods.

ECE 522 Play: Theory and Applications 3
"This course is a study of the various theoretical foundations of play and their application to young children's development and learning. Students examine the role of the teacher in children's play, analyze play environments, and review the issues and research affecting children and curricula.

ECE 526 Curriculum & Instruction / ECE 3
"Along with the presentation of curriculum and instruction theory, this course will explore the development and implementation of early childhood curriculum and instruction. The link between assessment and program evaluation will be made.

ECE 527 Observation and Assessment 3
The various methods of child study, observation, portfolio development, and other assessment strategies are studied as a way to assess children's growth and the development of knowledge and skills. In addition, current classroom practices and learning environments are explored to identify changes that benefit children, their families, and communication between program and home.

ECE 541 Diverse Classroom 3
"This course presents studies of education in multicultural settings. Students explore the values, beliefs, customs, and perceptions of racial and ethnic groups which affect social life and the education of children. Concepts of culture, social class, and power are developed.

ECE 544 Language Development & Emergent Literacy 3
"Current research is studied in regard to emergent literacy and language development in children with implications for the classroom teacher. Whole language strategies are explored for children from birth through age seven.

ECE 576 Methods in EC Programming	3
This course is an in-depth look at current literature that supports leadership in early childhood education and then extends learning to the complexities of quality programming in early childhood education.
ECE 577 eFolio and Completion	3
This course assists students in synthesizing previous coursework leading to greater self-reflection and assessment of learning. In addition, the student will complete, present, and discuss the final M.A. Capstone eFolio.
ECO 101 Macroeconomics	4
"This course will illustrate the dynamic integration of America within the global economy by focusing on macroeconomics policy areas such as trade, exchange rate policy and domestic economic policy. The course will also introduce students to alternative theoretical frameworks such as classical, Keynesian, monetarism, rational expectations, Marxist, and institutionalist perspectives. The course will explore problems facing the less industrialized countries and the newly emerging countries and the United States' role in their development.
ECO 102 Microeconomics	2
"This course will illustrate the dynamic integration of America within the global economy by focusing on the microeconomics issues such as the role of multinational corporations, antitrust policy, and strategic trade policy. The course will first introduce students to basic microeconomics theory such as market structure (perfect competition, monopoly, monopolistic competition, and oligopoly), factor markets, the role of government in the global economy, welfare reform, environmental policy and trade, and exchange rate policy. The course will then illustrate the global dimensions of domestic microeconomics policy. (Prerequisite: ECO101)
ECO 401 Global Economics	4
This course will introduce students to the theories explaining trade and financial (exchange rates, foreign direct investment) markets in the economy. The course will also focus on policy issues in the trade and financial sectors such as the effectiveness of domestic trade and monetary policy, coordination of international exchange rates and the role of institutions such as the Federal Reserve System and the World Trade Organization in the present global economy. The course will also introduce students to national and local ethnic markets.
ED 201 Foundations & Intro to Edu	3
Concordia's teacher education program and its conceptual framework are introduced to students in this course. Students will use contemporary case studies to examine ethical dilemmas relating to policy enforcement.

KHS 550 Sport Sales 3

"Sales is an essential revenue producing function for any commercial organization. Sport and recreations have a unique marketing relationship of product and inventory with the consumer and marketplace. The course is designed for the student to learn the theoretical concepts and the application of skills and practices associated with the sports sales process. Through readings and lectures, the course will examine the rationale regarding the benefits and disadvantages of various sales and promotional methodologies. This course will then concentrate on promotional and sales strategies, campaigns, and techniques.	KHS 620 Master's Capstone	3
Students will complete an internship or a capstone project to complete the requirements for the Master of Arts in Sport Management program. KHS565 and KHS566 will complete the requirements for the capstone project.	KHS 625 Master's Thesis	6
This course explores the topics of ethics and policy for exercise science professionals in a sport and exercise setting. Students will critically analyze ethical concepts, which influence the development of necessary policies. The course will further examine the relevance of ethical considerations in policy development and compliance. Students will use contemporary case studies to examine ethical dilemmas relating to policy enforcement within the exercise science industry.	LAW 401 Legal Environment of Business	2
This course examines the various research methodologies used in exercise science. It provides an overview of quantitative and qualitative research methodologies including research design, data collection and analysis, interviewing, case studies, and action science. The philosophy, ethics, and politics of research are introduced.	LAW 411 Federal Income Tax	4
This course examines the integration of thought processes with the human body to produce skilled motor performance. Theoretical perspectives and mechanisms of motor behavior are examined and applied to significant systems involving gross motor learning and control in sport and exercise.	LSC 159 The Inner Review	2
This course examines qualitative and quantitative elements and physics of human movement. Content areas include the structural mechanics of bone physiology, muscle mechanics, and connective tissue principles. Sport techniques and environmental conditions (e.g., friction, air, and water resistance) are also explored. Biomechanical implications of sport and fitness skill performance will be analyzed for mechanical efficiency and effectiveness.	LSC 277 Reflection and Synthesis	2
Psychology of sport and its applications for performance enhancement are examined. Special attention is given to theory and techniques for developing and refining psychological skills to enhance performance in the exercise science industry. Psychological aspects of exercise-related injury will also be explored within this course.	MAN 101 Introduction to Business	4
Students will learn how to select physical fitness tests, and conduct physiological assessments on members of diverse populations. Students will further study the procedures involved in screening individuals from diverse populations with varying levels of functional work capacity.	MAN 120 Basics of Business	2
The physiological responses to exercise performance and the effects of physical activity on the body's functions are examined in theory and application.	MAN 201 Business Analytics	2
This course focuses on the integration of nutrition with molecular and cellular biochemistry of metabolism. Major topics discussed in this course include the metabolic effects of diet composition, the interactions of macronutrients, and dietary modifications and their associated impact upon performance.	MAN 301 Organizational Behavior	4
This course examines the various research methodologies used in exercise science. It provides an overview of quantitative and qualitative research methodologies including research design, data collection and analysis, interviewing, case studies, and action science. The philosophy, ethics, and politics of research are introduced.	MAN 302 Operations & Quality Mgmt	2
This course focuses upon the design of individualized exercise programs and prescriptions in health and disease. Knowledge of skills necessary for safe and effective application of these prescriptions for members of diverse populations as well as the prevention and maintenance of chronic disease will be emphasized.	MAN 350 Managing in a Global Economy	4
	MAN 370 Non-profit Leadership and Management	4

Students critically examine theories and practices of non-profit leadership and management, such as building, developing, and working with governing boards, employees, volunteers, and community resource people. Students learn to maximize resources in the effective management of volunteers and program delivery while exploring decision making and ethical questions within non-profit organizations.

MAN 401 Business Strategy and Ethics 4
 "This course introduces the critical business skills of planning and managing strategic activities. Case studies are emphasized. Students learn an executive-level perspective on strategy formulation and implementation. Students also explore the divergent viewpoints one might hold in analyzing the ethical issues likely to confront business practitioners. This course is the capstone course in the Business Program. Therefore, students should take this course only during one of the last two semesters of their program. (Prerequisites: MAN301)

MAN 410 Managing Talent, Change & Neg. 4
 "The role of the human resource management function in organizations will be studied in this cross functional course. The changing nature of work and demographic shifts will be of particular emphasis. The course also will focus on increasing the understanding of the negotiating process and on increasing the skill level for negotiating by focusing on preparation, interest identification, strategies and tactics, listening skills, collaborative negotiations, competitive negotiations, and options outside of negotiation. Emphasis will be given to win/win collaborative negotiations and preserving relationships using principled dispute resolution strategies. (Prerequisite: MAN301)

MAN 450 Managing Finance & Bus. Strat. 4
 Students will apply business analytical tools in finance and accounting to real world business scenarios. Students will use popular business software, such as QuickBooks, to gain experience in implementing and managing small business finances. Through case studies and other techniques students will learn how to integrate their knowledge of business disciplines in developing business strategy which will include principles of stewardship and sustainability issues.

MAN 460 Managing Teams, Comm & Proj 4
 This course focuses on team building and team leadership utilizing communication, conflict management, and decision making skills. Project management techniques that will enhance success in leading and completing projects are also covered. Students will apply project management knowledge, tools and techniques to an actual team project. Topics include creating a project charter and plan, working as a project team, executing the project and closing out the project. This courses is for seniors only. (Prerequisite: MAN301)

MAN 498 Management Internship 12

MAR 301 Principles of Marketing 4
 "This course provides an introduction to the study of marketing in business and other organizations. Topics that will be addressed in this course include the marketing environment, marketing ethics, information gathering, product development, pricing strategies, distribution strategies, the promotional mix, decision making, nonprofit marketing, social marketing and international marketing. (Prerequisite: junior standing)

MAR 312 Consumer Behavior 4
 "This course addresses the theoretical background for understanding consumer behavior. This course will examine the interaction between the environment, consumer's affect and cognition and a consumer's ultimate behavior. Various theories and perspectives on consumer motivation, attitude formation, information processing, and decision-making will be discussed throughout this course.

MAR 313 Advertising and Promotions 4
 "This course is designed to provide students with a basic understanding of integrated marketing communications through advertising, promotions, personal selling, public relations and internet marketing. Ethical issues related to these topics will be examined and trends in consumer and business-to-business buyer behaviors will be explored. (Prerequisite: MAR301)

MAR 413 Marketing Research 4
 "This course will teach some of the fundamental tools needed to analyze the behavior and attitudes of all types of consumers. Students will acquire an overview of scientific methods and the research process. Skills learned will include learning how to identify problems, formulate problem definitions, define research objectives, choose and develop the research design, analyze data, and write up and present a report. Students will be taught several research techniques including survey, observation, focus groups, in-depth interviews, projective techniques, experimentation, and secondary data analysis. This course is for seniors only. (Prerequisites: MAR301)

MAR 414 Marketing Strategy 4
 This is the senior marketing capstone course. In the class we will discuss how marketing strategy, tactics, theory and practice are integrated. Students will learn to apply strategic thinking through case analysis and through class facilitation and frequent participation. (Prerequisite: MAR301)

MAR 470 Social Media Marketing 2
 In this course, students will explore the latest tools and trends in social media applied to marketing, advertising, and communication. Using case studies from large corporations, small businesses, and non-profits, students will examine current examples and future opportunities of how marketing professionals use social networks, user-generated content, and blogs for shaping marketing activities.

MAR 471 Global Marketing 2
 This course examines the complexities of international marketing. The scope and nature of international and global marketing operations are introduced. The influence of culture on global marketing is explored. The traditional elements of marketing, including price, product, promotion, distribution, and service are examined in the context of international markets. Students are asked to analyze what it takes to introduce a product into a foreign market. (Prerequisite: MAR301)

MAT 95 Mathematics Workshop 2
 This course is not a general education course and should only be taken by students planning to take a course with MAT095 listed as a prerequisite. The goal of this course is to strengthen basic math skills in preparation for future math courses. The course begins by reviewing operations with whole numbers, fractions, and signed numbers. The course builds to simplifying algebraic expressions, solving linear equations, and solving problems with percents. Students must earn a minimum grade of C- in this course to progress to the next level Math course. (Course does not count for grad requirement of 128 credits.)

MAT 101 Contemporary Mathematics 3
 This course was designed to give the liberal arts student an experience in contemporary mathematics with emphasis on its connection to society. The concepts include financial mathematics, statistics, apportionment, voting, graphs and networks. (Prerequisite: Minimum grade of C- in MAT095 or level 2 or higher placement on the Math Placement Exam.)

MAT 103 Beginning Algebra 2
 This course is not a general education course and should only be taken by students planning to take a course with MAT103 listed as a prerequisite. Topics include calculator skills, combinatorics, linear equations and systems of linear equations, story problems, function notation, exponentials and logarithms. Students must earn a minimum grade of C- in this course to progress to the next level Math course. (Prerequisite: Minimum grade of C- in MAT095 or level 2 placement on the Math Placement Exam.)

MAT 105 Intermediate Algebra 2
 This course is not a general education course and should only be taken by students planning to take a course with MAT105 listed as a prerequisite. Topics include properties of exponents, polynomials, factoring, radicals, rational equations, and graphing functions. Students must earn a minimum grade of C- in this course to progress to the next level Math course. (Prerequisite: A minimum grade of C- in MAT103 or level 3 placement on the Math Placement Exam)

MAT 110 Intro Probability & Statistics 3
 This course will explore fundamental topics from probability and descriptive and inferential statistics and apply these to a range of areas of study including business, social science, and biology. Topics include probability and counting rules, probability distributions, hypothesis testing, correlation, regression, chi-square, and analysis-of-variance. (Prerequisite: Minimum grade of C- in MAT100 or MAT103 or level 3 or higher placement on the Math Placement Exam.)

MAT 125 Precalculus 4
 This course emphasizes functions and their applications. It starts with investigating graphs and solutions of the algebraic functions including polynomial, rational, and root functions. The course continues by exploring transcendental functions including exponential, logarithmic, and trigonometric functions. The course concludes with a study of conic sections. The course is a good preparation for Calculus and for those students who will encounter functions in their course of study. Students must earn a minimum grade of C- in this course to progress to the next level Math course. (Prerequisite: Minimum grade of C- in MAT100 or MAT105 or level 4 or higher placement on the Math Placement Exam)

MAT 135 Calculus I 4
This course explores the concepts of limit and continuity, investigates techniques of differentiation and its applications, introduces integration, and provides the framework for the Fundamental Theorem. (Prerequisite: Minimum grade of C- in MAT125 or level 5 placement on the Math Placement Exam.)

MAT 145 Calculus II 5
This course is a continuation of MAT135. Topics covered include techniques of integration, an introduction to differential equations, sequences and series and applications of these concepts. Other topics include parametric equations, polar equations, and conic sections. Students will be introduced to a computer algebra system. (Prerequisite: Minimum grade of C- in MAT135 or equivalent)

MAT 200 Found of Elem Math 3
This course gives students the mathematical foundation necessary to teach K-6 mathematics and to prepare for the Minnesota Teaching Licensure Basic Skills Exam. Topics include basic algebra, set theory, probability, statistics, geometry, and problem-solving techniques. (Prerequisite: Minimum grade of C- in MAT100 or MAT105 or level 4 placement on the Math Placement Exam.)

MAT 220 Discrete Mathematics 3
This course serves as an introduction to formal proofs and is prerequisite for several upper level math courses. Additional topics covered include logic, set theory, function and relations. (Prerequisite: C- or better in MAT135 or CSC175)

MAT 255 Calculus III 4
This course is a continuation of MAT145. Topics covered include analytic geometry in three-dimensional space, vector calculus, partial differentiation, multiple integration, the Fundamental Theorems, and related applications. (Prerequisite: Minimum grade of C- in MAT145)

MAT 305 Foundations of Geometry 3
This course provides a systematic survey of Euclidean, hyperbolic, transformation, and fractal geometries. Through the use of technology, the students are better enabled to construct, analyze, and prove conjectures. (Prerequisite: Minimum grade of C- in MAT220)

MAT 330 Advanced Prob & Stats 4
This course is a Calculus-based look at Probability and Statistics. Assuming students have been exposed to the basics through an introductory course, this course will build upon that experience. Topics include an in depth investigations of probability, discrete and continuous random variables, parameter estimation, hypothesis testing, inference using the normal and binomial distributions, goodness of fit, regression and correlation, and ANOVA. The course will include a statistical software component. (Prerequisites: Minimum grade of C- in MAT145 and MAT110)

MAT 375 Diff Equations and Linear Algb 4
This course is an overview of the concepts of differential equations and linear algebra necessary to solve applied problems. Topics include: Differential equations: separable, first-order linear, higher-order linear, linear systems with constant coefficients. Linear algebra: basis, dimension, matrices, eigenvalues/eigenvectors, and vector spaces. (Prerequisite: Minimum of C- in MAT145)

MAT 450 Abstract Algebra 4
This course is a rigorous introduction to abstract algebra. Topics include mappings, groups, equivalence relations, isomorphisms, rings, and fields. (Prerequisite: Minimum grade of C- in MAT220)

MAT 460 Foundations of Analysis 4
This course is a formal treatment of functions of a real variable. It covers the topology of the real line, sequences and series, and classic results in continuity, differentiation, and integration. (Prerequisite: Minimum of C- in MAT145 and MAT220)

MAT 478 Mathematics Seminar 3
Students in this seminar will explore a variety of exciting mathematics problems. The course will be offered every spring but the topic will vary depending on the interests of the faculty member and the students. Students will sharpen their mathematical abilities by exploring an assortment of problem-solving strategies and clearly presenting generalized solutions. The opened-ended course number allows for more than one such experience. (Prerequisite: Minimum grade of C- in MAT220 or consent of instructor)

MAT 499 Senior Outcomes

MBA 500 Org Leadership and Dev 3
This course introduces leadership in dynamic, changing organizations where customers change, technologies shift, and work processes evolve. In this course students will examine how leaders develop themselves and others and create alignment as an organization changes to meet the needs of the future

MBA 505 Global Economics 3
The course will apply economic theory to develop a framework to analyze and predict trade, exchange rate, environmental, health, labor and other policies. Strategies will encompass the interaction of American and global economic institutions and policy making entities such as the United States Trade Representative, Congress, Federal Reserve, WTO, and the European Union.

MBA 510 Managerial Res Meth & Design 3
"This course examines the various research methodologies used in organizational settings. It provides an overview of quantitative and qualitative methodologies including research design, data collection and analysis, interviewing, case studies, and action science. The philosophy, ethics, and politics of management research are introduced. Students will critique published research, write a literature review, and design research studies.

MBA 515 Applied Business Ethics 3
"This course will review and analyze popular models of ethical decision making. Readings, case studies, and special presenters will provide opportunities to investigate current ethical issues facing leaders and managers in business and organizational settings as well as critically apply various ethical theories and decision-making frameworks. Literature relative to Christian vocation, applied ethics, and value-centered leadership will be explored. Student papers and presentations will demonstrate the integration of a personal and vocational ethic.

MBA 520 Integrated Marketing Comm 3
This course will develop marketing strategy and executing diverse communication tactics critical to all enterprises. Consistency in both processes and messages is important. Students will analyze business scenarios and determine strategic objectives, target markets and messages, as well as demonstrate to use and how to apply multiple marketing tactics.

MBA 525 Strategic HR Management 3
"This course looks at human resources management from an operating manager's perspective and focuses on the key role strategic human resource management plays in the development and execution of organizational strategy. Emphasis will be placed on the cultural, behavioral, and the legal issues faced by companies as they attempt to compete in an increasingly expanding global economy. Students will work collaboratively to analyze and compare the complexities and challenges of doing business abroad as well as in the United States and discuss approaches, plans, and programs to address those issues strategically.

MBA 530 Managerial Finance and Acctg 3
This course will examine the framework and systems of current accounting and finance principles including preparation of financial statements, accounting cycles and balance sheet classifications. Students will apply these principles along with ethical responsibility and critical thinking skills to management practices of business decision making and strategic planning.

MBA 535 Legal Environment for Managers 3
This course integrates the treatment of law and management. It helps managers and leaders spot legal issues before they become legal problems and emphasizes developing the legal astuteness to craft solutions that attain core organizational objectives without incurring undue legal risk. Traditional legal concepts are discussed as well as current topics in developing areas of the law. An emphasis on ethical concerns stimulates understanding of how managers must incorporate considerations of ethics and social responsibility into their managerial actions

MBA 540 Health Care Bioethics 3
"Many hospitals have ethical boards to help with difficult decision making. This speaks to the increasing complexity of ethical issues which health care professionals face. This course will look at end-of-life issues, resource allocation issues, decision-making issues, access-to-care issues and other major ethical issues facing health care professionals. This course will explore briefly a Christian understanding of the grounds for ethical decision making.

MBA 545 Quality Practices 3
"In order to compete in this new economy, health care entities, particularly hospitals, need to employ quality practices. This course will examine current theory and practices for health care institutions: Six sigma, Lean and other processes and procedures. Students will understand how the quality system interweaves with customer service and happiness.

MBA 555 Health Care Informatics 3

"A call has come from the highest reaches of government for the computerization of all medical records. Information systems and the interlocking of these systems will be a major concern for health care providers in the years to come. Students will learn how to collect, massage, manipulate data in order to make it useful. There is plenty of useless data and information available; the real professional can mine that data and information into golden nuggets of knowledge."

MBA 560 Health Care Strategic Leadership 3

The distribution system for health care is complex and changing rapidly. The strategy process represents an essential opportunity for health care leaders to establish, implement and guide the organizations direction in these turbulent waters of changing distribution systems. MAP is a process in which students summarize, synthesize, and demonstrate knowledge, skills, and competencies as organizational managers and leaders. Students will draw from their MBA course work, career experiences, and synthesizing activities to build a portfolio.

MBA 561 Customer Analysis 3

This course explores the behavior of consumers and the factors that influence their behavior. Analysis of customer decision-making and how marketing strategy can be used to influence those decisions is examined through various theories, models and techniques that attempt to explain the behavior of the consumer. The framework is a buyer behavior model, in which concepts from psychology, sociology, and economics are applied to individual and organizational purchase decisions. The course will also explore consumer insights and shopper marketing to build revenue and grow the business. Marketing strategies of leading firms in consumer products, technology, and services (including internet services) are analyzed using a variety of formats including lecture-discussions, case studies designed to illustrate the salient issues as well as readings and texts.

MBA 565 Analytics for Business Intelligence 3

This course deals with the process of acquiring, analyzing and interpreting primary and secondary marketing data needed for profitable marketing decisions. It considers recent developments in the use of internal and external data needed for marketing decisions. This course is intended to explore data mining techniques with the goals: 1) To provide the key methods of classification, prediction, reduction, and exploration that are at the heart of data mining; 2) To provide business decision-making context for these methods; 3) Using real business cases, to illustrate the application and interpretation of these methods.

MBA 570 Marketing Decision Models 3

This course focuses on the benefits of using analytic and modeling-based approaches to marketing decision-making. It offers an applied approach to develop student's ability to work on marketing data, and weigh alternate business decision options based on benefits and costs as well as construct models to aid managerial decisions determining business strategy. This course deals with the process of acquiring, analyzing and interpreting primary and secondary marketing data needed for profitable marketing decisions. Coursework is developed in strategic marketing, new product development, branding, marketing segmentation, sales and trade promotion analysis, pricing, and design of marketing mix, sales force allocation, direct, and internet marketing.

MBA 575 Marketing Strategy Monetized 3

This course focuses on the role of business strategy to create profitable customers by delivering superior value. Strategy becomes monetized during the implementation process which is critical to executing on successful consumer capitalism. This course will develop metrics and systems to utilize in the marketing activities to measure customer value and business return on investment. An outcome of this course is the ability to communicate the value of marketing strategies to executive management regarding ROI. In this course, a hybrid format of lecture-discussions and applied work issues will be incorporated to illustrate the marketing strategy outcomes.

MBA 580 Bridging IT Business Gap Globally 3

Compare technical to non-technical staff in studying ways to build collaborative effectiveness in managing functions and projects. Minimize the barriers to successful intercultural communication by investigating various tools for teamwork in local and global settings. Utilize project case studies and collaborative software tools to practice communicating virtually across diverse settings and maximize teamwork to deliver on business strategy.

MBA 585 Project and Lifecycle Management 3

Introduce the entire project lifecycle by practicing collaborative development of various project monitoring and reporting tools in a case-study setting: 1) project scope/charter, 2) work breakdown structure, 3) cost-benefit analysis, 4) communication plan, 5) project schedule, 6) risk register, and 7) quality management plan. Transfer learning objectives to the student's own Management Application Portfolio (MAP) by practicing knowledge retention and by applying concepts from the Project Management Body of Knowledge (PMBOK).

MBA 590 Info Systems Analysis & Communication 3

Create a systemic understanding of business requirements by interviewing key stakeholders and diagramming to communicate process workflow. Utilize contemporary case studies to compare software and infrastructure development methodologies such as the Systems Development Lifecycle to Agile Methods. Apply learned skills to key decision-making tasks such as in-house development, outsourcing, software testing, and cloud computing. Create a first draft of the initial phases for the student's own Management Application Portfolio (MAP).

MBA 595 Business Information Systems Security, Risk, Quality 3

Analyze how information systems are designed to interact with people and carry out business strategy. Design plans to analyze and secure enterprise-wide data and applications in a growing mobile environment. Assess risk and manage quality in working to meet auditing and compliance standards. Topics include business continuity and disaster recovery, virtualization, and the effects of compliance on infrastructure development. Create first drafts of middle and final phases for the student's Management Application Portfolio (MAP).

MBA 605 Operations & Technology Management 3

This course will examine value-chain functions such as product-process design, quality management, supply chain management and workforce management in order to understand the resource-based view of strategic advantage for the organization. Students will examine strategic management of operations utilizing to support the value-chain functions of operations management.

MBA 610 Tools for Managerial Decision 3

"This course will focus on how managers think clearly and make effective decisions. Students will examine and apply several models of decision-making. Innovative, critical, emotional and futuristic thinking will be explored. The students will develop their own tools to become effective decision-makers.

MBA 620 Strategic Leadership 3

This course introduces students to the principal practices and the theorists of contemporary strategic thinking. Students will understand how leaders have strategically created and affected organizational outcomes. After examining the elements of a strategic planning process, students apply those principles and focus on strategic analysis of their industry and the strategic practices of the organizations in that industry.

MBA 630 Topics in Global Management 3

This course focuses on the opportunities and threats of the complex environment of international business, with an emphasis on the unique problems involved in managing international operations. Main topics include the relevance of the foreign economic, political, legal, and cultural environment, international market analysis, international human resource management, and import/export transactions.

MBA 705 Managerial Application Portfolio 1

The MAP is a process in which students summarize, synthesize and demonstrate knowledge, skills, and competencies as organizational managers and leaders. Students will draw from their MBA course work, career experiences and synthesizing activities to build a customized professional portfolio.

MKM 311 Innovation & Complex Systems 4

This course introduces innovation as an essential for the new rule of business. Students will learn the framework and techniques to systematize innovation allowing them to take advantage of emerging opportunities. They will use the knowledge to understand how innovation affects the way we deploy resources to fulfill customer desires, viewing themselves as agents of innovation within organizations. Within this course of study the student will also examine the underlying dynamics, culture and change within an organizational context.

MKM 321 Marketing Innovation 4

This course is the foundation of the marketing program. It reviews the concepts and application-oriented framework for marketing decision-making in a dynamic environment. Students explore current and emerging trends within a shifting marketplace and economic landscape. The five P's of marketing - place, price, product, promotion and people - are the center of this module. The course emphasizes environmental scanning, target customers and achieving organizational objectives through the intentional and skillful blending of marketing strategies. Students will create their own marketing plans within this module.

MKM 330 Integrated Marketing Comm 4
 "This course will focus on developing marketing strategy and executing diverse communication tactics that are critical for business success. Students will address financial assessment, budgeting and spending, global and ethical implications of financial decision-making, and financial prioritization for the present and the future. This course will provide the framework for the financials of market planning strategy including sales, new product development, return on investment, price and profit while offering the student an understanding of corporate reports and internal control.

MKM 441 Marketing Strategy 4
 This course combines the overall coursework students have learned throughout their program of study. Students analyze graduate-level case studies for developing and implementing strategies that are distinctive and sustainable.

The students will explore market entry and strategy alternatives as well as the integration of marketing strategy within operations, finance, supply chain and corporate culture within a global economy. Collaboration and group work is essential as students determine markets to compete based on their organization's ability to create a competitive value proposition for the consumer.

MKM 480 Business Plan 4
 "This course spans the Marketing Management and Innovation program at Concordia University. It is presented as an independent study where students create their own business plan for a selected company, product, entity, or department approved by their faculty advisor. The goal of this course is to enable the student to become proficient in developing his or her own business plans.

MLM 500 Ldrshp, Mgmt, Influen & Change 4
 This course provides an overview of leadership, management, influence, social power dynamics, and change theories and practices, emphasizing application to the challenges and opportunities facing for-profit corporations, nonprofits, and government agencies. Introduces the philosophies and methodological approaches underlying the Master of Arts in Leadership and Management as well as the writing and online research skills students will use in this program.

MLM 510 Applied Moral & Ethical Ldrshp 4
 This course connects morality, ethics, and values with leadership and influence. Students explore and respond to challenging organizational dilemmas while balancing personal integrity and organization goals from the perspective of Christianity and vocational ethics, incorporating these elements into the personal and professional decision-making process.

MLM 520 Strategic Organiz Research 4
 This course provides students with the ability to gather, analyze, and synthesize complex credible information about a topic of interest using quantitative and qualitative action research methodologies. Students choose a topic that relates to leadership, management, and/or social power dynamics and properly leverage their influence as they complete an action research project using a strategy to improve an organizational situation. While the emphasis of this course is on applied methods of research, an overview of the theory and some of the political and ethical implications of research will also be covered.

MLM 525 Financial Mgmt for Leaders 4
 "This course explores the practical aspects of the strategic and operational roles of financial management, accounting, analysis, and an introduction to finance-based decision-making related to working capital and long-term financing and investment. Students will learn the impact of a leader and/or manager's influence on budgeting, financial performance, and fiscal and ethical responsibility.

MLM 532 Project & Quality Management 4
 This course covers the practical aspects of completing tasks while working with, leading, and influencing teams in a project environment for high quality results. Students will learn how to effectively manage projects using software tools that focus on the various related leadership issues, such as monitoring needs compared with current action, team dynamics, planning, execution, problem-solving, closure, and assessment. Discussion may include appropriate quality measures including Reengineering, Six Sigma, Lean Manufacturing, Office Kaizen, and Process Improvement.

MLM 542 Strategic Ldrshp & Process Imp 4
 This course examines the leader and manager's role in influencing the development and implementation of vision, mission, values, and coherent strategic plans. Students will use classical and creative strategies to develop short- and long-term goals that improve operational effectiveness and strategically position an organization for the future. Students will also diagnose their own strategic capabilities and develop a plan for increasing their strengths in this area. Emphasis will be placed on ways to manage the implementation phase through best-practice processes.

MLM 545 Legal Issues Today's Leaders 4
 This course explores how the legal environment can influence a leader's decisions, guiding their actions and helping them avoid legal pitfalls in today's complex organizations. This understanding will help leaders identify greater opportunities to influence change and innovation. Students will also learn to understand and influence the spirit behind various policies, regulations, laws, and guidelines that take leadership beyond simple compliance with governmental regulations.

MLM 552 Organizational Culture Mgmt 4
 This course explores how leaders manage the soft, relationship skills of organizational life to leverage their experience and practical research as they successfully influence innovative, disciplined, and well-led organizations. Topics explore strategies to a) assess an organization's culture and climate; b) develop a continuous flow talent management mindset incorporating Training & Development methods throughout the organization; c) motivate and positively influence team member effectiveness and obtain applicable concepts and tools for acquiring, developing, improving, influencing, and (re)allocating talent; d) explore the concepts and theories related to change management and improvement; and e) develop skills to influence, plan, and implement changes for improving organizational life in both corporate and nonprofit settings.

MLM 555 Ldrshp & Mgmt Res, Synthesis.	4

NUR 330 Ethics & Decision Making	4
This course examines the fundamental ethical theories, principles, Christian virtues, and models of decision-making designed, to support the complex issues nurses face today. At the completion of this course students will have a greater understanding of the ethical principles applied to nursing practice and health care delivery settings. Basic ethical principles relating to research with human subjects will be explored. The Christian ethic of social justice is explored with the emphasis upon reducing health disparities. Students will begin to develop a personal model of decision making that is consistent with core personal values, legal and regulatory requirements, standards of care and the ANA Code of Ethics for Nurses.
NUR 345 Prof. Practice & Role Development	4
This course explores the historical, current, and future outlook of nursing practice. Students will critically examine the current and emerging trends for the nurse's role in health care delivery. Professional accountability is emphasized through reinforcement of the profession's Code of Ethics for Nurses and the Nursing Scope and Standards of Practice, and Nursing's Social Policy Statement. Emphasis will be placed on how social policy may influence nursing practice and healthcare delivery. Nursing theory is introduced. Students will draft a personal philosophy of nursing, to include his/her beliefs regarding the four major concepts of nursing (nurse, client, health, and environment) and their interface to the interprofessional team, and the evolving context of healthcare.

NUR 360 Transclt Nursing/Adv Hlth Asmt 4

The content of this course is designed to advance skills in health assessment, including physical, behavioral, psychological, spiritual, family history, socioeconomic, and environmental, and will further broaden and advance the student's knowledge of human diversity and global awareness. Frameworks that support culturally competent care will be analyzed. The student will gain understanding of specific cultural phenomena and apply knowledge of the phenomena to assessment and intervention techniques to cultural groups. The student will further explore ethnocentrism and reflect on his/her own cultural biases, prejudices, and stereotypes and the impact they may have on providing culturally competent care that supports Christian acts of service and justice.

NUR 375 Evidence-Based Practice 4

This course provides a basis for analysis and application of current nursing qualitative and quantitative research to the practice of nursing. The research process is examined and utilized to provide a foundation for students to critically examine published research articles and guidelines. Barriers to integrating evidence to practice will be analyzed with potential solutions explored within the course.

NUR 400 Ldrshp & Mgmt in Nursing 4

This course is focused on development of leadership and management skills necessary for effective nursing practice. Theories of leadership and management are introduced, and management roles and functions reviewed. An overview of finance and healthcare reimbursement will be provided along with nursing's contribution to organizational finance explored. Collaboration and communication with interdisciplinary teams will be analyzed, and students will practice strategies for negotiation and conflict resolution. The role of the nurse within micro and macro systems of healthcare organizations will be explored. The purpose of the mission, vision, philosophy, and values in relation to organizational structure and nursing's role will be examined. The contributions of nursing and the nurse leader in creating and supporting a culture of safety and caring will be analyzed. Quality improvement models and structure, process, and outcome measures are explored with a focus on patient safety principles and care standards.

NUR 430 Nursing Informatics 4

This course introduces students to healthcare information systems and basic informatics concepts. The impact of technology to safeguard nursing practice and patient outcomes will be examined. Emphasis is placed on the management of information, knowledge, and technology to support efficiency, encourage effective communication, enhance the quality and safety of patient care, and ensure accurate documentation and revenue capture. Efficiency and accuracy of data collection for regulatory purposes will be explored via extracted or abstracted methods. The use of data to influence changes in clinical practice aimed at the improvement of patient outcomes will be examined. Students will explore informatics concepts and continuous improvement models to support improved workflow and efficiency, encourage effective communication, drive decision support, and ensure accurate documentation. Resource stewardship and patient safety considerations will guide students throughout the course.

NUR 445 Intro to Care Coord/Case Mgmt 4

This course will compare health reform goals and the role of care coordination and case management in supporting improved quality and safety of care for individuals and populations, and controlling cost through the efficient and effective use of resources that mitigates fragmentation of communication of health information and delivery of services. The nurse's role in patient-centered care coordination is explored with emphasis on care transitions and care coordination models for the different levels of care. Risk stratification tools will be examined with contrast to the public health prevention levels. Formulation of a collaborative, personalized, and proactive care plan to address the patient's needs and health risks based on their prevention level of risk will be explored. Ongoing evaluation methods with measurable outcomes will be identified with discussion of care plan revision based on the outcomes.

NUR 460 Community Health Nursing 4

This course focuses on the role of the nurse providing population focused nursing care supporting clinical prevention. The history of community health will be reviewed and contrasted with the current roles in community health nursing. Concepts of health promotion, disease prevention, epidemiology, environmental health and emergency/disaster preparedness are explored. Health policy will be analyzed within and outside the United States and as to its impact on health disparities, health, the healthcare experience, and cultural competence of those delivering the care. The Christian ethic of social justice will be further examined as it relates to populations and reducing health disparities. A practice experience designed to meet the requirements for the Minnesota Board of Nursing Public Health Nursing Registration is included, which involves completion of a community health assessment. In addition, a proposed public health program with population focused nursing interventions will be identified through collaboration with community agencies. Lastly, measureable health-related outcomes for the community/population assessed will be identified.

NUR 475 Nursing Capstone 3

This capstone course emphasizes reflective practice and integration of learning obtained during student's liberal arts and fundamental nursing course journey. Students will refine their personal philosophy of nursing, to include his/her beliefs regarding the four major concepts of nursing (nurse, client, health and environment) and their interface to the interprofessional team, and the evolving context of healthcare. Short- and long-term professional goals will be identified to include their plan for life-long learning and contributions for advancement of the profession. An e-professional portfolio will be created and compiled by each student.

NUR 475 Nursing Capstone 4

This capstone course emphasizes reflective practice and integration of learning obtained during student's liberal arts and fundamental nursing course journey. Students will refine their personal philosophy of nursing, to include his/her beliefs regarding the four major concepts of nursing (nurse, client, health and environment) and their interface to the interprofessional team, and the evolving context of healthcare. Short- and long-term professional goals will be identified to include their plan for life-long learning and contributions for advancement of the profession. An e-professional portfolio will be created and compiled by each student.

OMC 200 Negotiations 2

The course will focus on increasing the understanding of the negotiating process and on increasing the skill level for negotiating by focusing on preparation, interest identification, strategies and tactics, listening skills, collaborative negotiations, competitive negotiations and options outside of negotiation. Emphasis will be given to win/win collaborative negotiations as well as how to deal with competitive negotiations.

OML 300 Group Dynamics & Org Cult 4

In this course, students study group behavior and development, especially focusing on relationships of groups within organizations. Students examine organizational complexity, learn to analyze group and individual decision making techniques, determine various roles within organizational groups, and identify decision making skills and effective collaborative styles for efficient group management within the complexities of varying organizational cultures.

OML 310 Systems Theory & Org Behav 4

This course trains leaders to observe and manage patterns and relationships within the organizational system as a whole, especially the impact of individuals, groups, structure, and environment on motivation and decision making. Organizational Systems concepts are used to analyze organizational behavior, facilitate and manage change, and find creative ways for leaders to address unique organizational behavior issues in positive ways.

OML 320 Org Res & Decision Making 4

This course explores basic research methodologies in the context of organizational management. Professional research articles are evaluated and analyzed with an emphasis on reading and understanding research. Basic statistical terms and concepts are taught and analyzed. Students also focus on the writing tasks of the research process. Many assignments dovetail with the synthesis project which is developed throughout the OML program, ending with OML 450.

OML 330 Strat Plng & Project Mgmt 4

This course addresses the practical aspects of working with teams in a project environment. Students will learn the basics of strategic planning theories, effective project management, and applications that contribute toward organizational success, along with a functional application of project management software that helps manage the research project and other organizational challenges

OML 340 Interpers & Intercult Comm 4
This course explores interpersonal and organizational communication strategies and interpersonal relationship skills essential for creating a productive work environment in the diverse intercultural and global setting of the United States. Students explore language, non-verbal communication, context, constructive dialog, and global and multi-cultural implications of effective communication on an organizational setting as they explore the values, beliefs, customs and perceptions represented in various kinds of multi-cultural themes and create effective communication models.

OML 410 Financial & Strategic Ldrshp 4
"This course explores major concepts of corporate finance within an organizational context, including basic accounting terms, budgeting, the time-value of money, and global considerations. Students learn to use standard financial tools that allow accurate business assessments leading to effective financial decisions important for leaders and managers in any organization. Financial analysis and strategic planning integrate in a culminating case study.

OML 420 Personal & Org Mgmt 4
"Students examine key elements of management and leadership theory, including planning, organizing, motivation, feedback, and accountability. Students will analyze management and supervision styles and techniques to develop creative solutions to personal and organizational issues.

OML 430 Innovative Marketing 4
"Students use market research skills and the Five P's of Marketing (place, price, product, promotion and people) as the context for understanding and researching customer needs and wants, advertising, branding, and market niches, all leading up to the development of a Marketing Plan.

OML 440 Applied Synthesis Project 4
"This course is the culmination of the synthesis project that has been developed throughout the program. Students submit their complete written synthesis project and give a formal presentation of the project's content to the instructor and the cohort.

OML 450 Pers & Org Values & Ethical Ld 4
In this final capstone course, students explore and assess their personal value systems, organizational mission and values, and diverse global characteristics, and explore their moral and ethical base to develop strategies for leading and managing from that ethical foundation in a Christian and secular context.

OP 505 Lower Extremity Orthotic Mgmt 3
This course integrates current principles in human movement, pathology, functional assessment and measurement. Principles are then applied through the formulation and implementation of an orthotic treatment plan. The students will research, design, fabricate, and fit functional and accommodative orthotic devices for the lower limb.

OP 510 Spinal Orthotic Management 3
This course incorporates principles of orthopedic assessment, biomechanics, and growth and development. Principles are then applied through the formulation and implementation of orthotic treatment protocol. Students will design, fabricate, and fit corrective and supportive spinal orthoses for conditions of the spine based on evidence-based standards.

OP 515 Upper Extremity Orthotic Mgmt 3
This course integrates the knowledge gained through rehabilitation, orthopedic and functional assessment and incorporates the information into a treatment plan. Techniques are then applied through the implementation of orthotic treatment protocol. Students will research, design, fabricate, and fit upper extremity orthoses.

OP 520 Trans-Tibial Prosthetic Mgmt 3
This course focuses on the process of patient assessment through the formulation and implementation of a prosthetic treatment plan. It includes trans-tibial shape capturing methods with variations in socket designs and suspension techniques as used in contemporary prosthetic practice. This course utilizes evidence to base clinical decisions and to resolve clinical complications that can affect patients with lower limb amputations.

OP 525 Epidemiological Stat Analysis 3

Students will examine the concepts, methods, and usage of statistical data within the context of epidemiological research. This course will include statistical analysis including descriptive and inferential statistics in research topics including disease mortality, risk factors, chronic diseases, and cancer and immunity. Statistical computations will form the foundation of this course, with an emphasis placed upon the use of statistics within the epidemiological research context.

OP 530 Research Methods 3
This course examines the various research methodologies used in orthotics and prosthetics. It provides an overview of quantitative and qualitative research methodologies including research design, data collection and analysis, interviewing, case studies, and action science. The philosophy, ethics, and politics of research are introduced.

OP 535 Trans-Femoral Prosthetic Mgmt 3
This course emphasizes the process of patient assessment through the formulation and implementation of a prosthetic treatment plan. It integrates anatomy, biomechanics, prosthetic design principles and material science to analyze clinical challenges that can affect patients with high-level lower limb amputations.

OP 540 Upper Extremity Prosthetic Mgt 3
This course integrates anatomy, patient assessment, biomechanics, and prosthetic design principles to diagnose clinical problems that can affect patients with upper extremity deficiency. Students will design and implement a prosthetic treatment plan, fabricate and fit the trans-radial and trans-humeral prostheses. This course will also cover innovative technologies in upper limb socket design and identify advanced components to enhance upper-limb function.

OP 545 Orth & Prosth Practice Mgmt 3
This course will examine the general business practices used in the orthotic and prosthetic industry. Topics include record keeping, time management, regulatory compliance, financial statements, human resources, marketing and legal issues. Professional issues including the certification process, personal goal setting and leadership skills assessment are also discussed. Students will apply these principles along with ethical responsibility and critical thinking skills to management practices of business decision making and strategic planning.

OP 590 Master's Capstone 3
The capstone option provides the Orthotic and Prosthetic professional with the opportunity to synthesize the learning, which has taken place throughout the program. It further focuses upon the practical application of knowledge within the Orthotic and Prosthetic industries. The capstone will serve as an assessment of student learning within the Master of Science in Orthotics and Prosthetics program.

OP 595 Master's Thesis 3
The thesis provides the Orthotic and Prosthetic professional with the opportunity to synthesize the learning, which has taken place throughout the program, and to apply research principles to current Orthotic and Prosthetic topics. The thesis will serve as an assessment of student learning within the Master of Science in Orthotics and Prosthetics program.

PHS 112 General Physics I (Trig Based) 4
This algebraic-based course deals with the areas of mechanics and mechanical waves. Physics concepts related to mechanics and mechanical waves are developed mathematically, applied to practical situations, and measured and analyzed in the laboratory setting. Students make use of the computer as a tutorial aid, use a great variety of laboratory equipment (including sensors along with the computer) to procure and analyze data, and use selected software to demonstrate physics concepts and model practical situations. The course meets for two lecture periods each week and for 2 - 2 period lab sessions each week.

PHS 113 General Physics II-Trig Based 4
This algebra/trigonometry-based course deals with the areas of electricity, magnetism, light, optics, and modern physics. Physics' concepts related to these topics are presented, applied to practical situations, and measured and analyzed in the laboratory setting. Students make use of the computer as a tutorial aid, use a great variety of laboratory equipment (including sensors along with the computer) to procure and analyze data, and use selected software to demonstrate physics' concepts and model practical situations. The Internet and literature are used to obtain current information. The course meets for 2 periods each week and for 2 - 2 period lab sessions each week.

PHS 221 General Physics I (Calc Based) 4
"This calculus-based course deals with the areas of mechanics, thermodynamics, and wave motion. Physics' concepts related to these topics are presented, applied to practical situations, and measured and analyzed in the laboratory setting. Students make use of the computer as a tutorial aid, use a great variety of laboratory equipment (including sensors along with the computer) to procure and analyze data, and use selected software to demonstrate physics' concepts and model practical situations. The Internet and literature are used to obtain current information. The course is applicable to students majoring in pre-medicine, pre-engineering, biology, chemistry, mathematics, and science education. (Prerequisites: One year of high school physics and Calculus I)

PHS 222 General Physics II-Calc Based 4
 "This calculus-based course deals with the areas of electricity and magnetism, light and optics and modern physics. Physics' concepts related to these topics are presented, applied to practical situations, and measured and analyzed in the laboratory setting. Students make use of the computer as a tutorial aid, use a great variety of laboratory equipment (including sensors along with the computer) to procure and analyze data, and use selected software to demonstrate physics' concepts and model practical situations. The Internet and literature are used to obtain current information. The course is applicable to students majoring in pre-medicine, pre-engineering, biology, chemistry, mathematics, and science education. (Prerequisite: PHS221)

POL 131 American Government 4
 "This course introduces the student to mechanics, institutions, problem and principles of American national government. It stresses the relationship of constitutional principles to American political practice. Emphasis is placed on change in the political environment and judicial interpretation of constitutional tenants as major factors in a viable and dynamic American political system. Racial and Ethnic minorities are also examined in this course.

POL 242 State & Local Government 4
 "State and local government is the primary contact a citizen has with government. In a creative learning experience students use Minnesota Legislature as their laboratory for learning and participating in the governmental process.

POL 243 Contemporary Global Problems 4
 Survey and examination of the current issues and problems around the world. Course will also discuss themes and approaches in the study of global politics. Students will specifically examine how the current global system is constructed and how nations interact. Topics include contemporary issues like globalization, trade, immigration, war and peace, arms control, terrorism, climate change, and global poverty. This course fulfills the Global Studies General Education requirement.

POL 337 Parties, Campaigns, & Election 4
 "Analysis of party organizations, campaigns, and presidential and congressional elections in the United States. Attention will be given to state and local party structures and activities, third-party movements, and historical patterns of voting behavior.

POL 487 Rdngs Seminar 2
 Readings/Research Seminar in Political Science covering selected topics. This course will emphasize the use of scholarly and primary source materials, individual research, and student participation.

PSY 101 Introduction to Psychology 4
 "This course introduces the scientific study of behavior and mental processes. Psychological, behavioral, cognitive, humanistic, psychodynamic and social-cultural perspectives are explored. Topics such as scientific method, statistical reasoning, neuroscience, learning, cognitive processes, development, psychological adjustment, therapy, social psychology, diversity and community are studied.

PSY 210 Child Psychology and Dev 4
 "A broad sketch of human growth and development is provided from the prenatal stages to the adolescent years. Developmental processes are studied from both a biological and social-cultural perspective to understand physical and perceptual development, cognition and language, personality and social development. Child studies of children at the students' projected levels of teacher certification are required. (Prerequisite: PSY101)

PSY 215 Child & Ad Dev Psy for K-12 Ed 4
 "This course will provide K through 12 educators an understanding of human growth and development from the prenatal stages through adolescence. Developmental processes are studied from both a biological and social-cultural perspective to understand physical and perceptual development, cognition and language, personality and social development. Child studies, examining various aspects of child and adolescent development, are required. (Prerequisite: PSY101)

PSY 220 Adolescent Psychology 4
 "This course examines developmental phenomena of adolescence, its physiological, emotional, cognitive, parent-child, social, vocational and religious dimensions, with opportunity for personal exposure to youth's needs and interacting societal institutions. (Prerequisite: PSY101)

PSY 230 Lifespan Developmental Psy 4
 This course is a scientific study of development from prenatal life through late adulthood, with emphasis on the interplay of psychological processes, heredity and environment. This chronological review addresses physical, cognitive, social and emotional changes across the lifespan. Students observe children in the campus Early Childhood Center or in a similar setting off campus. (Prerequisites: PSY 101)

PSY 300 Cognition, Learn & Memory 4
 "This course introduces students to important insights and theoretical principles of modern cognitive science. Students study human cognition, perception and attention, memory, knowledge representation, language, reasoning, problem solving, cognitive development, creativity, learning, and individual differences in cognition. (Prerequisite: PSY101)

PSY 310 Physiological Psychology 4
 "This course will provide a comprehensive understanding of brain and nervous system physiology. The focus will be on how the nervous system governs behavioral and cognitive processes. Functional and dysfunctional physiology and what this tells us about maladaptive behaviors will also be discussed. (Prerequisite: PSY101)

PSY 320 Sensation and Perception 4
 "Sensing and perceiving the world involves an interaction between our bodies and minds. This course explores the neuroscience and psychological principles underlying human perceptual abilities. Students will encounter different theoretical approaches to the study of this question, as well as a variety of methodological techniques. Topics to be covered include the biological basis of vision, the perception of pattern, color, depth, and spatial layout. The senses of hearing, touch, smell, and taste will be similarly addressed. The course will conclude with an exploration of the relationship between perception to knowledge. (Prerequisite: PSY101)

PSY 330 Introduction to Counseling 4
 "Basic theory, principles, and techniques of counseling and its application to counseling settings are explored. In addition, students develop counseling skills in the following three theoretical areas: person-centered therapy, behavioral contracting, and reality therapy. The student becomes both teacher and subject in experiential laboratory sessions. (Prerequisite: PSY101)

PSY 331 Group Counseling & Therapy 4
 This course is designed to provide students preparing to enter a helping profession with an understanding of group theory, and understanding of the types of groups used in group counseling or group therapy, and the experience of being a member and co-leader in a counseling group. Emphasis is placed on methods, problems, and leadership skills in working with a group. In addition to group processes this course also focuses on professional and ethical responsibilities, assessment, treatment planning, crisis intervention, and referral.

PSY 340 Intro to Industrial/Org. Psych 4
 "Applications of psychology to business and industry: employee selection, performance appraisal, training, leadership, motivation, work environment, job design, safety, and work stress. (Prerequisite: PSY101)

PSY 350 Forensic Psychology 4
 This course will cover a broad range of topics in the field of Forensic Psychology. Psychology of police selection, procedures, and their investigations are examined. The psychology of deception, eyewitness testimony, child victims and witnesses will be covered. Also included in the course is the psychology of jury selection and behavior. Finally, the role of mental illness and psychopathy in deviant behavior is studied. (Prerequisite: PSY101)

PSY 360 Abnormal Psychology 4
 "An introduction to the study of abnormal psychology. The course covers a wide range of behaviors that are distressing to a person or society or which are otherwise identified as abnormal. A comprehensive review of the etiologies of psychological disorders, discussion of available treatments and a focus on the effects that mental illness has on the individual, the family system, and society are included. Current controversies in the field are identified. (Prerequisite: PSY101)

PSY 370 Intro to Personality Theories	4
"This course introduces the student to a variety of personality theories including psychoanalytic, behavioral, cognitive, humanistic and trait and type theories. Issues in personality measurement and assessment techniques are also presented and discussed. (Prerequisite: PSY101)
PSY 380 Research Meth/Stats Appl	4
"This course covers a variety of research strategies for studying psychological phenomena. Students will conduct studies using different research methodologies and will gain experience in analyzing data and writing research reports. Descriptive Statistics, measures of central tendency, correlation, multiple regression, inferential statistics, chi-square, t-tests, analysis of variance, hypothesis testing with application to research methodologies will be taught. (Prerequisites: PSY101, MAT110)
PSY 381 Psychology Research Seminar	2
"This course is designed for advanced psychology students who have designed and implemented research projects as part of PSY380, Research Methods with Statistical Applications. Through individual faculty mentoring, students will complete projects and prepare them for presentation and/or publication. (Prerequisite: PSY380)
PSY 490 Sem on Psyc Tpc:Positive Psyc	4
"This course offers in-depth analysis of a selected topic in psychology such as intelligence, creativity, brain chemistry, cross-cultural psychology, group counseling and processes, advanced counseling, history and systems of psychology, psychology of religion, psychology of gender, forensic psychology, psychological testing, behavior modification, cognitive psychology and biofeedback in a seminar setting. Content determined by the needs of students and interest of psychology faculty. (Prerequisite: 25 credits of psychology or consent of instructor)
PSY 498 Psychology Internship	16
"This internship provides the student with an in-depth field experience in a work setting that provides services that are psychological in nature. The student learns to apply psychological theories and principles. The student in conjunction with the academic advisor selects an appropriate internship site which meets the needs and vocational interests of the student.
PUL 220 Epidemiological Foundations	4
"This course is designed to provide students with a historical background in epidemiological studies. The course is also designed to expose students to the principles and concepts necessary for understanding the basics of epidemiological activity and classical epidemiological investigations. By applying knowledge from a range of disciplines, epidemiologists are able to more adequately study disease, wellness and other health-related events in populations. The ultimate goal of this course is to stimulate a desire for further education in epidemiological course work.
PUL 301 Principles of Healthcare Syst.	4
"The objective of this course is to provide the students with a basic understanding of the healthcare system. As the participants progress through the course they will build their healthcare vocabulary, strengthen their understanding of healthcare concepts and have the opportunity to experience healthcare decision making through the evaluation of case scenarios.
PUL 322 Compliance & Regulatory Req.	4
The focus of this course is to examine the role law plays in the everyday operation of our health care system from the management perspective. Key topics will include: The Affordable Care Act of 2010, Corporate Compliance and Integrity, Fraud and Abuse, health care laws, and health care regulatory agencies. Laws and bills related to health care in the State of Minnesota will be examined and followed.
PUL 329 Advances in Pharmacology	4
"This course is designed to help broaden the health care professional's knowledge of pharmacology. Topics include types and effects of drugs, including diagnostic imaging contrast media. Pharmacology, pharmacokinetics, and pharmacodynamics of drugs commonly used in ancillary health care are presented. Students taking this course will also study the most recent FDA approved medications and understand the current state of respiratory care practice in today's health care environment.
PUL 330 Multi-Specialties in Resp. Thr	4
"This course outlines the diverse disciplines in the Respiratory Therapy profession ranging from acute care to chronic management. It gives Respiratory Therapists the opportunity to develop more understanding of professional diversification of other specialties in their field, including Sleep Medicine, neo-Peds, Specialization, Flight Medicine, Home Care, and others. This seven week extensive course will identify the needs, demand and unique requirements for each specific specialization. Respiratory Studies will be implemented based on current guidelines, practices and procedures of accredited professional standards in Respiratory Care.
PUL 331 Adv. in Critical Care Monitor	4
"This course focuses on the advanced medical and respiratory care needed for the critically ill adult patients. Among the topics covered are cardiopulmonary assessment of trauma, postsurgical, cardiac and renal patients. The course will also provide instruction in advanced cardiac life-support.
PUL 332 Adv. Cardiopulmonary Sciences	4
This course provides students with techniques and methods used to analyze and evaluate the health status of critically ill patients. This course has an emphasis on the respiratory, cardiovascular and renal systems and is beneficial for students who work within a critical care facility.
PUL 342 Healthcare Info. Systems	4
"This course examines the intricate interlocking healthcare technology systems from patient self-service to data entry by the practitioner. Additionally, students will explore security, legal and ethical implications associated with electronic healthcare systems. Finally, students will learn about enterprise healthcare information and management systems that contribute to ensuring quality patient care.
PUL 400 Health Psychology	4
"This class is designed to help students learn those skills necessary in forging a bridge between the client-learner's thoughts, feelings and actions by integrating thought and behavior into one synergistic approach to the delivery of health education that can accommodate the whole person. Cognitive techniques, such as lecture discussion, readings, presentations, collection of data and specific planning combined with the behavioral components of emotion and action will help in bringing about this synergistic process.
PUL 435 Ethics & Decision Making	4
This is a foundational course in ethics for individuals pursuing vocations of service in health care. Students will have a greater understanding of the ethical principles that are applied to the delivery of health care services and the processes for making sound ethical decisions. Students will develop models of decision making that are consistent with core personal values as well as the ethical standards of their professions. Motivations for ethical healthcare decisions will be evaluated. The roles and responsibilities of healthcare professionals will be explored on the basis of Christian values as well as assumptions drawn from reason and societal norms and expectations.
PUL 490 Senior Seminar	4
"This course provides the foundation for the research project. The students will engage in a literature survey of research in the instructor's area of expertise and develop a research proposal consisting of a research hypothesis, a rationale for the work and experimental design.
RAD 222 Pathological Foundations	4
This course is designed to provide students with a historical background in pathological studies. The course is also designed to expose students to the principles and concepts necessary for understanding the basics of pathological investigations. By applying knowledge from a range of disciplines, pathologists are able to more adequately study disease, wellness, and other health-related events in populations. The ultimate goal of this course is to stimulate a desire for further education in pathological course work. Also includes the study of cell response to radiation and chemotherapy.
RAD 250 Leadership Communication	4
This course emphasizes the communication processes of leadership with particular focus on assessing and researching leadership skills, strategic organizational planning, decision making, problem solving, mentoring employees, collaborative team management skills, cultivating a supportive work environment, change management, facilitation and meeting management skills, presentation skills and interviewing skills.
RAD 300 Strategic Ldrshp of Resources	4
The strategy process represents an essential opportunity for health care leaders to establish, implement and guide the organization's direction in these turbulent waters of changing distribution systems. Students will look at the strategies of health care organizations in an increasingly global and competitive marketplace.

RAD 310 Writing for Healthcare Profess	4	Healthcare professionals at all levels must demonstrate professionalism as strong communicators not only verbally, but as writers as well. This course will lay the ground work of writing expectations in the program and serve to remediate as needed.	strong leadership roles, and how to better understand Christians in the workplace within a Judeo-Christian culture.
RAD 322 Compliance & Regulatory Req.	4	The focus of this course is to examine the role law plays in the everyday operation of our health care system from the management perspective. Key topics will include: The Affordable Care Act of 2010, Corporate Compliance and Integrity, Fraud and Abuse, health care laws, and health care regulatory agencies. Laws and bills related to health care in the State of Minnesota will be examined and followed.	SLS 300 Intro. to Professional Selling	4	This course will introduce students to the skills, concepts, tools and techniques in professional selling: business to business, business to employee and personal selling.
RAD 330 Comm Strat for Conflict Mgmt	4	"This course provides an overview of the nature and functions of communication in human conflict. Professionals develop communication skills, such as listening and collaboration, which are necessary for managing conflict productively in interpersonal, organizational and intercultural contexts. Professionals will gain an understanding of patterns, research and processes associated with conflict management styles, and civility. This course will also address how language, perception, gender communication, and generational differences and context influence the conflict process.	SLS 400 Sales Mgmt & Bus. Devlpmnt.	4	"This course will study how to develop and manage an effective sales organization focusing on business to business sales. Students will study in-depth competitive analysis, develop sales proposals, negotiate contracts, understand buyer needs, consultative selling, and develop strategies for gaining new business. These same concepts will be applied to creating positive social impact related to public policy in areas including the environment, health policy, business regulation, and education. (Prerequisite: SLS300)"
RAD 350 Hlthcare Diversity & Global Is	4	"Students use literature, interviews and class discussion to explore the values, beliefs, customs and perceptions represented in various kinds of diversity affecting social and economic life. Students explore the obligations and implications of equal opportunity in organizations while they develop organizational strategies to benefit from diversity in the United States and abroad.	SOC 152 Introduction to Sociology	4	"This course provides an introduction to the systematic study of society and social behavior. Investigation will focus on the values and norms shared by society's members, the groups and institutions that compose social structure, and the forces that are transforming social reality.
RAD 400 Org Dev for HR Professionals	4	This course will help HR leaders understand organization development from a leadership and HR perspective. Students will build their capacity to facilitate complex change initiatives using change theories, models, and concepts. Students will demonstrate an understanding of how a complex organizational environment is driving the need for continuous change. Moreover, students will develop skills in planning for change, communicating change, and holding individuals accountable for results. Students will also demonstrate an understanding of how change impacts individual performance.	SOC 253 Marriage and Family	4	"This course considers the family as one of the primary social institutions within the larger social system. It explores the family's internal structure and functioning, how it serves the needs of both individuals and society, how it is changing in contemporary American society, and the societal challenges of families in crisis. (Prerequisite: SOC152)
RAD 435 Ethics & Decision Making in HC	4	This is a foundational course in ethics for individuals pursuing vocations of service in health care. Students will have a greater understanding of the ethical principles that are applied to the delivery of health care services and the processes for making sound ethical decisions. Students will develop models of decision making that are consistent with core personal values as well as the ethical standards of their professions. Motivations for ethical healthcare decisions will be evaluated. The roles and responsibilities of healthcare professionals will be explored on the basis of Christian values as well as assumptions drawn from reason and societal norms and expectations.	SOC 256 Intro to Criminal Justice	4	"The course uses a sociological perspective to analyze the meaning of crime for a society, theories of criminal behavior and crime prevention. Emphasis is placed on understanding the law enforcement, judicial and corrections systems. Current issues such as police discretion, gun control, capital punishment and corporate crime are examined. (Prerequisite: SOC152)
RAD 440 Legal Env for Hlthcare Mgrs	4	This course integrates the treatment of law and management. It helps managers and leaders spot legal issues before they become legal problems and emphasizes developing the legal astuteness to craft solutions that attain core organizational objectives without incurring undue legal risk. Traditional legal concepts are discussed as well as current topics in developing areas of the law. An emphasis on ethical concerns stimulates understanding of how managers must incorporate considerations of ethics and social responsibility into their managerial actions.	SOC 325 MN Criminal Codes & Statutes	2	The course covers the elements and effects of the Minnesota Criminal Code. Students study basic procedural law; crimes against persons, crimes against property, juvenile law, traffic law, and laws relating to domestic violence. Pertinent court cases are discussed in relation to each topic. (The course is required for students who intend to take the POST exam for Minnesota law enforcement officers.) Prerequisite: SOC152
RAD 490 Senior Seminar	4	"The students will engage in a literature survey of research in the instructor's area of expertise and develop a research proposal consisting of a research hypothesis, a rationale for the work and experimental design. Students learn professional presentation skills and combine research and theory to develop individualized synthesis projects which examine research problems and answer a particular research question that has specific application in their occupation.	SOC 351 Juvenile Justice	4	"The course examines the nature and extent of juvenile crime in American society. It includes an analysis of the historical and intellectual foundations of the juvenile justice system and the interpretation of Constitutional law as applied to children. Emphasis is placed on the role of the family and community in the prevention and treatment of delinquency. (Prerequisites: SOC152, SOC256)
RLG 415 Biblical Christianity	4	Students study selected Old and New Testament texts and explore the historical Biblical perspective of Christianity in the context of grace and the Gospel of Jesus Christ. Students learn how religious issues have been addressed and incorporated in different eras of history. A study of the content and effective application of the Christian understanding of doctrine itself, God, creation, theological anthropology, and the person and work of Christ, with an exploration of the biblical basis, conceptual framework, and the contemporary significance of the historic doctrine of the Lutheran church. Particular attention will be given to the contributions of C.F.W. Walther to the Lutheran understanding of Law and Gospel. Prerequisites: THL201 and (THL206 or THL215)

THL 432 Lutheran Doctrine II 3
A study of the content and effective application of the Christian understanding of the person and work of the Holy Spirit, sanctification, the means of grace, the Christian church, public ministry, and eschatology with an exploration of the biblical basis, conceptual framework, and the contemporary significance of the historic doctrine of the Lutheran church. Particular attention will be given to the contributions of C.F.W. Walther to the Lutheran understanding of church and ministry. Prerequisite: THL431

THL 441 Lutheran Confessional Writings 3
A survey and analysis of the gospel-centered doctrinal content of the Book of Concord in its 16th century historical and theological context. The eleven confessional documents are studied and interpreted as the church's normative exposition of Holy Scripture, to which exposition the evangelical Lutheran church is committed in terms of both theological method and doctrinal substance.

THL 460 Worship for Lutherans 3
Exploring early church experience and Reformation teaching, the student uncovers the meaning of worship. Critical evaluation of contemporary practice and recent developments in worship make the student better able to provide leadership in congregational worship life.

THL 482 Christian Ministry & Practice 3
The concepts of call, vocation, ministry and team ministry are studied in relation to the worship, witness, teaching, service and fellowship of the church. Students will develop an awareness of the oneness of the church as the body of Christ gathered around Word and Sacrament. The nature of the ministry as servant hood is explored in the context of the life of local churches. Students spend time off campus in local congregations observing and participating in the life of the church.

THL 496 Senior Thesis 2
The Senior Thesis is the culminating work of a student majoring in Theology. The purpose of the thesis is to utilize the perspective, understanding, research skills, and writing abilities students have developed in their studies to investigate a substantial topic. The goal is for students to produce a paper of high quality and distinction. The work is normally done in one semester in the senior year under the guidance of a faculty mentor. The paper will be read by a second faculty member and proposed to the annual undergraduate Research Symposium. This course is required for the major in theology. It does not fulfill the general education requirement for Theology.

THR 101 Introduction to The Theatre 2
This course introduces the student to basic history, theory, production and performance elements of theatre arts. Students learn about theatre from many perspectives. In addition to studying primary and secondary materials, taking quizzes and/or tests, students participate in end of term individual or group projects. Attendance at area theatre productions required.

THR 111 Theatre in Practice I 1
Concordia's theatre department, in service to campus and community, offers opportunities for involvement in major theatre productions, workshop dramas, and various experimental undertakings during the school year. Auditions for all productions are open to all Concordia students. This course can include work on theatrical productions as actors and/or crews.

THR 112 Theatre in Practice II 2
Credit is given for major involvement in theatre productions, workshops, and other approved situations. Major involvement is defined as activities such as stage managing, assistant directing, designing, and directing projects. (Prerequisite: consent of instructor)

THR 131 Improvisation 2

THR 160 Introduction to Dance 2
This course will examine the fundamental principles, practices, and vocabulary of the basic movement skills of dance, introducing it as both an art form and exercise activity. The basics of modern, ballet, and jazz dance movement will be incorporated to provide a wide overview of dance history and practical technique through readings and studio movement participation. Students will be introduced to each dance style with a focus on body awareness and alignment. Warm ups and across the floor movement are incorporated to develop strength, flexibility, musicality, and coordination.

THR 201 Dance for Musical Theatre	2
Through the study and practice of the various styles of dance used on the musical theatre stage, such as ballet, modern, jazz, and tap, this course will focus on dance technique, character development through movement, and performance skills. Execution and exploration of choreographed pieces from musical theatre repertoire will be taught and performed in a final Student Showcase. Students will be introduced to a wide dance vocabulary as well as to the major contributors/choreographers of Musical Theatre. Prerequisite: May be repeated once as an elective which may count as a general elective or be credited to a theatre major.
THR 221 Acting I	4
"Through improvisation, monologue, and scene work, students learn and develop the basic techniques for approaching the acting process. These include relaxation, imagination, spontaneity, concentration, character analysis, and using the voice, face, and body to assist in creating a complete and complex character.
THR 241 Script Analysis	4
"Students will analyze a variety of performance texts from differing perspectives. A traditional approach incorporating literary analysis to understand the internal workings of the text on paper, will be combined with an examination of the text as it may be translated into performance, from the perspectives of the designer, director and actor.
THR 251 Stagecraft	4
"The course provides an introduction to the scope, tools, materials and practices of stagecraft and technical management in the theatre today. The course utilizes formal lectures, group discussion, outside projects, attendance at outside theatre productions and practical lab sessions to cover the material presented.
THR 262 Modern Dance Technique	3
Students will be introduced to the basic movements, concepts, and technique of modern dance with a focus on breath, strength, alignment, and flexibility. Students will learn about the pioneers of modern dance (Loie Fuller, Isadora Duncan, Ruth St. Denis, Doris Humphrey, Martha Graham) as well as the current contributors to the dance form, regarding their stylistic contributions and differences. Reading assignments and quizzes will be given in addition to the technique class. Students will learn and perform a modern dance piece during the semester and perform in a final student showcase.
THR 263 Jazz Dance Technique	3
This course will introduce and practice the basic movement, dance terminology, and style of jazz dance technique, focusing on stretch, strength, body awareness, rhythmic ability, and coordination. An appreciation and study of the origins and evolution of jazz dance, along with its major contributors, will be emphasized. The technique class will focus on jazz dance vocabulary and steps, isolations, center combinations, and across the floor patterns. Students will learn a choreographed jazz dance and perform in a final student showcase.
THR 321 Acting II	4
"Further principles in developing a character are learned through more monologue and scene work. Advanced techniques of breathing, rhythm, focus and facial mask are taught to help the student explore the field of potential and lead the actor out of the known and into the unknown. (Offered every other year. Prerequisite: THR221 or consent of instructor)
THR 356 Costume Design	4
"This course will be an introduction to the art and practice of costume design. Emphasis will be on analysis of the costume design process and organization from script to design concept to the workable costume for the actor. Attendance at area theatre productions is required. Laboratory hours required. (Prerequisite: THR251 or consent of instructor)
THR 357 Lighting & Sound	4
"This course is an introduction to the theory and the techniques of lighting and sound design for the stage. Three subject areas in both aspects of theatre will be discussed in this course: basic understanding and connection of the equipment, basic design, and a basic understanding of the aesthetics of sound and lighting design. Laboratory hours required. (Prerequisite: THR251 or consent of instructor)
THR 364 Tap Dance Technique	3
This course is an introduction to the fundamental vocabulary and technique of tap dance, its history as an art form, and its major contributors to the style. Students learn a basic technical foundation, with an emphasis on the building block steps (spank, shuffle, flap, cramp roll, Shim Sham, Maxie Ford) while also concentrating on proper articulation and execution of movement. Students work on a choreographed routine and perform in a final student showcase.
THR 365 Dance History	3
A survey of dance history from origins in ancient civilizations up to the twentieth century, this course will examine the function of dance in a social, political, religious, and cultural context. Through text reading, research projects, and viewing, students will analyze the development of dance, its significance and role in history.
THR 366 Choreography/Composition	3
This course will explore the process of dance making, by studying the principles of composition and the thematic development and organization of movement material. Students will work on and study basic choreographic elements and principles (rhythm, space, time, dynamics) using movement exploration, improvisation, and other creative skills to develop compositions, with a concentration on solo or small group dances, which will be performed in a final student showcase.
THR 367 Ballet Technique	3
This course will introduce the basics of classical ballet. Students will learn the basic positions of the feet and arms, fundamental ballet steps, and French terminology, through barre exercises, center floor work, and across the floor patterns. This class will also emphasize ballet vocabulary and style, proper body alignment, strength, flexibility, and musicality. Students will learn a choreographed ballet piece and perform in the final Student Showcase.
THR 445 Theatre Hist, Theory & Lit I	4
"A survey course covering the history, theory and literature of theatre from the beginnings of performance up to the early Renaissance in the west. Readings of primary sources are combined with secondary sources such as criticism, videos, and attendance at live theatre events to form a theoretical and historical context for specific periods of development and specific dramatic works.
THR 446 Theatre Hist, Theory & Lit II	4
"A survey course covering the history, theory and literature of theatre starting from the Renaissance in the west up to modern theatre of the 21st century. THR 478 Directing	4
"Studio course focusing on the basic fundamentals of stage direction. Script analysis and directorial concepts are executed throughout the semester in preparation for a final prepared performance in the form of a one act play or excerpt from a full-length play. As directing requires knowledge of many aspects of the theatrical art, this course is seen as a culminating activity taken after a solid foundation of other theatre course work. Attendance at area productions is required. (Prerequisite: THR241)
URB 201 Mission Shift Institute I	3
This course introduces students to south Minneapolis, exposing them to the issues and topics they will study in greater detail in other U4C courses.
URB 202 Mission Shift Institute II	3
This course continues the introduction of students to south Minneapolis, exposing them to the issues and topics they will study in greater detail in other U4C courses.
URB 310 Principles of Urban Ministry	3
This course is intended to provide the learner with an introduction to theory and methodology of urban ministry from a Biblical perspective. An overview of the history, theological trends, leadership and future of urban service, with attention to Biblical principles for evaluating the strengths and weaknesses of urban service and designs will be covered to give the students a greater understanding of urban service.
URB 320 History and Contemporary Issues	3
This class is designed to give students a thorough understanding of the history and development of Minneapolis as well as its current trends and challenges. It gives the student an in-depth understanding of the milieu in which he or she will be studying the rest of the urban classes. The course will be taught using various learning methods including reading, lectures, discussions, research, writing, field trips, media presentations and guest speakers. As in integrative approach, the students will engage in a combination of classroom preparations, field experience and post-experience analysis, creating a critical reference point for the student to deepen his or her Christian worldview, cross-cultural engagement, and understanding of diverse social and cultural contexts.

URB 330 Demographics and Research Methods 3

This class instructs students in the methods and procedures on how to conduct and read urban demographics. The class will focus on the consumption of demographic material to make competent, strategic decisions. The class will also require students to conduct mini-research projects to further their understanding of compiling demographic decisions.

URB 340 Significant Urban Service Issues 3

This class is designed to give students a good understanding of several interrelated areas of urban service. The students will learn from practitioners and specialists in each of the following areas: chemical dependency (including detox, intervention strategies, treatment methods, community resources, 12-step programs, etc.), teen pregnancy, prostitution and the sex industry, HIV/AIDS, Homeland Security/INS, domestic violence, narcotics distribution and gangs.

URB 410 Urban Social Psychology 3

This course will cover various phenomena related to social influence – the power of people to affect, persuade, or control the beliefs or behaviors of others.
